you have shown us what it means to open ourselves to a new reality,
yet we resist the call to change.

instead of planting seeds in the vineyards of the earth.

Forgive us for failing to open our hearts and minds to the transformation and renewal of our world.

Reform our hearts,
so we might imagine new ways of being and loving.

By Grace

comp. David Cherwien

By grace you are saved. It is God's gift.

Through faith you are saved, not of yourselves. Is it the gift of God.

Therefore, be like God, follow God as beloved children and walk in the way of love as Christ loves us.

(The Hunger for Change Offering will be received following the anthem.)

Welcome & Introduction

Affirmation of Faith – The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand
of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Renunciations

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Welcome

Will you let me be your servant, let me be as Christ to you?

Pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey; we're together on the road.

We are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

INVITATION TO THE LORD'S TABLE

Mindy Douglas

THE GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

John Weicher

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Leader: We praise you for your glorious Word that spoke.

And it was so.

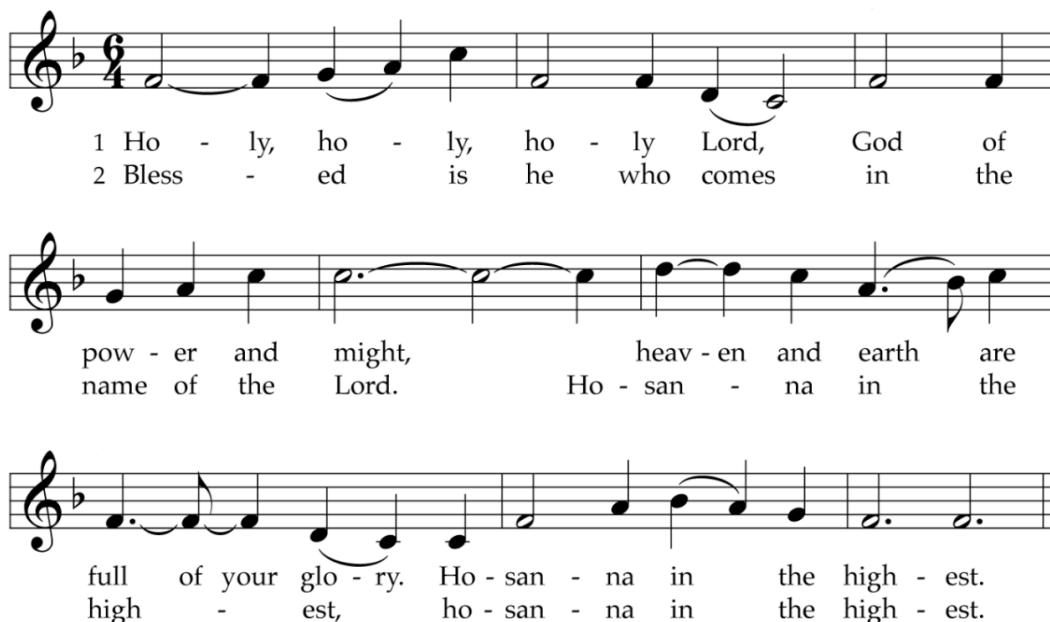

With just a word you created a universe of breathtaking beauty and tenderly breathed life into human beings made in your image.

When we do not listen to you and follow our own desires, you do not leave us to our own devices but seek us out to make covenant, and you keep your word to us even when we break ours to you.

You free us from bondage and give us the Word in your law, though we prefer idols of our own making and leaders of our own exaltation.
Still you send prophets to preach to us the words of eternal life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with choirs of angels,
with prophets, apostles, and martyrs,
and with all the faithful of every time and place,
who forever sing to the glory of your name:

All (sung):

1 Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of the 2 Bless - ed is he who comes in the pow - er and might, heav - en and earth are name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Leader: We give you thanks for the Word made flesh in Jesus of Nazareth, born out of words of affirmation to angelic annunciation: "Let it be."
And it was so.
The Word uttered before the foundations of the earth
cried out in a feeding trough to become for us bread of life, Passover lamb.
He taught us how to follow your Word so that we might have life eternal and would not be quiet
even when leaders exalted him on a cross of tortured shame.
But you, O God, have the last word with the resurrection shout of victory,
and so we cry, "Glory!"
Great is the mystery of faith:

All (sung):

Christ has died; Christ is ris-en; Christ will come a - gain.

Christ has died; Christ is ris-en; Christ will come a - gain.

Leader: You continue to reveal yourself to us
by teaching us as you walk with us along the way, stopping to break bread and commune with us in joy and in sorrow.
And so we shout the good news: "The Lord is risen!"

All: He is risen indeed!

Leader: Remembering all these gifts of your faithful Word throughout the ages, we take from your creation these gifts of bread and vine and offer them to you with our words of deepest thanks and praise, as we offer ourselves to the service of your Word at work in the world.

All: Let it be unto us according to your word!

Dying you destroyed our death.

Rising you restored our life.

Leader: Lord Jesus, come again!

Holy Spirit, holy breath, move once more among us that the bread we break and the cup we bless may be for us a kingdom meal in the light of the Sovereign glory of Christ, our host.

Unite and repair all brokenness in communion
among us and within us and throughout the world.

In your strength may we be fed to rise anew from this table to preach, pray and promote your eternal Word that is bringing all into accord with your promised glory.

All (sung):

THE LORD'S PRAYER (IN UNISON)

★ Ecumenical Version

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever.
Amen.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Mindy Douglas and John Weicher

*COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

(The bread and the elements are gluten free and were prepared in a gluten-free area. We use grape juice in the cup. Servers will sanitize their hands prior to distributing the elements. As you are able, come forward to receive communion. The server will give you a piece of bread, which you dip in the cup. Parents, please assist children as they take bread and lightly dip it into the cup. After eating, please return to your seat. Anyone who is unable to come forward may remain in the pew to be served by the clergy.)

*PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

John Weicher

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.
All: Eternal God, we give you eternal praise and thanks
that you have drawn us into the communion of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, the true bread of heaven and drink for eternal life.
Grant us now this further benefit:
that we may never forget these things,
but hold them always in our hearts,
so that we may grow in grace,
increase in faith, and serve you in all we do.
So may we live to the praise of your glory,
and serve others even as in Christ you have served us;
through Jesus Christ your Son, who in the unity of the Holy Spirit lives and reigns with you, O God, forever and ever. Amen.

So that you may know who is sitting nearby, please sign the Friendship Pad, pass it along the pew, and then return it to the starting point, noting the names of those sitting near you.

The flowers today are given by Fred and Jo Ann Moore to the glory of God and in loving memory of Fred's parents, Rev. John and Katherine Boyer Moore, and grandparents Rev. Elmer and Sarah Gladys Perkins Boyer, who all served as Presbyterian missionaries to Korea and China.

Hunger for Change: Hunger for Change supports local and international hunger relief through the Presbyterian Hunger Relief Program. Your gift helps neighbors here in Durham and around the world.

★ The Lord's Prayer when Holy Communion is celebrated: From the beginning, one of the hallmarks of Reformed worship has been liturgy in the vernacular—in the common language of the people of God. Many, however, continue to use the language of another era (the Tudor dynasty) when praying the prayer Jesus taught. We hope that by using this ecumenical version, new generations will learn and understand this prayer in a fresh way.

Music is reprinted under OneLicense.net: A.713926.

Childcare: A staffed nursery and children's playroom are available on the second floor of the education building during worship. Activity bags and baskets are available in the foyer for children. Please return them to the foyer at the end of worship.

Restroom locations: To the left and right as you exit the rear of the sanctuary; on the first and second floors of the education building; and on the first and second floors of the church house. There is an infant changing table in the restroom area located to the left as you exit the rear of the sanctuary.
