FROM THE

ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear friends,

We had a wonderful Mother's Day celebration on Sunday, as our youth led worship with great integrity. It was great to sit in the pews and participate as a proud congregant, and feel encouraged by the leadership of our younger members guiding the feet of this congregation. Many thanks go to Sarah Finbow and her youth advisors, and to Kathy Parkins and Kirsten Rutschman for their musical guidance. And, if that were not enough, Cris Rivera and her deacon helpers in the kitchen pulled off a meal fit for royalty for the nearly 100 people who stayed for lunch.

Also, the congregational meeting was filled with good news, as we heard a report from Luke Everett on behalf of the PNC that the committee has received more than 90 applications for Pastor/Head of Staff, and is now beginning the process of reducing that pool to single digits and beginning interviews. We are so grateful for their hard work and perseverance.

FPC is also grateful to Marie Sappenfield and the Nominating Committee for the slate of new officers, ruling elders and deacons who were elected yesterday. We are thankful for the new officers who have agreed to serve during this time of exciting transition.

One huge surprise Sunday was a Mother's Day card from Barbara Cooper, an Urban Ministries resident who calls FPC her church home. We are working hard to find permanent housing for Barbara, so keep your eyes open for those opportunities for her.

God is good,

Marilyn

THANK YOU!
THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

Our Spring DAY OF SERVICE was a great success, and the weather could not have been more perfect. The following people also served on May 2, decorating Day School doors: Sue Fricks, Delia Kwon, Libby Gulley, Jane, Isabel and Annabelle Brown, and George Bernhardt. Delia Kwon also worked an afternoon shift with Habitat.

Thank to those of you who brought supplies for hygiene and blessing bags. We have a good supply of items on hand now for the hygiene bags!

From the family of Anne Leathers,

Many thanks to all of you who provided food and notes expressing sympathy, love and wonderful memories of time spent with a special lady. The FPC community was a very important part of her life.

FPC Durham,

Thank you so much for financially supporting UKirk at Virginia Tech and our trip to Guatemala. I am so excited to be returning back to work with CEDEPCA and learn about the many ways ministry is active in Guatemala. It is so comforting to know I have support from my FPC family, and I hope all is well in the Durham community! Sincerely,

James Compton

MISSION OPPORTUNITY The Presbyterian Campus Ministry Board of NCCU is looking for one or two representatives from FPC to sit on that board, and connect our congregation to on-going activities on the NCCU campus. If you feel called to be a liaison between NCCU and FPC, please contact Marilyn Hedgpeth about joining that Board. Reverend Linda Parker has been our Presbyterian Campus Minister there for ten years, and she enlists our help.
