

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF DURHAM

"Downtown by history and by choice"

Bi-Weekly Newsletter

January 23, 2018

From the Pastor . . .

Dear friends,

I hope you are enjoying our typical North Carolina January, with snow and frigid temperatures one week and warm, sunny days the next week! As we move through January, I want to update you on a few things going on at FPC:

Your generosity: The Stewardship Committee worked hard in 2017 to share the vision and goals of the Session with the congregation. Through a stewardship meal after worship, an informative and inviting brochure, and personal calls and visits to those who were unable to attend the meal, the Stewardship Committee and trained members who made visits, celebrated four components of FPC's identity:

- inclusion and welcome
- social justice outreach
- worship/Christian education
- community,

and the three goals of the stewardship campaign:

- pay equity for associate pastor and director of music
- increase service and mission funding (restore to previous levels)
- long-term financial stability.

The Stewardship Committee challenged you to meet these three goals through a 10% increase in the total gifts pledged in 2017. To date, we celebrate the fact that you all stepped up in a generous and visionary response to this call and have brought us to 99.73% of the goal! This is outstanding! It shows your excitement and energy about where FPC is going as a congregation.

Because of your timely generosity, the Session is in the process of putting together a budget for 2018 that will reflect significant progress on all three of our stewardship goals. Stay tuned for more news about how your generosity is helping FPC reach these goals.

Your involvement: I am thrilled to see so many of you involved in mission and ministry in so many ways. You are active and present in worship, you are participating in our education programs and small group ministries, and you are serving on the committees that do the work of the church. In the community, you are on non-profit boards, you are supporting ministries of justice (hunger, racial equity, prison justice, mental illness, poverty, and environmental programs and ministries), you are making Jesus' message of love heard in every corner of Durham. You inspire me and I believe you inspire one another to find the ways that God is calling you to use your gifts to bear the light of Christ into the world in many different ways.

Our future: FPC is positioned in the middle of a vibrant and growing city. We are also positioned to respond to a large number of significant social justice issues that grow out of our belief that we are called to love God and love our neighbor (and that we are all created in God's image). As we face our future, we are looking intentionally at who God wants us to be in this particular location at this particular time. The Session has approved a Strategic Planning Team and they have begun their work already (you will be hearing more from them very soon!). This team will be listening to you closely as we seek to envision our future together as God's people who actively seek to follow Christ in the heart of Durham.

My excitement is significant as I consider all of the above, as I continue to share the depth and joy of worship with you each week, and as I continue to grow in relationship with you all. May God guide us in the months and years ahead as we journey together in faith.

With deep love and gratitude for you all,

Mindy

PARISH NOTES

Many thanks to Tom Bloom and Robert Day for taking care of the church property during last week's snow storm. The inclement weather caused the church to be closed for three work days, during which time the roof leaked, the phone system failed, the boiler broke, the internet went down, and the parking lot needed to be scraped. Old buildings require a lot of attention! Kudos to Kate Busa (and Valerie in absentia) for making sure we had bulletins on Sunday morning, and to Sarah Finbow for keeping us informed about conditions via social media!

On MLK Sunday, January 14, the FPC youth groups met with the youth from Community Midrasha, Sikh Gurudwara, and Mt. Bethel Presbyterian Church to package goods for the diaper bank of NC and Urban Ministries. Together we collected 270 bottles of water, 300 pieces of fruit, 108 bags of powdered milk, wrapped 150 packs of diapers (with 10-18 diapers in each pack), 62 packs of menstrual supplies, made 345 sandwiches and wrote over 100 cards for Urban Ministries. This was our 5th year participating in this important interfaith service project and we are so thankful for all of the hard work our youth did to help our neighbors.

Special thanks to Harriett Mitchell for arranging the Daytimers lunch out at Neo China today!

The Friday morning Bible Study continues its study of "Cultivating Christian Character: the Fruits of the Spirit." Everyone is invited to join us on Fridays from 10:30 – noon at the church. We have studied love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, and now we're looking into goodness. Don't you think we need more of these qualities in our world? Marilyn Hedgpeth leads the class and would love to have you join us. During Lent, (February 16 – March 30) we'll transition from virtues and embrace sinfulness, discussing "What's Nice About Vice: A Positive Look at the Seven Deadly Sins". Same time, same place.

CONGRATULATIONS to Carol Wills whose poem PAPA was published in the January 2018 Friends Journal. Read the poem which is printed on the back cover of this week's newsletter.

Due to last week's snow, the David LaMotte workshop, Worldchanging: Challenging the Myth of Powerlessness, has been postponed until April. Stay tuned for an updated invitation to participate in this workshop after Easter.

My reasons for becoming a member of the First Presbyterian Church Legacy Society are simple and heartfelt. I joined the FPC Legacy Society because I have benefitted spiritually and socially from this community of faith. Now, it is my wish to continue to give back. I don't know what the future will bring, but I do know FPC will use my gifts to continue "to be generous in hospitality and in faithful ministry." As First Presbyterian Church has loved and cared for me, I want to return the church's generosity — now and in the years to come. - Mary-Jo Keeman

SUNDAY SCHOOL SCHEDULE

Children's and Youth Sunday School is back up and running for all ages.

The 3-5th graders will review the story of Jesus being presented to God in the Temple from Luke 2: 22-38 and enjoy a feast on January 28th. Then on February 4, they will talk about the healing power of Jesus, as he heals a young boy in Mark 9: 14-29. Our prayers are with two of our teachers: Alec Bethune, over the recent death of his father, Stuart Bethune; and Li-Chen Chin, who is traveling to Taiwan to visit her parents.

Middle and high school youth meet in their designated classrooms in the basement (below the sanctuary) at 9:45.

*****

Faith and Community Class:

The class meets at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall, and all are welcome.

We have begun a month-long look at pastoral issues surrounding dementia / Alzheimer's disease, discussing how best to minister and care for those who suffer from these conditions. Last Sunday we began viewing a touching documentary about singer/song-writer Glen Campbell. I'll Be Me, follows Campbell's farewell tour after he is diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease, and he and his family navigate the unpredictable nature of the disease through love, laughter and music. We'll watch the remainder of the documentary this Sunday, January 28, beginning promptly at 9:45, so we have time to complete the showing.

Upcoming classes in February will look into how to become a dementia-friendly congregation and community. On February 11 we will welcome Dr. Warren Kinghorn, Associate Research Professor of Psychiatry and Pastoral and Moral Theology at Duke Divinity School, who will lead a discussion of the theology of dementia.

*****

Lectionary Class:

Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

January 28: Where does knowledge come from? Is it simply the accumulation of learned facts? Does knowledge give you authority?

February 4: Jesus said that proclaiming the message is what he came to do. Paul put it even more strongly: "an obligation is laid on me, and woe to me if I do not proclaim the gospel!" Do we have an obligation to proclaim the gospel?

*****

Journeys and Scratch/Young Adults Class:

We meet in the corner room of the 2nd floor of the education building.

January 28: Puritans, Baptists, Catholics, the Great Awakening. Find out what they all have in common when you join Journeys and Scratch to discuss Christianity in the thirteen colonies -- chapters 24 and 25 of the "The Story of Christianity" by Justo Gonzalez. All are welcome.

February 4: Come discuss the shifting landscape of Christianity through the early 20th century in the U.S. -- chapter 27 of the "The Story of Christianity" by Justo Gonzalez. All are welcome.

Habitat for Humanity Mission Trips 2018

Our well laid plans for the Habitat for Humanity trips to Honduras have taken a bit of a turn. Due to political unrest following the presidential elections in late November, we have made some adjustments to our plans. The trip led by Margaret and Miguel Rubiera will still go to Honduras, but has been rescheduled to April 6 – 15. The other trip, led by Blake Strayhorn, will take place as planned from February 9 – 17, but will go instead to Guatemala. Carl and Lisa Rist will be representing First Presbyterian on the Guatemala trip. In both countries, we will be building houses as well as beautiful friendships beyond our borders. It seems that politics have a way of complicating life the world over! Please join us as we pray for a restoration of peace and hope in Honduras.

PAPAW

I remember him as a child remembers:
He was my Papaw.
He rocked me to sleep in his arms, singing
“Precious memories, how they linger.”

I remember him in his uniform.
He as a conductor for the Southern Railway.
A farm boy, he had grown up learning
To love chickens and mules.

At 16 he went to work for the railroad.
Later on, he lent his two boys to the U.S. Army and one came back wounded, and both came back with PTSD.

Papaw grew old very quickly. Was it the worry? Was it the odd hours?
The soot he inhaled in the railyards?
At 55, he lost his life to cancer.

I have only a picture of him to remember him by, the grandfather who loved me,
who sang to me, who brought me candy.
His life went by like a train passing,

too fast, in the nighttime hours,
the lonely whistle fading in the wind.
