Organized 1871

April 21, 2015

Today's Good Shepherd reading like next week's Gospel that describes Jesus as the vine and us as the branches—is a fitting commentary on baptism because it explores the relationship between Jesus and those who belong to him. ... By proclaiming these texts about Jesus the Good Shepherd who is willing to give his life for the sake of his sheep, we are invited to understand more deeply just how profound is the love that Jesus has for us. His sole concern is for our welfare—for our salvation.

Chris will be accompanied by Neeners (one name) whom he met at the Skagitt County jail in Washington state, and has continued to befriend. If you're interested in prison ministry, please join us in Watts-Hill Hall at 9:45. All are welcome.

Lectionary Class

"The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." Are we likely to be called upon to lay down our lives for others? If not, is there any other way we can demonstrate our love? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class

Journeys will explore chapters 8 and 9 of Paul's first letter to the Corinthians. Newcomers are encouraged to join the discussion. Class meets at 9:45 in our second floor classroom.

Family Matters Class

"Two Ancient Practices – Prayer Labyrinth and Bodily Prayers" (Seamless Faith, chapter 6, p. 132 & 130) is our topic this Sunday. Join us at 9:45, second floor, across from the Resource Room.

Spiritual Formation Class

This class for women is led by Susan Dunlap. Join us for discussion at 9:45, lower level classroom.

INVITE A FRIEND TO WORSHIP

Research shows that at any given moment in time, 2 to 5% of the people in any given community are looking for a church home. Research also shows that the majority of people who find a new church come initially because SOMEONE invited them. Let's all give it a try! Invite a friend to worship with us at FPC this coming Sunday, April 26!

SCRIPTURE READERS GROUP

Our young, old and in-between are being trained to read the scripture for the Sunday worship services. An EVENING CLASS will be held on Monday, April 27 from 6:00 – 9:00 p.m. (meal included) at the home of Matt and Marcia Floding (12 St. Elias Drive). RSVP to Steve Rimmer (919-529-2235 or csrimmer@nc.rr.com) or Matt Floding (mdfloding@gmail.com or 919-564-9739), if you plan to join us for the meal!

All active ruling elders are needed to contribute to a conversation about FPC's fiscal and missional health and responsibilities. ### FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Every year on the Fourth Sunday of Easter the gospel reading is taken from Chapter 10 of John, in which Jesus identifies himself as the Good Shepherd. God in Christ will watch over his people. The Reformed Tradition has always had an expanded focus on ministry of both the baptized and the ordained. (That very relationship was a question on my Theology Ordination Exam in 2006.) Certainly, here at First Pres we have a wonderful experience of the potential for ministry of all the baptized. In this transition period of leadership how many times have I heard members speak of "stepping up" in service to the congregation? Many times! Our Mission Study document (pastoral care, fellowship, education, prayer and worship) captures how intentional we need to be about calling forth the people's gifts for ministry. The image of shepherd that is associated with ministry tends to make us focus on leadership roles too exclusively. There are many ways that real ministry is exercised in very modest roles that do not require one to be in the limelight of leadership. I see it every day here in our community. Those quiet, background ministries are often (in my opinion, and I think in God's, too) just as surely helping to shepherd our community as are the roles that get more attention.

Sharon Hirsch was at Ann Prospero's house on April 11th to help her "cull" some of her books and other possessions in preparation for her move to assisted living. Seeing five other FPC members there (Andy Henry, Dawn Carsey, George Danser, Homer and Pat Ashby, and Caroline Pritchett), quietly hard at work painting the interior of her home to get it ready to go on the market, struck her at how important this support is for a major life change. It is a reminder of how much is done very quietly, behind the scenes but still making a profound difference. Good Shepherd Sunday should be for all of us a time to examine our consciences on how well we have contributed to the care and feeding of the flock of Christ in this part of God's Kingdom.

NOTES

BENEDICTION

Given by Reverend T. Melvin Williams in FPC worship on Sunday, April 12:

May the Lord make her face to shine upon you and be gracious to you.

May God give you

grace never to sell yourself short,
grace to risk something good,
grace to remember that the world is too dangerous for anything but truth and too small for anything but love.

So, may God take our minds and think through them. May God take our lips and speak through them. May God take our hearts and set them on fire for the sake of God's love and justice and peace in our city and in our world. Amen.
