Report from the PNC

As of the end of June the committee has reviewed 105 PIFs and met about 35 times. So where are we in the search process for a Head of Staff? We have pared down the list to ten or so of those we consider the strongest candidates (and there are many strong candidates) and have interviewed most of them by Skype. We will interview several more candidates this way in mid-July. These interviews combined with the evaluations of PIFs and what we consider "deep dives" – listening to sermons, reading web sites, and gathering information as best we can while maintaining confidentiality - will be the basis for selecting three or four candidates. At that time we will send teams of committee members to visit home churches or have candidates visit Durham. The next step will be in-person interviews and reference checks.

On June 24 we met with Katie Crowe from Trinity Avenue PC who is our liaison with Presbytery to talk about the process. She assured us that the committee is "on track" in terms of where we are and she encouraged us to not hurry the process. To some it may seem that we are working very slowly, but our goal has always been to "get it right" – and this takes time and careful deliberation. Again, we ask for your prayers and support.

FROM THE ### ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

I hope you had a wonderful holiday weekend, enjoying the best that America has to offer: food, friends, families, fireworks, parades, concerts, etc. My husband and I always enjoy the secular holidays because there are no religious strings attached in our separation of church and state country; no special services we have to perform; no moral obligations. But there always are options that call us to faithful response, even on secular holidays.

And so one option we pursued was to respond to the invitation of the Institute of Turkish Studies, a group of Sunni Muslims in Cary, to join with them for a break-the-fast information session and authentic Turkish Ramadan dinner (after sundown). We watched a documentary about one of their leaders, Fethullah Gullen, called "Love Is A Verb" about Gullen's call to service, to lift up the dignity of all people internationally. It was quite powerful to see the outreach and service which this man has inspired. And then we were invited to observe their call to prayer at sundown, followed by dinner outside, under the stars with their members. We were quite moved by their hospitality and kindness, and their genuine desire to be understood and respected. And it was amazing how similar we all looked under God's canopy of stars!

Their invitation to eat together continues through July 18 when Ramadan, their holy month, officially ends. If you would like to attend one of their "tent dinners", you are invited to the Cary Town Center parking lot at 8:00 p.m. on July 10 and 11. It is a wonderful opportunity to experience America, the melting pot, at its best.

Peace,

Marilyn

Dear friends,

Talitha and I would like to thank all those who attended my husband's funeral. It was the most beautiful service I ever attended. We also are grateful for all the cards expressing support and sympathy at this time of sorrow. You have been a wonderful family to Edward and us, closer and more carrying than our real family. We appreciate all you have done for us during Edward's long battle with cancer. You were part of his victories and strength. With all our hearts, thank you!

"Democracy is under attack in North Carolina.

We need people of moral conscience to tell the nation we will not sit by while our voting rights, won with the blood sweat and tears of our ancestors, are being trampled. Fifty years after Blood Sunday and the passage of the Voting Rights Act, new extreme attacks on voting rights go before a federal court in Winston-Salem on July 13. We cannot remain silent. We must stand together and march to defend our democracy.
Join us on July 13!"

— The Rev. Dr. William J. Barber, II
NC NAACP President

FPC's Kate Busa and her husband Bill will be attending and invite you to join them!
