ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith and Community Class

Continuing our examination of Lent we will examine the themes of Sin, Repentance and Reconciliation. The noted psychiatrist, Karl Menninger, asked the question a number of years ago 'Whatever Became of Sin?' How would we answer that question today? Join us in Watts-Hill Hall at 9:45. Homer Ashby will lead the discussion.

Lectionary Class

What is the Law? Is it a set of strict rules to be followed grudgingly? Is it a mysterious word from God, which we are incapable of understanding? Or is it a precious gift to be treasured? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class

Come explore Paul's letter to the Galatians and his principles of Christian freedom. Join us at 9:45 in our second floor classroom.

Scratch Class

Young adults will begin a new series from the lectionary based resource, Faith Element. Join us at 9:45 in our lower level classroom.

Family Matters Class

"Two Kinds of Prayers" (Seamless Faith, Chapter 5, pp. 121 & 110) is our topic this Sunday. Join us at 9:45, second floor, across from the Resource Room.

Spiritual Formation Class

This class for women is led by Susan Dunlap. Join us at 9:45, lower level classroom.

MIDWEEK COMMUNION

Wednesdays, March 4 and March 18
6:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary

The March 4th family-friendly Taizé prayer service with Holy Communion will be led by Jon Nelson. At 6:30 we will gather around tables in Watts-Hill Hall for a light supper appropriate to the season. Durham's Northern High School Culinary Program will provide the meal. All are welcome.

EFIRD LECTURES BEGIN!

Thursdays,
March 5, 12,
19 and 26

10:30 a.m. – 12 Noon in Watts-Hill Hall
Dr. James (Mickey) Efird, Professor Emeritus of Biblical Interpretation at Duke Divinity School, will present a series of lectures on the four gospel accounts of the Resurrection of Jesus. The lectures are free and open to the public.

The Florence Forth road race is coming up this Saturday March 7, 2015 on 9th Street in Durham, NC. Please consider participating by running/walking or volunteering. We are so grateful for your support. You can find more information for registration and volunteering at <http://florenceforth.org>.

FPC is forming a SCRIPTURE READERS' GROUP

... representative of the congregation, young, old and in-between. Readers will be trained volunteers scheduled to read the scripture for the Sunday worship services. The first training classes will meet at 9:45 a.m. in the Wilson Parlor THIS SUNDAY, March 8, and again on March 15th. For more information, contact Steve Rimmer at 919-529-2235 or crrimmer@nc.rr.com.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

Confirmands and mentors are invited to our second floor room at 9:45 for some soul-searching around the big questions of faith. We are approaching the end of our process, and it is important that everyone continue our streak of excellent attendance.

FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear friends,

I don't know about you, but I have been thrown lately by the loss of some truly remarkable people of faith in our midst. One of them was Dean Smith, the former basketball coach at UNC. Even if you weren't a Tarheels fan, you had to admire Dean Smith for the way he lived his faith, both on and off the court. I was so impressed, frankly, by the passage he chose to have read and preached at his funeral: The Parable of the Sheep and the Goats from Matthew 25. For the greatest of coaches to be concerned about the least of these, makes quite a statement of faith.

Then there was the loss of Syngman Rhee, the former Moderator of the PC(USA). Rhee was from NORTH KOREA, fled to South Korea, and then emigrated to the USA for college at Davis and Elkins in West Virginia. I met him there during my first pastorate, and found him to be an amazing saint of the church. I saw him again at General Assembly in Detroit this summer, and had no idea he was nearing the end of his journey. The church has lost one of its greatest global advocates in Rhee.

And lastly, there is Steve Hayner, the President of Columbia Theological Seminary, who succumbed recently to pancreatic cancer. Steve was a gift to CTS, who didn't fit easily into any of the usual categories. He had some evangelical leanings, and some global practices; he was a great friend to Presbyterians on both sides of the fence; he loved Jesus and he loved the local church and the larger church. Columbia Seminary and the PC(USA) will miss him greatly, this brave fighter. I hope our own PNC will notice in Hayner a lovely fusion of boundary-breaking witness that might be appropriate for our next pastor.

I mourn these losses, but I'm also overwhelmed by what we have gained by these witnesses. Our church is sad from losing BJ Seitzer last month. But your love for the Seitzers was so powerful on Sunday as so many of you stood in the FPC Memorial Garden, shoulder to shoulder, in the freezing rain, poking each other in the eye with your umbrellas, to be in solidarity with this family in their grief and in our witness to the resurrection. Life lived in God's grace is precious.

See you Sunday,
Marilyn

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

An annual meeting of the congregation has been called for Sunday, March 15 during lunch in Watts-Hill Hall to celebrate the adoption of the 2015 budget and the 2014 Statistical Report, and to hear an update from the PNC. Cris Rivera is cooking. So, get a plate, find a seat and join the celebration of the good health of our church.

Hats off to Tom Bloom, Robert Daye, and Valerie McMillian for keeping the parking lot cleared and the sidewalks salted during the inclement weather, and for keeping us advised about the many schedule changes that occurred; to Barbara Gerwe and Kate Busa for serving as commissioners at Saturday's Presbytery meeting in Greenville; to the Maxwell family, Jody, Julie, Ben and Charlotte, who took advantage of the snow days to make more blessing bags for the church to give away; to Phyllis Supple, Bob Breitweiser and the worship team who made sure communion was set up for Sunday; to Wes Carson and Steve Rimmer for extending communion to The Forest at Duke residents; to all who joined the Seitzer family in FPC's Memorial Garden (in the freezing rain) after worship on Sunday, to commend BJ Seitzer to the hands of God.

MANY THANKS . . . to those of you who recently helped Cynthia furnish her empty apartment. The donations were truly a blessing as she moved from the Urban Ministries Shelter to permanent housing! A special thanks to Tom Keller and Steve Hirsch for loading and delivering furniture donations despite the bad weather.

WE HAVE A GOOD SUPPLY of items for blessing bags and have run out of storage space, so please hold at home any items you may have until we send out a call for more supplies. Thank you so much for your generosity and helping our neighbors who may be hungry!

YOUTH NEWS

Dear friends,

This week the youth discussed how service is a Lenten practice and brainstormed ways in which they can put others and God's creation before themselves this Lent. Thank you to Rebecca Harvard Barnes for providing our dinner! We will be putting our thoughts into action next weekend, volunteering with the Florence Forth race on Saturday and doing a service project on Sunday!

Blessings,
Sarah
