ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith and Community

What are the options at the polls for this November? What gifts do contenders bring; what holes need to be filled? Our politician-in-residence, City Councilman Eugene Brown, will go over some of the ins and outs of election policies and procedures for this election, and encourage all of us to vote our conscience! The class meets in Watts-Hill Hall at 9:45, and all are welcome.

Lectionary Class

Join us for a discussion of Sunday's lectionary texts at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class

Journeys will discuss selected chapters from Proverbs and continue their study of Ecclesiastes. All are welcome to join. We meet at 9:45, second floor, classroom at the end of the hall.

SCRATCH/Young Adults Class

We are discussing the theology of place and what it means to be a disciple of Christ at the corner of Roxboro and Main. Alex Stayer Brewington leads the discussion. Join us at 9:45 in a basement classroom.

Family Matters Class

Parents of elementary age and younger children share the road of parenting and dabble in Scripture. We meet at 9:45 in the CE building, room 203.

Spiritual Formation

Susan Dunlap leads this class on spiritual formation. Class meets Sunday mornings at 9:45 in the basement classroom.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME ends Sunday, November 1, 2:00 a.m.

Remember to set your clocks back one hour before going to bed on Saturday night, October 31!

"Many People, One Body" A Minute for Stewardship

(given in worship on Sunday, October 25
by Sam Henry)

You may notice that today, over my strictly formal wear, I'm wearing a lovely red scarf. Some of you may recognize it as the scarf given to all young members of this church as they are confirmed. But really, the story of this scarf goes back much farther than that. And like most all good biblical stories, it starts with water . . .

When I am told of my baptism now, it seems like a scene from The Lion King. My small, still dripping head sealed with oil then held up to where the whole church could see who they had just blindly promised to care for and teach. But no matter how little they knew of me when they made those promises they, you, have still upheld your commitment to me even to this day.

Some of you know me as that kid in the Handbell Choir, or that kid who gets up every year or so to sing "O Lamb of God." And I know at least Sarah sees me as that rascal always running around with Matt Brockman. But when I got this scarf from the church, I could feel the love of everyone in the church wrapping warmly around me and saying again to me, what Lori Pistor said at my baptism, "You are Samuel Joseph Henry, child of the Covenant."

FPC'S FALL DAY OF SERVICE

Saturday, October 31

Let's treat the community on Halloween!

Sponsored by Service & Mission Committee

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

The Sacrament of Baptism was celebrated for Duncan Vujic Profeta last Sunday during worship. Duncan is the son of Tim Profeta and Tanja Vujic.

CHILDREN'S SUNDAY SCHOOL

It's time to entertain a new story: Jesus and the Paralytic from Matthew, Mark and Luke. How important was the community in addressing the needs of the paralytic and in bringing him into the presence of Jesus? Bring your friends and we'll see you on Sunday morning.

FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear friends,

FPC cares deeply! I was reminded just how deeply we love and care for each of our members as I was among many who came to the bedside of Nowell Creadick last week, to lay hands on and to pray, and to anoint him with the oil of healing and wholeness. It was a beautiful sight to witness and to be part of the peace that spread throughout his room as the saints surrounded him in prayer. He has been blessed with a fabulous care team led by Deborah Momsen-Hudson, who is working tirelessly to provide much-needed support.

FPC cares deeply! I was reminded just how deeply we love and care for those outside our walls also, by the efforts of many who participate in Durham CAN's initiatives to bring and maintain affordable housing in the downtown area. With the many high-end apartments and condos springing up, with the urban renewal and gentrification of our downtown community, many of our neighbors either are being forced out of their homes or are finding their rent rising to unsustainable levels. Because FPC has a tradition of caring for the Beloved Community, we support Urban Ministries, Genesis Home, Habitat, Durham CAN and all these ministries that care for the least of these. I am grateful for those like Susan Dunlap, Tom Bacon, Sharon Hirsch, Homer Ashby, Lea Bingham, Jancy Strauman, Dan Hudgins, and others who have a heart for those outside our walls.

FPC cares deeply! We currently have three members working towards ordination to the Ministry of Word and Sacrament, which is an all-time high. Alex Stayer Brewington and I Sil Yoon are now candidates for ministry; Mary Berry has just begun the process as an inquirer. It is great to be a nurturing community that fosters the spiritual growth of all of our members, from oldest to youngest. Could we do better? Absolutely! And my hope and prayer is that this is only a hint of the good things to come for our congregation. I am thankful to be part of a communion of saints that cares so deeply.

Peace,

Marilyn

CONGRATULATIONS to I Sil Yoon,

who was approved as a Candidate for Ministry of Word and Sacrament at Saturday's gathering of the Presbytery of New Hope. At that meeting, Reverend Steve Rimmer transferred his affiliation from Associate Reformed Presbyterian to PC(USA). We are so glad to have Steve and the gifts he brings to our church. Elders who were honored for their long-time service to the church at Saturday's meeting included Sheila Breitweiser (25 years) and Barbara Gerwe (25 years).

NOTES

Primetimers had a nice gathering on Saturday evening at the home of Eugene and Signe Brown. Thanks to the Browns for hosting.

YOUTH NEWS

Dear friends,
The youth have been hard at work reading, talking about and writing prayers and picking hymns from the scriptures for this year's youth Sunday! After a fun Saturday at a corn maze and hard work (with some fun and fellowship mixed in, too!) I could not be more impressed with our youth! We will be participating in the Day of Service this Saturday by going gleanng, and we will continue work on our youth Sunday service on Sunday evening! A huge thanks to the Wilkins family for our meal this past week!

Blessings,
Sarah

FRIDAY/SUNDAY BIBLE STUDIES

It's back to the Bible (after Reformation Sunday) for the study groups, as the Friday and Sunday classes begin a study using "Come to the Waters," biblical stories of healing, deliverance, baptism, and new life which occur around water.

The study books are free, and all are invited to attend. The Friday class meets from 10:30 to noon at the church, and the Sunday Class meets from 3-4:30 at Croasdaile Village in the Heritage Hall Activities Room. Let Marilyn Hedgpath know if you need a book.

JUNE CHALLENGE - UPDATE

Thanks to the generous response of the congregation, First Presbyterian's June Challenge grant raised $21,500, which an anonymous donor matched with an additional $20,000. The bulk of the funds will go to Downtown outreach ($10,000 for FPC's Walk-In Assistance and $10,000 for Step-Up Ministries, which is expanding its job and life skills training program to Durham) and Presbytery ($10,000). An additional $5000 will go to PCUSA World Mission, $2500 to Meals on Wheels, and $500 to Iglesia Emanuel's youth group for college trips. The remaining funds may go to Presbyterian Urban Ministries, which assists in administering our walk-in assistance, or other Downtown outreach. The committee extends its deepest gratitude to the congregation for always responding with compassion to those in need in our community, state, and around the world. – Lea Bingham

"To the world you may be one person, but to one person you may be the world" - unknown

Well, you may be 10+ people or even a congregation (not one person) but you get the idea! Jennifer, her mother in Wilmington and myself (with wife Dana) are so appreciative of your loving support for the Creadick family. You have made a tough time so much easier and hopeful. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts! With love and prayer, Jeff Cook

Thank you so very much for your part in making our stay at First Presbyterian so enjoyable. The Women Roofers of Rutherford County had a wonderful and productive trip to Durham. It was especially memorable and nostalgic for me having grown up in Durham and seeing the changes as well as the things that had remained the same. My grandfather started the Ford dealership in Durham right down the street from you which is now the Durham Housing Authority's building. I was 16 years old when the first mustangs came out and the new mustangs were in a corral right next to the building – farm days! Thanks again for your generosity!

– Jane Alexander Bell

We had a great time in Durham and enjoyed our work with Habitat. We were so welcomed by everyone we met. Hopefully Jane (Williams) can find an opportunity for us to return! Thanks for sharing Jane with us – we love having her join us in our work in the western part of the state! Thanks again,

Lori Henrick and the Women Roofers

MORTGAGE BURNING

Covenant Presbyterian Church of Durham invites members of New Hope Presbytery to its Mortgage Burning Service being held Sunday, November 15 at 3:00 p.m. at the Covenant Church. A reception will follow the service. R.S.V.P by November 1, 2015 at 919-682-1484.
