SUMMER SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith and Community Class

Back to beginning, one of the very first TED Talks was by Dan Gilbert in February of 2004, called The Surprising Science of Happiness. The Harvard psychologist will revisit his initial TED Talk and pepper it with updates and apologies. Faith and Community meets in Watts-Hill Hall at 9:45. All are welcome.

Lectionary Class

Are you aware of God's presence in your daily life? Do you encounter God as a compassionate provider of wonderful gifts? Or do you live your life unaware of God's presence, making decisions (sometimes very bad decisions, as in one of our readings) for your own reasons? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Spiritual Formation Class

This class for women is led by Susan Dunlap and meets at 9:45 in the lower level classroom.

FOR CHILDREN / YOUTH

Kindergarten and up
9:45 – 10:45 a.m.

July 26 and August 2

"Lion, Witch, and Wardrobe"

Meet in Room 205 of the CE building to watch and discuss the movie, then enjoy a snack. Three year olds through rising K's meet in the Playroom. The nursery is open for younger children. Older youth can join the Lectionary Class or Faith and Community Class.

INVITE A FRIEND TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Summertime . . . when families are on the move and new faces appear in work places. Is there a new family in your neighborhood or a new colleague at work? Have you thought about inviting them to worship at FPC? Sunday, July 26 is "Invite a Friend to Church" Sunday. Won't YOU?

SLIDE SHOW

Ghana has long been known as one of the most stable and welcoming countries of West Africa, offering tourists a rich mix of history, culture, and wildlife. David and Judy Smith visited Ghana earlier this year on a birding tour (of course), and they returned with lots of photos of the birds, animals, and scenery of this interesting country. Join them for a photographic tour on Wednesday, July 22, at 7:30 p.m. in Watts-Hill Hall.

FPC HOSTING

FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear friends,

As butter slid down my chin from the corn on the cob I was enjoying the other day, I thought to myself, if I had facial hair and were a man, then I might proclaim like the Psalmist: "How good it is when brothers live together in unity! It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard, down upon the collar of his robes." (Psalm 133) I could sense how sweet that sensation of over-abundance might be to someone.

I would like for us all to share that sweet sensation of living together in unity, peace, and abundance this Sunday at 4 p.m., when FPC hosts the regional meeting of the NAACP in our sanctuary. In the wake of the horrific events in Charleston that cost nine precious lives, I want to invite you to help welcome our friends, help protect our friends, and help unite with our friends who continue to fight for racial justice in our state and beyond. They will begin their meeting with a time of worship, a time of song, and then a time of business. We have hosted this meeting previously with the participation of two or three members from our congregation. I think it's time to step it up and increase our participation with our friends who have invited us to stand together with them. You don't have to stay for the whole meeting, but it would be as pleasant as eating hot buttered corn on the cob if you would join us.

Peace,

Marilyn

GOODWILL AMBASSADOR

TEAMS UPDATE

Our FPC Goodwill Ambassador teams are continuing to visit neighboring churches this summer, extending greetings from us and humbly observing the worship experience of our faithful friends in Durham. I want to thank this adventurous group of people and ask that we all continue to pray for the process. After the summer months and all of the visits have been made, the committee will be reporting its gleaned information to the Worship and the Arts Committee who will share information with the congregation. Speaking for myself, this experience has enriched and deepened my faith and helped me to better know, love and appreciate our own faithful traditions and place of worship here at FPC. Thank you all!
