From the Pastor . . .

Dear friends,

What an incredible day we had on Sunday! Beautiful music, an inspiring service, and a moving service of welcome for the confirmands! Thank you to all those who played a part in leading worship and all those who came to be a part of our worship of our Triune God together. It was truly a transforming day.

Over this past year, I have been fascinated by everything the confirmands have had a chance to learn together about the Bible, the Christian (and particularly Presbyterian) faith, other religions, and what it looks like to serve Christ in our lives as people of faith. I have often thought that I would love to do some of the things they are doing! I imagine many of us would!

The life of faith for those of us in this community (from the confirmands to the oldest in our midst) can often include ebbs and flows, highs and lows. We may have had times when we were riding on a wave of spiritual emotion and certain of God's presence in our lives. We may have also had times of spiritual dryness, when the absence of God felt all but certain. As people on the journey, such ebbs and flows are to be expected. What also can be expected, and even certain, is that God never leaves us. Though we may experience times of doubt and darkness, those in the community around us support us and hold us up until we are able to see light of Christ in our lives again. We have welcomed these confirmands into our midst as members of the church (and other new members as well) and in doing so, we take the vow to hold them in the light, even when they themselves have dark moments of doubt. May we take this vow seriously as we continue to grow in our own lives of faith, through our study and service, our worship and the stewardship of the gifts God has given us.

Grace to you all, and peace,

Mindy

A Parent's Day Service of Healing and Wholeness Saturday, May 13 at 5:00 p.m.

We are entering a season of Mother's Day, Father's Day, graduations and weddings, when not everyone is able to celebrate. We will pause for reflection and prayer in the beautiful outdoor setting of FPC's Memorial Garden (weather permitting). Some of us will pray for children, some for parents, some for siblings; all are invited to stand together and seek God's comfort for those who mourn. Guests are welcome, as are children, as we celebrate God's presence and love at all times of our lives.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith & Community Class (Adults) - It's finally here: the magnum opus of Peter Fish, Downtown by History and by Choice: First Presbyterian Church of Durham, NC, 1871-2013. Peter and his publishers will be at the Faith and Community Class on Sunday to talk about the process of researching, verifying, writing, and publishing such a tome. And as time permits, Peter will autograph and sell books to those who wish to purchase them. It's a great day for Peter and for the church. Please come and celebrate with us this magnificent accomplishment. The class meets at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall and all are welcome.

Lectionary Class (Adults) - The exhilaration of Easter is fading into memory, and we are left with more mundane matters. Will our faith help us grow in holiness and do great works? Will it preserve us in times of uncertainty and suffering? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class (Adults) - Journeys is reading and discussing chapters from Will Willimon's book "Fear of the Other" in which we are to consider loving others without their needing to become like us. Join us at 9:45 in basement classroom B-17.

Scratch Class (Young Adults) - We are winding down our study of Lauren Winner's book, "Images of God." This Sunday, we will again explore and share our own images of God. See you at 9:45 on the second floor of the CE building, room 205. New faces are always welcome.

Women's Spiritual Formation - Susan Dunlap leads our discussion. This class meets in basement classroom B-16, at 9:45.

Girl Scouts say THANK YOU to FPC!

For many years (maybe 6?) FPC, as part of their community outreach, has hosted GS Troop #49 for its meetings. This image is a screen shot from the NC Girl Scout web site of some of the troop including Aurelia, Grace and Juliana.

The photo is a wonderful testimonial of how Girl Scouts and FPC have nurtured our girls! Not enough can be said about troop leader Cindy Sortisio's mentorship of these girls into young women and the opportunities she has provided them - for over 10 years. Thanks to FPC for providing a home for Girl Scout troop 49!
