MANDATORY TEACHER /

ADVISOR TRAINING

Sunday, August 30 at 12:15 p.m.

This training is required of all Sunday School teachers and advisors of children and youth. FPC's new Child and Youth Protection Policy will be introduced. This training will include a light lunch.

THANK YOU!

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

Thank you for your wonderful response to the request to bring in items for the Walk-in Ministry this summer. We have a number of blessing / toiletry bags made up at this point, but we can use some particular items to complete more. The following are needed at this time:

For Blessing Bags

Small bottles of water, small boxes of dried fruit (raisins, etc.) or applesauce squeeze pouches

For Toiletry Bags

Travel sizes of toothpaste, shampoo, deodorant, hand lotion

Your continued generosity is very much appreciated.

GOODWILL AMBASSADORS

This Sunday, August 30, right after worship, FPC's Goodwill Ambassadors will gather in the East Parlor for lunch and to share summer ambassador experiences. Please bring with you anything that you collected over your travels (i.e. bulletins / newsletters etc.) to our neighboring churches. Also plan to share the highs and lows from your visits. Remember to fill out the survey monkey (click HERE) ASAP so we can pull a report to bring on Sunday.

NEW FALL BOOK STUDY

"The Road to Character"

The Friday/Sunday study group will reconvene this year with a look at New York Times columnist David Brooks' new book, The Road to Character. Brooks explores what it means to cultivate an inner life. He says, "Occasionally, even today, you come across certain people who seem to possess an impressive inner cohesion. They are not leading fragmented, scattered lives. ... Their virtues are not the blooming virtues you see in smart college students; they are the ripening virtues you see in people who have lived a little and have learned from joy and pain." Men and women are welcome to join either group for a six-week study beginning Friday, September 11 at 10:30 a.m. in room 208 at the church, or Sunday, September 13 at 3:00 p.m. at Croasdaile Village in the Heritage Hall Activities Room. You may either acquire your own copy of the book or contact Marilyn Hedgpeth if you need a copy.

Did you know that singing is a major way to relieve stress and make new friends?

The choir kick-off party will be on Wednesday, August 26, starting at 6:00 p.m. at the home of Cherrie Henry. Anyone who can sing on pitch and is willing to commit to Wednesday night rehearsals is most welcome to attend. Please feel free to call Kathy Parkins if you have any questions.

FROM THE

ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear friends,

You gotta love ... the fact that former President Jimmy Carter continues to teach Bible Study at the Maranatha Baptist Church in his hometown of Plains, GA, even after he learned that he is battling cancer.

And, you gotta love ... that this Sunday is Kick-Off Sunday, and many of our long-time Sunday School teachers are returning to their own classrooms, as well as many first-time teachers who feel called to the ministry of Christian nurture. Thank you, teachers! Thank you learners! I look forward to seeing so many of you back this Sunday for breakfast at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall. We will dedicate teachers and youth advisors in worship at 11:00.

You gotta love ... the outgoing ruling elders and caring deacons who are finishing up their three-year term of service this week. We applauded their 1095 days of service to the church during this interim period at the officers' dinner on Monday night. Thank you, deacons and elders, for your valuable contributions to the ministries of caring and governance!

And you gotta love ... the incoming class of caring deacons and ruling elders whom the Session approved on Monday night for ordination and installation this Sunday at 11 a.m. Some are stepping back into office for a second or third time; some are entirely new to serving the church in this way. Thank you, new officers, for hearing the call to serve, saying "yes," and being open to what God has in store for all of us.

You gotta love ... See you Sunday!

Marilyn

NOTES

Many thanks to Ian and Jennie Belle for opening their home to the Scratch group on Saturday night for a cookout, and to Shirley Frederick for arranging today's well-attended Daytimers' Luncheon at Spartacus.

Molly Quinn will sing the role of the sea goddess Galatea. The entertaining 70-minute performance will be led by Salome Sandoval McNutt and a fine group of period instrumentalists, from Cleveland, Baltimore, and the Triangle. Admission $10, children free! Don't miss it! www.elfuegofire.com

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Did you know? Your annual pledge of $1000 provides a new curriculum for our middle school Sunday School class for over a year.

MEDICARE SEMINAR

Trinity Avenue Presbyterian Church will host a Medicare Basics Seminar on Thursday, September 3 from 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. The N.C. Seniors' Health Insurance Information Program (SHIP) and Durham nonprofit Senior PharmAssist are presenting a "Medicare Basics" seminar for individuals who would like to learn more about Medicare and provides an overview of the options available. Caregivers who would like to better understand Medicare are also welcome. To register for this seminar, contact the church office at 919-682-3865 or email Ruth Petrea at rpetrea@nc.rr.com.

SACRED VISITATIONS

Join faith communities around Durham for a week of interfaith hospitality and learning. Experience the spiritual practices of your neighbors with time for questions and conversation! RSVP required for each separate event. Please visit this webpage: <http://www.dcia.org/sacred-visitations-fall2015/> for details about each event and to register to attend.

HABITAT HONDURAS TRIPS

Once again, Miguel and Margaret Rubiera will be leading two trips with Habitat for Humanity to Honduras in early 2016. If your heart yearns to serve others, we encourage you to consider joining one of these wonderful 10-day trips. We will work hard building houses but also have multiple opportunities to visit orphanages, a home for the elderly, and a family-owned coffee farm. Dates: January 22 – 31 and February 5 – 14. All-inclusive price: $1,800. As you help change lives, you may find that it is your life that is being most strongly impacted. Contact Margaret for more information at margaretmr29@gmail.com

It's that time again!
