ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith and Community Class

Fixing the Downtown Loop

With all the energy and excitement around the festivals and athletic events in downtown Durham, the question arises constantly about what, if any, options are available for fixing the downtown loop? Matt Gladdek is the Director of Government Relations for Downtown Durham Inc. He will facilitate a discussion on the history, the problem, and future solutions for fixing the downtown traffic loop. FPC intersects the loop in two different places, so we have a vested interest. Join us at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall for this discussion of an important issue for Durham and FPC.

Lectionary Class

When the prophet Elijah confronted the prophets of Baal on Mount Carmel, he was mocking and sarcastic, but his faith was vindicated in the most dramatic way. Is Elijah a model of faith for us? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class

Journeys will not meet this summer. We will read and discuss Annie Dillard's "Pilgrim at Tinker Creek" starting in September. The book brings together a world of suffering, beauty and grace. Contact Andy Henry if you would like a copy of the book to get your reading started.

Scratch/Young Adults

We're meeting at Scratch Bakery (111 W. Orange St.) at 10:00 a.m. this Sunday. Hope to see you there and/or in worship at 11!

Women's Spiritual Formation Class

This class for women on spiritual formation is led by Susan Dunlap. We meet at 9:45 in the basement classroom.

Family Matters Class

Parents of elementary age and younger children share the road of parenting and dabble in Scripture. We meet at 9:45 in the CE building, room 203.

CHILDREN'S SUNDAY SCHOOL

(Grades 3-5)

We will finish with a feast, clean up our classroom, and decide what we will present for the Sunday School wind-up on June 5th. It's been a great year!

A BOOK SIGNING ON THE PLAYGROUND

You are invited to a preview and book signing by Rebekah McLeod Hutto of her new children's book on Pentecost, The Day When God Made Church. The event will take place Saturday, June 4, from 10 a.m. - noon on the playground at Mt. Bethel Presbyterian Church, 3541 Rose of Sharon Road. Rebekah is a former Duke Divinity School intern at FPC who now serves as Associate Pastor at The Brick Presbyterian Church in New York City. Rebekah, her husband, BJ, and their two children, Hannah Ruth and Elijah, look forward to spending quality time with you, your children, and grandchildren. It's a great playground. Bring a picnic, or a snack, and come on out and join us!

SCRIPTURE READERS CLASS

The Scripture Readers Class will meet in the chapel at 9:45 on Sundays, June 5 and 12. As preparation for the class, please be ready to read Zechariah 3-10; and Luke 15: 11-32.

FLOWER MINISTRY

Flowers enhance the beauty of the sanctuary and are given by members and family to the glory of God and in remembrance or in honor of loved ones. After the service, the flowers are divided and taken to those who are unable to be with us on Sunday morning.

There are several open Sundays available this summer. A sign-up calendar is posted on the wall near the volunteer's office along with an information sheet. We encourage you to consider being a part of this important ministry.

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear friends,

How can I begin to thank you for making Sunday such a wonderful day? So many of you participated in so many ways— bell ringers, choir singers, soloist, trumpeter, organist/pianist, liturgists, communion servers, ushers, reception planners, bakers, knitters, cleaners, attendees! You used so many wonderful gifts and talents to plan and implement an amazing and beautiful day. I have been so overwhelmed by your faithfulness in sharing your gifts, your generosity, your kindness, your warmth, your welcome. First Presbyterian Church is truly a community of love and grace. How grateful I am to be a part of life and ministry with you here and now.

At multiple times during the service I was moved to tears – tears of joy and amazement for all that God has done and continues to do, tears of gratitude for the way God guides and directs us over the years, tears of awe at the beauty of sound and sight and word, tears of humility for the strong support of so many brothers and sisters in Christ. This day will stay with me for many, many years to come as I remember the way the church, the Body of Christ, gathered from far and near on this day to celebrate with one another what God is doing as we—the congregation of First Presbyterian Church, God's people in need in Durham, pastors, members, friends, and neighbors—move forward in ministry together.

May God, our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer, guide us every step of the way, and may we never take our eyes off of the empty cross or our hands off of the Gospel plow. How exciting it is to know that there is work to be done and we have been called to do it together! Thanks be to God for this good and holy calling.

Grace and peace to you all,

Mindy

HELP FOR

MEALS ON WHEELS

The pantry at Meals on Wheels is almost empty. While they have a caterer for daily meals, they make weekend meals themselves. The 80 clients who receive two extra meals each Friday depend on these meals to get them through the weekend. The Food Bank does not have a steady supply of items for Meals on Wheels' weekend meals during the summer as the Food Bank's efforts are geared towards supporting children who are not in school. Meals on Wheels could really use the following items this summer:

Fruit cups (unsweet – individual size)
Applesauce (unsweet – individual size)
Soup (low sodium if possible – pop top)
Canned meals (i.e. spaghetti) – pop top)
Peanut Butter/Cheese Cracker snacks
Tuna and crackers packages
Breakfast/ Nutrition bars
Granola bars (chewy/soft)
Juice boxes

Ensure (Nutritional Supplement)

Thank you in advance for adding a few extra items to your grocery cart for Meals on Wheels! Items should be brought to FPC this summer for weekly delivery to Meals on Wheels!
