

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF DURHAM

"Downtown by history and by choice"

Bi-Weekly Newsletter

January 9, 2018

From the Pastor

Dear friends,

Happy New Year! I hope this newsletter finds you doing well and starting off this new year with hope and vision (and maybe a resolution or two!). As I envision the new year, my hopes are for deeper relationships with you all, vibrant and meaningful worship that speaks to my life (and to yours!), and the opportunity to discern what spiritual growth, community building, ministries of hospitality, and outreach to the community God will call us to this year. I hope you will join me in visioning who God is calling you to be as a part of the ministry and worship life of First Presbyterian Church!

This Sunday we have an opportunity to reconnect with our friend Jimmie Hawkins, who will be here to teach the Faith and Community Class (9:45 a.m. in Watts-Hill Fellowship Hall) and to preach a message that will stir us on this Martin Luther King, Jr. weekend (11 a.m. in the Sanctuary). A Durham native, Jimmie is the former pastor of Covenant Presbyterian Church in Durham, and now serves as the Director of the Office of Public Witness for the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), in Washington, DC. Jimmie is an old friend of the congregation and we are excited that on Sunday we will also be joined by his former congregation, Covenant, in class and in worship. It will be good to be together as God's Beloved Community as we learn more and more about what God intends for us as people of faith who are called to reflect the Kingdom of Heaven here on earth.

On MLK Day, we are excited to host again the Rally at the end of the Unity March. The March begins at 411 West Chapel Hill Street (NC Mutual building) and ends at First Presbyterian with the Rally beginning around noon. We hope you can join us for this, too!

In this New Year, may God provide us with more opportunities to grow in faith, hope, and love as we care for one another and serve the needs of the community around us. I am excited to be partnering with you in these opportunities ahead.

With love,
Mindy

PARISH NOTES

Many thanks to Emily, Kennedy and Sophie Wilkins for sponsoring the First Friends for a game night on Friday, January 5 at the church.

The church staff received a lovely box of chocolates over the holidays from our Muslim friends at the Divan Center, Institution of Islamic and Turkish Studies in Cary. The accompanying card contained a quote by Rumi: "Let the beauty of what you love, be what you do." FPC values having a diversity of faith friends all around us.

The Friday morning Bible Study continues its study of Cultivating Christian Character: the Fruits of the Spirit! Everyone is invited to join us on Fridays from 10:30 – noon at the church. We studied love, joy, peace and patience in 2017, and we have begun 2018 with kindness. Don't you think we need more of these qualities in our world? Marilyn Hedgpeth leads the class and would love to have you join us. We will miss Bill Lorimer, who has been one of our faithful members this past year.

The Chancel Choir has been on a Christmas holiday break. We will resume our Wednesday night rehearsing on January 10, 2018 at 7:00 p.m.

From the Associate Pastor . . .

Friends,

I have a magnet on my refrigerator with the quote by Mahatma Gandhi, “Be the change that you wish to see in the world”. But how does one little person affect change in the world; or one little church or organization, for that matter? I want to invite you to think deeply together about this at an interfaith workshop in Durham, on January 20th from 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. at Judea Reform Congregation, featuring singer, song-writer, speaker David LaMotte on Worldchanging: Challenging the Myth of Powerlessness. LaMotte questions narratives about how the world changes and how it does not. He encourages us to engage with the world and to address the problems we see, and builds a case for our responsibility to make a difference by examining the dynamics of large-scale change.

The workshop is for persons of any age who wish to think seriously about call and vocation, to communicate in non-violent ways, and to prepare and look for opportunities to engage the world in life-giving ways. It’s a sandwich event: two workshops, with lunch provided in between. Durham is the perfect place for us to discuss this issue in an environment of collegial cultural, racial, ethnic and ecclesial diversity. We can model the process that reflects the world we’d wish to see. First Presbyterian Church hopes you will join us for this workshop, as we continue to work together to build the Beloved Community in Durham. Sarah Finbow (Sadie) and I are going, and would love for you to join us there.

Do you have some time to watch this video for more information? If you think this is something that you would like to attend, please let me know! Both Sarah and I are really excited to bring David’s message to the Triangle. I look forward to hearing from you,

Marilyn Hedgpeth

SUNDAY SCHOOL SCHEDULE

Children's and Youth Sunday School is up and running for all ages. The 3-5th graders are looking at the story of Jesus being presented to God in the Temple from Luke 2: 22-38. You might want to read it at home as a family. On January 14, Alec Bethune and Delia Kwon will look at maps and models of the Temple in Jerusalem. And on January 21, Li-Chen Chin and Marilyn Hedgpeth will meet the class in the Spirituality Room down the hall for some singing and some spiritual doodling and puzzling. Friends are always welcome to join any of the Sunday School classes.

Middle and high school youth meet in their designated classrooms in the basement (below the sanctuary) at 9:45.

Faith and Community Class: This Sunday, January 14, Faith and Community welcomes The Rev. Jimmie Hawkins, director of the Office of Public Witness in Washington, DC, and former pastor of Durham's Covenant Presbyterian Church. Jimmie will inform us about his new calling, and enlighten us as to how we might use our words and our power to serve as advocates in the changing and challenging cultural landscape of our nation. Come with questions you would like to discuss with Jimmie. The class meets in Watts-Hill Hall at 9:45, and all are welcome.

Beginning Sunday, January 21, we will start a month-long look at issues surrounding dementia/Alzheimer's disease, and discuss how best to minister and care for those who suffer from these conditions. We will begin by viewing a touching documentary about singer/song-writer Glen Campbell. I'll Be Me, follows Campbell's farewell tour after he is diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease, and he and his family navigate the unpredictable nature of the disease through love, laughter and music. We'll watch part of it January 21, and the remainder on January 28. All are welcome to join us in Watts-Hill Hall at 9:45.

*****

Lectionary Class: We meet at 9:45 in the East Parlor

January 14: When Nathanael was called, he was skeptical. When Samuel was called, he was confused. How will you respond when God calls you?

January 21: "The end is near. Repent!" Jonah brought that message to the Ninevites, and Paul to the Corinthians, and Jesus to the Galileans. How did they respond? How would you?

*****

Journeys and Scratch/Young Adults Class

Did you know that there was a Puritan Revolution? If not, you'll need to join Journeys and Scratch to discuss chapters 18 and 19 of the "The Story of Christianity" by Justo Gonzalez. All are welcome. We meet in the corner room of the 2nd floor of the education building.

In the coming weeks, we'll discuss chapters on this proposed schedule:

January 21: Chapters 20-21

January 28: Chapters 22-23

February 4: Chapter 24

February 11: Chapter 25.

*****

Spiritual Formation This year-round class for women is led by Susan Dunlap and explores the topic of spiritual formation. Join us at 9:45 in basement classroom B-16.

This Sunday, January 14, we will participate in a service project honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. with area youth at Judea Reform. Make sure you have registered for this event.

On Sunday, January 21, we will meet at FPC for regular youth group around the topic: "What does it mean to be a servant?" Middle Schoolers begins at 5:00; supper for all youth at 6:00; High Schoolers begins at 6:30. Please come and bring a friend. Parents of Youth should get lunch and then meet following worship on January 21 in the East Parlor.

FLOWERS FOR WORSHIP

The flower ministry of FPC offers a meaningful way to donate flowers for the sanctuary in memory or in honor of a loved one, or in celebration of a special occasion. Each Sunday the flower arrangements bring the colors and beauty of nature to our worship service. Following worship, our deacons divide the flowers and deliver smaller arrangements to members who are ill, grieving, or unable to attend church, as a way of sharing with them a part of our worship service. Ninth Street Flowers provides the beautiful arrangements each Sunday.

If you would like to reserve an upcoming Sunday to give flowers for worship, please sign up on the 2018 calendar in the foyer.

Ruth Roberson (RuthHRoberson@gmail.com, 919-949-2106) or

Jean Wilson (JeanJWilson@gmail.com, 919 403-7333) will be glad to provide more details.

Affordable Housing in Downtown Durham - Planning Update

In 2015, the Session of First Presbyterian Church and the Vestry of St. Philip's approved a resolution to the Durham Board of County Commissioners supporting the inclusion of affordable housing as a wrap around the parking deck that the County plans to construct in the lot between the churches. The County Commissioners are now committed to make a decision on the lot by the end of May of this year. There will be joint meeting on Sunday, January 14, at 12:30 at St. Phillip's to inform both congregations about the current status of the planning process and see drawings by a local architect working with us on a proposed structure. We will discuss what features we would like to have included in the project and identify the actions we should take to promote this proposal.

Vox Virorum Men's Chorus Winter Concert at FPC

Sunday, January 21 at 3:00 p.m.

All are welcome. (FPC sanctuary)

For this hour-long concert, the men's chorus will explore the commonalities of musical expression across the globe with "The Universal Language of Arts." In a world that too often sees unfamiliar groups of people as "other" or the "enemy," we forget that different nations, religions, races, and even genders do not conform to one way of thinking. Free admission: $10 suggested donation. For more information, go to: <http://www.trianglesings.org/vox-virorum-mens-chorus-2/>

Women's Voices Chorus

"Song of the Universal"

Sunday, January 21 at 3:00 p.m.

University United Methodist Church

150 E. Franklin St, Chapel Hill

Tickets: $17 adult, $7 student, available at the door or via their website: womensvoiceschorus.org

Volunteering at Urban Ministries

Our wonderful work at Urban Ministries continues, and we are so grateful for the enthusiastic and faithful volunteers who give of their time month after month to help prepare and serve meals to our neighbors in need. The best part is that we have lots of fun with other members of our congregation while we prepare the food. The shifts generally fill up quickly, so please get in touch with Margaret Rubiera soon if you want your name added to any of the open spots.

For January: Monday, January 15 - MLK Day (Holiday, so preparing and serving lunch from 11 - 1:30), January 19 (breakfast prep and serving, 7 - 9 am) and January 25 (lunch prep, 9:30 - 11 am).

Join us to experience the special joy of feeding those whose resources are very slim! For more details, contact Margaret Rubiera at margaretmr29@gmail.com.
