"Downtown by history and by choice"

Newsletter

January 17, 2017

From the Pastor

Dear friends,

What a week! Yesterday, we hosted the prayer service at the end of the annual MLK Unity March. We prayed together, sang together, listened to the angelic voices of children from the Durham Children's Choir singing, and heard inspiring messages from speakers such as Rep. David Price and the Rev. William Lucas (to name a couple!). Thanks for all of you who came out to hand out bulletins, direct folks to bathrooms, and support the fight for racial justice. I was honored to take part in what has been a long and important tradition here at FPC.

I know many of you are also looking to the end of the week with mixed emotions. With the inauguration on Friday, some of you are choosing to express your desire for justice for the poor and marginalized by marching in Washington, DC, or in Raleigh, NC. No matter how you spend your weekend, the emotions will no doubt be high on Friday and Saturday.

My prayer for us all is that whatever we do this week and however we feel, that we will continue to find strength, hope, and inspiration in God's calling to us to follow Jesus. As followers of Christ, we are called to care for the least of these. We are called to live in the fruits of the Spirit—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. We are called to work for justice. We are called to love one another.

May everything we do this week live into that calling God has given us.

*With much love,
Mindy*

CONFIRMATION CLASS

The Affirmation of Confirmands was been rescheduled to this Sunday, January 22 at 11:00 in worship. At that time, confirmands and mentors will stand before the congregation, and the church's baptismal vows to the confirmands will be reaffirmed, followed by the gift of scarves from the Shawl Ministry Group.

Confirmation Class will meet with mentors upstairs in the Education Building at 9:45 to talk about Bound Together: A Covenant Life. We will practice our affirmation service, which is at 11:00 this Sunday. Confirmands and mentors are requested to attend.

The FPC youth group joined with Community Midrasha, Sikh Gurudwara, Mt. Bethel Presbyterian Church, and Iglesia Emanuel for the MLK holiday this past Sunday to pack lunches, powdered milk bags, and laundry detergent bottles for Urban Ministries of Durham. This is the fourth year that we have come together for this event, always focusing on the greatest needs at UMD at that time. In just under an hour, we were able to pack nearly 460 lunches and hundreds of milk bags and laundry bottles. We also had leftover supplies that were taken to the Lerner School to be packed on Monday and then taken to UMD. We were able to spend time over dinner talking about each of our faith traditions and how they all support Dr. King's hopes for our world. It was a great night!

Please note that the Fun Night Out at Skyzone has been rescheduled to this Sunday, January 22 from 5:00–6:30 p.m. Remember to return your signed registration form to Sarah if you plan to participate!

Contact Sarah Finbow (s.finbow@firstpres-durham.org or 919-682-5511) for info on youth activities at FPC!

Lectionary Class (Adults)

New Bible Study: Parables

How do we read the parables in such a way that we are held accountable by them? This is what Richard Lischer asks in his new book, Reading the Parables. Using Lischer's book, Amy Jill Levine's book, and our primary Kerygma resource, we will study categories of parables together, and discuss how they hold us accountable, and to what they hold us accountable. The class meets each Friday from 10:30 - noon upstairs in the Education Building.

This week we will talk about the Parable of the Good Samaritan. Women and men are welcome!
