ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith and Community/Scratch Class

FPC sits at the crossroads between old and new in downtown Durham. This Sunday Kathy Krahenbuhl will introduce a book being read throughout Durham, looking at city dynamics and demographics entitled Urban Alchemy, written by Dr. Mindy Fullilove. Come be part of the conversation about the positive and negative aspects of progress in the Bull City. The class meets at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall.

Lectionary Class

It takes a lot of nerve to stand before the Lord and make demands. How would you expect the Lord to respond? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class

Journeys will discuss selected chapters from Proverbs and continue studying Ecclesiastes. All are welcome to join. We meet at 9:45, second floor, classroom at the end of the hall.

Family Matters Class

Parents of elementary age and younger children share the road of parenting and dabble in Scripture. We meet at 9:45 in the CE building, room 203.

Spiritual Formation

Susan Dunlap leads this class on spiritual formation. Class meets Sunday mornings at 9:45 in the basement classroom.

STEWARDSHIP SEASON

October 11 – November 8

THEME: "Many People, One Body"

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. (1 Corinthians 12:12)

First Presbyterian members, you are invited to commit your support of the FPC mission for the budget year 2016. As we are many in one, our budget seeks to support our mission in the community. We can be present in Christ when we have a physical presence in our 100-year-old building when we pay fair wages for our dedicated staff and when we give financial support to our service and mission goals.

For the next month, you will experience spoken and written testimony as to the value of our presence to many people, representing the many parts. For 2016, the Session has approved a budget of $937,288.14, increased 3.96% over the budget for 2015. This includes a 2% COLA for staff, a 10% increase in their health care benefits, and a 1.61% increase in building support. All numbers are available! You will get detailed information on the line item expenses, percentages of each part of our whole, and a chart on suggested amounts to pledge. Stewardship committee members will be available to speak to groups.

Talk with your family about the importance of FPC in your lives. Prayerfully consider what you can commit to meeting our budget requests for the next year. It is not required that you give, but it is essential that you pledge something. We cannot do the whole without sustaining the parts.

Grace and peace,

Celia Dickerson and Miriam Morey, co-chairs, Sam Miglarese, Leslie McDow, Amy Dillon, Amy Wilson, Talitha Kwon, Carl Rist, Lisa Rist, Tom Bacon, Sheila Breitweiser

CONGREGATIONAL DINNER

Tuesday, October 27

CHILDREN'S

SUNDAY SCHOOL

God's Great Garden (Grades 3-5)

This Sunday we will celebrate the National Children's Sabbath, and you will be leading parts of the worship service. We will practice our readings, our dances and our music that will be used in worship, so try to be at the church by 9:45. We'll practice upstairs before the worship service at 11 am.

FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

I came back from vacation this week to find my office evacuated and all of my church belongings boxed up and stacked together with Sarah's and Valerie's in the bigger pastor's study in preparation for painting and re-carpeting. I feel like they have pulled the plug on my brain, and I am operating off an external generator. Even so, I can't even begin to imagine what some of the people in low country South Carolina are feeling after the freak thousand-year storm that brought devastating flooding there last week. My college class has circulated a note asking all of our classmates from South Carolina to respond so we'll know they are okay. I hope you are checking on any SC connections you might have, also. We claim to be a connectional church as Presbyterians, and this is one way we can employ those connections.

With 14 reported deaths in SC as a result of the flooding, Presbyterian Disaster Assistance is on the ground there assessing the situation. Many families have been displaced and roads and businesses destroyed. We will know soon how we might help in tangible ways. In the meantime, donations can be made by going to Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, DR000191-US flooding. What keeps rolling through my mind is the line from The Navy Hymn: "O Holy Spirit, who did brood upon the chaos wild and rude, and bade its angry tumult cease, and gave, for fierce confusion, peace."

So may it be,

Marilyn

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT

Congratulations to Heather Wallace and Michael Schultz who were married in our sanctuary this past Saturday. It was great to have a church wedding with so many church members involved. Best wishes to the happy couple.

YOUTH NEWS

Dear friends,

Twenty youth and adults traveled from FPC and Iglesia Emanuel this past weekend to join other youth from around the New Hope Presbytery for the annual Middle School retreat at Camp Don Lee. We had a wonderful weekend together! Thanks to Lenore Champion, Marty Ramirez, Sharron Johnson, and Emily Wilkins for joining me on the trip! The High Schoolers also met on Sunday and had a fun night together. Thanks to Lea Bingham for providing our meal! This week, the youth will begin planning Youth Sunday, which will be held on November 15 this year!

Blessings,
Sarah
