FROM THE YOUTH MINISTER

Dear friends,
 Each year I have the pleasure of gently guiding our young people as they read through and learn from scripture in order to plan out their youth Sunday service. One of the most important parts of this service to me is the way in which this group of youth finds such important lessons to relay to the rest of the congregation. For one Sunday each year we sit back and listen to the ways in which God is speaking through them and allow ourselves to be taught by them. The lessons from the minds and hearts of our youth were especially pertinent to me as I sat to type everything they had written last week. The youth decided to focus on the theme "from darkness into light" based on the lectionary texts this year, and their words were exactly what I needed to read. I hope that you all will find the deep meaning in their voices this Sunday at our annual youth Sunday worship, as each word of the service was written or hand-picked by our amazing youth.

SUNDAY SCHOOL
 Classes for children (through 5th grade) are held on the second floor of the Christian Education building at 9:45.

Middle and high school youth meet in their designated classrooms in the basement (below the sanctuary) at 9:45.

Faith & Community Class (Adults)

The Sunday, we welcome guest presenters from Church Without Walls to speak to us about their work with prison ministry. The class meets at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall. All are welcome.

Lectionary Class (Adults)

Will the Day of the Lord be a pleasant time or not? Our readings paint a confusing picture. On the one hand, Isaiah shows a vision of joy and delight, with long, peaceful lives; on the other hand, Jesus warns of war, famine, persecution and hatred. Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class (Adults)

This Sunday, Journeys will discuss chapter 12, "Night Watch," of Pilgrim at Tinker Creek. All are welcome to join the discussion in basement classroom B-17 at 9:45.

Scratch Class (Young Adults)

We are using Lauren Winner's book, Wearing God, as our study book. This Sunday we will discuss "God as Bread and Vine" (pp 91-109). Join us on the second floor, CE building, room 205 at 9:45 for an interesting and informative class led by Heather Wallace.

Women's Spiritual Formation

Susan Dunlap will lead our discussion. This class meets in basement classroom B-16, at 9:45.

Family Matters (for parents with young children)

This parent-led class is using Searching for Happiness as a guide for our study. Join us on the second floor, CE building, room 209 at 9:45.

The Confirmation Class will NOT meet this Sunday so that the youth can practice for Youth Sunday during that time. We will convene once more with mentors on Sunday, November 27. Then we'll take a break and start classes again in January.

A New Bible Study: Parables

A new study is forming to look at the parables from many points of view. The class will meet for an introduction two Fridays in November (11th and 18th) from 10:30 – noon, upstairs in the Education Building. We'll break for the holidays before beginning in earnest on January 6th. New members are welcome and encouraged to join the conversation. If you are interested in joining, or need a study book, contact Marilyn.

No evening Youth Groups this Sunday!

The youth who participated in this summer's

Appalachian Service Project will give a presentation on this mission trip on Sunday following worship during the fellowship lunch in Watts-Hill Hall. Hope to see you there! - Sarah Finbow
