ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith and Community Class

This Sunday we welcome Christopher Gergen who will facilitate a conversation with us about the "New Durham." Durham is at an important crossroads, according to Gergen, regarding inclusive innovation where East Durham meets West Durham. He'll share what a multi-city collaborate called Forward Cities, which includes Detroit, Cleveland and New Orleans, are doing in this area. The class meets in Watts-Hill Hall at 9:45, and all are welcome.

Lectionary Class

On Pentecost we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit, but what exactly does that mean? Does the Spirit bring fluency in languages, or insight into the Gospel message, or even the breath of life itself? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class

Journeys will continue reading opportune passages from the Bible and engaging in lively discussions. All are welcome to join us at 9:45, CE building, second floor classroom at the end of the hall.

Scratch/Young Adults

Join young adults at 9:45 (basement classroom) for another podcast conversation on the intersection of Christianity, the modern world, and our faith.

Women's Spiritual Formation Class

This class for women on spiritual formation is led by Susan Dunlap. We meet at 9:45 in the basement classroom.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

The Session has called a Congregational Meeting for Sunday, May 15 for the purpose of electing elders and deacons to the Class of 2019. Information about those placed in nomination is included with today's newsletter mailing.

GIFTS OF THE SPIRIT

TIME AND TALENT SURVEYS

This week, you will receive in the mail the Time and Talent form that allows you to indicate how you would like to contribute to the life of the church in one or more of its various ministries in the 2016-2017 church year. Each member of your household (including youth and children) should complete the survey and bring the completed form(s) to church on THIS Sunday, May 15, or mail them back in the envelope provided. Please make a commitment as to how you will contribute to the life and work of First Presbyterian Church.

Dear friends,
Words cannot express my deep and profound gratitude for the care that Pete and I have received over the past few months. As I prepare to return to FPC this week, I would like to ask just a few more things of you. Each day Pete and I have to recreate what "normal" is for us and so I ask for your patience with me as I figure that out here as well. I am raw and vulnerable, so I continue to ask for some space, knowing that your thoughts and prayers are with me. Truly, your silent prayers and lovely cards have brought great solace to me when facing people has been too much. I have kept every single card to re-read in the days and months to come. At the moment hugs and conversations about our loss feel less helpful than the words I can read from you all on my own and in my own time. Finally, I ask that you remember our dear Jane — in prayer and also eventually with me. I may not be ready to talk about her right now, but I promise there will come a time when I will share the beautiful, remarkable little girl who changed our lives with you all. Thank you for your continued love and care!

Sarah

FAMILY MATTERS CLASS

Parents of elementary age and younger children share the road of parenting and dabble in Scripture. We meet at 9:45 in the CE building, room 203.

CHILDREN'S SUNDAY SCHOOL

(Grades 3-5)

Let's end the year with our energizers and practice some of our favorite camp songs in preparation for Vacation Church School in June. Bring your friends and join the fun with Li-Chen Chin, Marilyn Hedgpeth, and Brandy Salmon.

FROM THE PASTOR

May is the season of celebration!

We celebrated Mother's Day this past Sunday and graduations are held many weekends this month all over the country! In the church, we also celebrate. Ascension Sunday leads to the celebration of Pentecost, the coming of the Holy Spirit. As we move toward this holy Sunday of Spirit, I leave with you the writing of T.S. Eliot to guide and inspire your week.

The dove descending breaks the air
With flame of incandescent terror
Of which the tongues declare
The one discharge from sin and error.
The only hope, or else despair
Lies in the choice of pyre or pyre—
To be redeemed from fire by fire.

Who then devised the torment? Love.
Love is the unfamiliar Name
Behind the hands that wove
The intolerable shirt of flame
Which human power cannot remove.
We only live, only suspire
Consumed by either fire or fire.

— T.S. Elliot, Four Quartets

May the Holy Spirit be with you, enlighten and enliven you, and fill you with the fire of hope.

With love,

Mindy Douglas

On behalf of StepUp Durham and those we serve, we are grateful for First Presbyterian's donation of $300 on April 20, 2016. Please know that 100% of this gift went to the purchase of portfolios for StepUp participants. . . .

Thank you for your confidence in StepUp participants and staff. We look forward to sharing the accomplishments we make as a result of your generosity. Sincerely,

Syretta Hill

Executive Director

CHOIRS SCHEDULE

The Children's Choir and Youth Handbells are now on summer break! The Handbell Choir (adults) has one more rehearsal (May 16) and then your break begins. Kathy Parkins will let the Chancel Choir know the rehearsal schedule for the summer.

MISSING

The 3-ring notebook binder that normally can be found on a side table in the foyer which holds photos and bios of new members from past years is missing. If you know where it is, please return it to the table. Thank you!

WALK-IN MINISTRY

The Walk-in Ministry appreciates all the donations it receives for blessing and toiletry bags. At this time we are in need of travel-sized soap, shampoo, deodorant, and lotion, and wash cloths for toiletry bags. There is also an occasional need for backpacks for our friends who reside at the shelter. If you have gently used backpacks you no longer use or need, feel free to donate them to the Walk-in Ministry. Just leave them in the Volunteer's Office. Thank you!
