ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith and Community Class

This Sunday we have a treat as we welcome FPC member Arthur Clark to speak about his new book, Eye of the Tiger: China 1944-1945. This is the story of a three-year post-graduate education which took him around the world as an Air Force intelligence officer. The class meets in Watts-Hill Hall at 9:45. All are welcome.

Lectionary Class

God continues to surprise us, by coming among us to comfort us and by welcoming those whom we had considered unworthy. What other surprises does God have in store? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class

Job seems to deny God because he does not understand His ways. Is this true? What do you think? All are welcome to join Journeys as they read and discuss the Book of Job at 9:45 on the second floor of the CE building.

Scratch/Young Adults

This class uses podcasts to kick-start our conversations about the intersection of Christianity, the modern world, and faith in general. Carlo Diy leads the discussion. Join us at 9:45 in the basement – room across from the Youth room.

Family Matters Class

Parents of elementary age and younger children share the road of parenting and dabble in Scripture. We meet at 9:45 in the CE building, room 203.

Women's Spiritual Formation Class

Susan Dunlap leads this class for women on spiritual formation. We meet at 9:45 in the basement classroom.

SUNDAY SCHOOL (Grades 3-5)

We will wrap up our unit on Jesus and the storm, with Alec Bethune back to give us some mapping experience. Might be a good time for an end-of-the-month feast, too. Friends are always welcome to join us.

SENIORS SPRING LUNCHEON

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20

11:30 a.m. – Gather in the East Parlor
12 Noon - Luncheon in Watts-Hill Hall
Suggested donation for the meal: $8
The program will feature a presentation by Joe White, manager of the Durham County Main Library. He will talk about the upcoming library renovations.

"INVITE A FRIEND TO CHURCH" SUNDAY

Research shows that at any given moment in time, 2 to 5% of the people in any given community are looking for a church home. Research also shows that the majority of people who find a new church come initially because someone invited them. Let's all give it a try! Invite a friend to worship with us at FPC this coming Sunday, April 24th!

NEWCOMER'S CLASS

The final session of the Newcomer's Class will be held on this coming Sunday morning, April 24th, in the Wilson Parlor of the Church house at 9:45 a.m. (prior to the worship service). Kathy Parkins, Minister of Music, will lead a discussion about the church liturgical seasons, planning of the worship service and related issues. She will be followed by Peter Fish, long time member and church historian, who will give an overview of the history of FPC. The Session will meet to receive new members at the end of the class. Please contact Shirley Frederick at 919-682-5511 or s.frederick@firstpres-durham.org with questions.

🎵 CONCERT 🎵

WOMEN'S VOICES CHORUS

SUNDAY, APRIL 24

3:00 p.m. in the FPC sanctuary

The first half of the program includes "From Behind the Caravan" by Abbie Betinis, based on the mystical Persian poetry of Hâfez. The second half presents diverse works about brave women from the three faiths of Abraham: Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. Women's Voices Chorus will partner with the Women's Choir of Durham's Northern High School on a number of these pieces. Tickets are $5.00 for students and $15.00 for adults. Tickets can be purchased online, from any chorus member, or at the door on the day of the concert. FPC members will receive a discount. All tickets purchased online will be available for pickup at the ticket table in the church foyer on the day of the concert.

FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

I try not to use too many superlatives in talking about the church, but Sunday's worship and lunch were such a wow! I felt that the Lord was "making his face shine upon us" as we worshipped in the style of 1916, and celebrated God's abiding presence in our sanctuary for 100 years.

A round of applause for all who helped plan and carry out Sunday's wonderful Sanctuary and Organ Centennial Celebration! Kudos to Caroline Rourk and her Centennial Planning Committee for sending out invitations, planning for the luncheon, and making sure our guests were well-cared for; to Peter Fish for providing helpful historical information regarding worship in 1916 and the history of the building and organ; to Cris Rivera and Beth Stringfield for a superb lunch; and to the Fellowship Committee and Deacons, and those who stayed to clean-up; to Kathy Parkins and the Chancel and Bell choirs for beautiful music. (Special thanks to Valerie McMillian and Robert Daye for taking on much of the background work behind this event.) And lastly, we are grateful for Rev. Dr. Wallace Alston and Alice, for coming to preach and be with us, and to Rev. John Rogers and Anne, for helping to lead worship. Rev. Rogers left a copy of his new book, With All Our Prayers, for our church library. Inside the cover, he has written: For First Presbyterian Church, Durham, congratulations on your sanctuary centennial, and with gratitude for your nurture and encouragement of a young couple, 1970-1972. Every blessing . . . indeed!

Grace and peace,

Marilyn
