FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear friends,

"Give thanks to the Lord, who is good; whose love endures forever," the Psalmist says. Therefore, I want to give thanks to the following people and groups of people within our congregation: to Barbara Gerwe and Kate Busa, who served as commissioners to Presbytery in Greenville last week (on a Saturday); to Jon Nelson, Peter Fish and Sarah Finbow, who led a beautiful contemplative Lenten service last Wednesday night; to the Northern High School Culinary Class, who are providing our evening meals during Lent as part of their practicum; to Marie Sappenfield, Mary Jo Keenan, Bob Yoder and Jo Bernhardt for ministering to those who come to our door; to Cherrie and Andy Henry for hosting the Scratch group and to Deborah and Tyler Momsen-Hudson for hosting First Friends; to the wonderful guest choir from Muskingam College, who sang beautifully on Sunday; and to all who volunteered or participated in Saturday's Florence Forth race in remembrance of Florence McDow, and to benefit others who suffer from auto-immune encephalitis. Will, Leslie and Laura Mish McDow have turned their tragic loss into a life-giving event. We live in an amazingly-gifted community.

This Sunday we welcome to the pulpit a personal favorite of mine, my husband, Ingram Hedgpeth, or Hedge, as he is called. Hedge is the Head of Staff at Mt. Bethel Presbyterian Church in north Durham, serving there since 2002. Originally from Lumberton, NC, Hedge is a graduate of Wake Forest University, and of Columbia Theological Seminary. He served two churches in West Virginia, before coming to Durham. Hedge is a fierce competitor, who will beat you at any game; a bang-up drummer, who can lay down any beat by ear; and a gifted preacher. The last time he was in our pulpit was to preach for my installation in 2004. I hear his sermons every week, and I'm so glad you'll have the opportunity to hear him preach this Sunday. We also will baptize Juliet Bethune, daughter of Alec and Rachel Bethune, sister to Colin.

Remember – lunch after worship, with a short congregational meeting during lunch. Cris Rivera is cooking!

See you Sunday,

Marilyn

EASTER LILIES will grace our sanctuary again this year. If you would like to honor someone or remember someone in the bulletin on Easter Sunday, fill out an Easter lily card

(available in the bulletin this Sunday) and return it with your donation (any amount) to the Church office by Sunday, March 29. Make check payable to First Presbyterian Church, memo: Lilies. Donations over and above the amount needed to purchase lilies will be given to the One Great Hour of Sharing offering.
