ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith and Community Class

This Sunday is our last Sunday of using TED Talks as a focal point of discussion. As we venture into the politics of the Middle East in worship, come and hear A.J. Jacobs talk about his humble quest to live the ultimate biblical life for one year: My Year of Living Biblically. The class meets in Watts Hill Hall at 9:45. All are welcome.

Lectionary Class

Rich people: have they been justly rewarded for a righteous life? Or are they blasphemous oppressors? You can find both attitudes in our readings this week (and possibly in our political discourse). Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class

Journeys will read and discuss selected chapters of Psalms and Proverbs this fall. All are welcome to join the discussion. Class meets at 9:45 on the second floor of the CE building, classroom at end of hall.

SCRATCH Young Adults Class

How do our surroundings shape our spirit? What does Jesus have to do with gentrification? This fall the SCRATCH young adults group will be looking at the history of FPC Durham in hopes of better understanding where we are today. All are welcome to join as we discuss the theology of place and what it means to be a disciple of Christ at the corner of Roxboro and Main. This Sunday, we are meeting at 9:45 at SCRATCH Bakery (111 W. Orange).

Family Matters Class

Parents with young-ish children -- generally elementary age and younger, but we're not picky!! -- join us for a low-key, pleasant class where we share the road of parenting and dabble in Scripture (stand-alone lessons). Class meets at 9:45; this week we are in room 208.

Spiritual Formation

Susan Dunlap leads this class for women in a weekly quest and discussion on spiritual formation. Class meets at 9:45 in the basement classroom.

NEW FALL BOOK STUDY

"The Road to Character"

The Friday/Sunday study group will reconvene this year with a look at New York Times columnist David Brooks' new book, The Road to Character. Brooks explores what it means to cultivate an inner life. He says, "Occasionally, even today, you come across certain people who seem to possess an impressive inner cohesion. They are not leading fragmented, scattered lives. ... Their virtues are not the blooming virtues you see in smart college students; they are the ripening virtues you see in people who have lived a little and have learned from joy and pain." Men and women are welcome to join either group for a six-week study beginning Friday, September 11 at 10:30 a.m. in room 208 at the church, or Sunday, September 13 at 3:00 p.m. at Croasdaile Village in the Heritage Hall Activities Room. You may either acquire your own copy of the book or contact Marilyn Hedgpeth if you need a copy.

KUDOS to the Christian Education

Committee for a wonderful Kick-Off to the spiritual nurture programs in the church for 2015-2016. The theme for our year is: God's Great Garden. Copies of the brochure outlining all the classes for the fall are on the table in the foyer and narthex. FPC is grateful for all who have stepped forward as teachers, youth advisors and support personnel to the educational ministries of the church. Members of the CE Committee include: Emily Durham (and Carlo Diy), Marcia, Bill and David Lorimer, Jon Abels, Dawn Carsey, Katharine Whitmore, Sarah Finbow and Marilyn Hedgpeth.

FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

It was so moving on Sunday to ordain and install our new class of ruling elders and deacons. One might say it was almost like a wedding, where vows were exchanged, "I do's" were voiced, and beautiful music was played. As Sam Miglarese noted, the most amazing moment was when those formerly ordained streamed forward to lay hands on the new officers in a move of solidarity, and a sharing of wisdom, spirit, and power with them. I'm inclined to say that more than half of the saints of the church (and all of the great cloud of witnesses beyond) came forward to pass the mantle to the new officers, like Elijah to Elisha, and to pray for a double portion of God's spirit to inspire their work in the coming days. Thank you to all who have agreed to serve as ruling elders and deacons for the coming year:

Ruling Elders

Al Arrowood

Wes Carson

Lenore Champion

Aurelia Klink

Talitha Kwon

Miriam Morey

Gerald Postema

Caroline Rourk

Eric Wiebe

Jane Williams

Deacons

Chris Brown

Amy Dillon

Deborah Hamlin-Aggrey

Michael Honeycutt

Almira Mbah

Carter Momsen-Hudson

Karen Swope

Julie Whiddon

Jennie Zehmer

And FPC also dedicated our new teachers, youth advisors, and support personnel in the service on Sunday. I am equally thankful to these saints who have said "yes" to the educational ministry of this church. This Sunday was a visible sign of the invisible grace that calls all of us equally to be ministers in the neighbor-love and caring way of Jesus. Thank you all for your partnership in the Gospel from this day forward.

Blessings,

Marilyn

YOUTH WORSHIP BULLETIN

Friends,
We are in need of someone who is willing to create the youth worship bulletin each week. The task is NOT creating the bulletin from scratch. It is a matter of re-formatting a Microsoft Word document and copy/pasting some links from a website that has already designed puzzles that go with the lectionary each week. The task takes about 30 minutes, and is done on Wednesday or Thursday with a firm deadline of Friday morning. Training and support available! Please contact Dawn Carsey by email if you have interest: dailybread88@hotmail.com

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

On Sunday we celebrated the start of a new year of Sunday School and other Christian Education offerings at FPC. This vital ministry serves our entire congregation and is supported by your pledge dollars through the purchase of curriculum and other resources used by the many talented and dedicated volunteers who serve as teachers, mentors, and leaders. This is one more example of how your generosity is making a difference in the lives of both children and adults.

WALK-IN MINISTRY

The following are needed at this time:

For Blessing Bags

Snack crackers (filled with peanut butter or cheese), small bottles of water, small boxes of dried fruit (raisins, etc.) or applesauce squeeze pouches

For Toiletry Bags

Travel sizes of toothpaste, shampoo, deodorant, hand lotion

Your continued generosity appreciated.
