2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When communities of faith are inviting and relevant, new people will want to come. A good sign of life and health in a church is growth. ## ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith and Community Class

As we ease into the New Year, our thoughts often turn to planning. Over the next few weeks topics related to "planning" will be explored in the Faith & Community Class. Do you have a will? If so, is it up to date? Some FPC members may not have a current will. FPC is designating January 24th as Will's Sunday. Mal King will lead Will's Sunday in the Faith & Community Class and all are welcome. Writing a will is a right and privilege granted by the laws of our state. Should you fail to have your own will prepared, the state will distribute your property according to formula, with no consideration for the ages, health, or special needs of your family. Start the New Year thinking about yourself, your family, and your church. If you already have a will, does it reflect your current commitments? Have you executed a Power of Attorney or Health Care Power of Attorney so that you are prepared for incapacity and the new health care privacy laws? Join us this Sunday in Watts-Hill Hall at 9:45 a.m. On January 31st, come and learn about charitable estate planning.

Lectionary Class

What makes the words of the Bible different from those of any other book? Is there some great power in the reading and hearing -- and understanding -- of God's word? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class

Journeys will continue reading and discussing the Book of Job. All are welcome to join the discussion at 9:45 on the second floor of the CE building.

Spiritual Formation

Susan Dunlap leads this class for women on spiritual formation. We meet at 9:45 in the basement classroom.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

I want to thank everyone that was instrumental in the success of the Kick-Off Centennial Celebration Fellowship Dinner on Thursday January 14th. It was so wonderful to see the Fellowship Hall and parlor full of people enjoying a meal and fellowship together as we remembered our past and the people over the years that have made our Church what it is today. Special thanks to Cris Rivera, Robert Daye, Valerie McMillian, Lyn Francisco, Marilyn Hedgpeth, John Fricks, Abi Bissette, the Fellowship Committee and everyone else who helped, for their contributions to making this fellowship dinner such a success. A very special thanks to Peter Fish, who provided us with a comprehensive and interesting presentation of the history of this Church. We are lucky to have him. I was especially touched and gratified by the conversation at my table which included older members of the Church remembering our past and sharing it with newer members. I hope there were similar conversations at other tables. The importance of this year long Centennial Celebration is to look back and remember where we came from and to also look forward toward what we want to continue to be as a Church and Community of Faith. Michael Honeycutt summarized the night to me so eloquently when he said, "I could sense Marie and past angels of the church smiling over us all. It was such a nice evening of fellowship, delicious food, and learning." I hope you all enjoyed the evening as much as I did!

The Centennial Celebration Committee has a number of exciting events planned for 2016 and we look forward to sharing them together with all of you. In the next few weeks, a calendar of events will be posted in the foyer next to the History time line which was created by Julie Maxwell, Jane Davis Rourk and Jean Wilson. Please take some time to review them the next time you are at the Church. We will have a blank book located in the fellowship hall throughout the year for people to make written comments about their memories, hopes and dreams for this living and breathing Church family. This will be a wonderful remembrance for years to come. Again, my thanks and gratitude to the First Presbyterian Church family.

Most sincerely,

Caroline Davis Rourk

Centennial Celebration Committee Chair
Committee members: Scottie Seawell, Steve Martin, Michael Honeycutt, Julie Maxwell, Alex Stayer-Brewington, Amy Dillon and Sarah Finbow.

SCRATCH/YOUNG ADULTS

This Sunday Carlo Diy be leading our discussion on Rev. Carlton Pearson - a very well-known evangelical pastor in Tulsa, OK whose beliefs about hell changed over time and eventually made him a heretic to the thousands in his congregation. Give a listen to this beautiful 55-minute podcast from This American Life (episode 304) and come ready to talk about the price of living out your faith. Join us at 9:45 in our basement classroom.

FROM THE ## ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear friends,

How does the creature say grace? How does the creature say thanks? The grace is that our church has stood at its present location for 144 years, and that this year we have the privilege of celebrating the 100th anniversary of our sanctuary and our sanctuary organ. As Peter Fish reminded us in his beautiful tale of the three buildings that have been our places of worship, "we drink from wells we did not dig". That's pure grace, to have such a rich history of people and place, of faith and works.

I am grateful to Caroline Rourk and the Centennial Celebration Committee for the wonderful dinner and presentation last Thursday night that kicked off our year of commemoration. And I am grateful to Abi Bissette and the Fellowship Committee who set up and cleaned up for the event, and to our wonderful cook, Cris Rivera. I now have a greater appreciation for Mrs. Clara Matthis and Marie Trueitt, who did this kind of thing regularly and often, in days past.

And when the MLK marchers showed up at our church on Monday, all 400 of them, I shared with them how our sanctuary has been a place of worship where we praise the One whom we consider worthy of our praise. And it is also a place of worth-ship, where we practice, within these walls, respecting and honoring the worth of our fellow brothers and sisters. And just maybe, if we learn and practice it here, we can practice and teach it outside these walls as well. I am grateful, too, for those gave a warm welcome to our walkers yesterday: Tom Bloom, Paul Cornsweet, Parker Klinck, Debbie Hamlin-Aggrey, Jane Williams, Bob Breitweiser, John Fricks, and Nataleigh Pienkowski (who sang with the Durham Children's Choir).

Forward together,

Marilyn

YOUTH NEWS

Dear Friends,

This past Sunday the youth from FPC had the pleasure of meeting at Judea reform with the youth and adults advisors from Community Midrasha and Sikh Gurdwara. Together the approximately 90 people packaged hundreds of lunch bags, hygiene kits, and powdered milk bags that were then taken to Urban Ministries of Durham. After working hard together the youth had dinner together and reflected on what it meant for our different faith groups to partner while commemorating the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Thank you to all who attended and the hard work that you all did! We are looking forward to sharing some fellowship time together this coming Sunday with our first 'Grade Dinners' of the year.

Blessings,
Sarah

RESOLUTION OF SERVICE

Members of First Presbyterian Church have a long history of service to those in need, and we have new opportunities for service that we'd like everyone to consider as we start the new year. Some are with our traditional community partners like Habitat, Genesis Home, Florence Forth, and our own Vacation Church School. Others are with new organizations that are just getting started in Durham, such as StepUp Ministries.

New Year's resolutions can be frustrating and so hard to keep, but a Resolution of Service will bring immediate rewards for you and those who are served. Join us in making 2016 a Year of Service at FPC! Sign up to serve this Sunday at the table in the foyer.
