ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith and Community Class

Sharon Hirsch and Susan Dunlap have been members and active participants in Durham CAN for 10 years. They will lead our conversation this Sunday on how CAN works, how we provide input on the agenda and how CAN's advocacy is different from other poverty fighting efforts like Moral Monday. All are welcome to join the discussion and help shape the future of Durham. Class meets at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall.

Lectionary Class

Alleluia! The resurrection has happened, and everything is different now. But some have not understood or accepted the message. How can it be presented in a way that will convince the doubters? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys Class

Job establishes that many of the wicked prosper here on earth. Is this fair? What do you think? All are welcome to join Journeys as they read and discuss Job. We meet at 9:45 on the second floor of the CE building.

Spiritual Formation

This class for women discusses the nuances of spiritual formation. We meet at 9:45 in the basement classroom.

Scratch/Young Adults

This class uses Podcasts (chosen from sources like This American Life, On Being, and TED Talks) to kick-start our conversations about the intersection of Christianity, the modern world, and faith in general. Carlo DiY leads our discussions. Reach out to him at rcjdiy@gmail.com for more information. We meet from 9:45 – 10:45 in the basement - room across from the youth room.

Family Matters Class

Parents of elementary age and younger children share the road of parenting and dabble in Scripture. We meet at 9:45 in the CE building, room 203.

NEWCOMERS / VISITORS AND INQUIRING MINDS

You are invited to participate in a Newcomers/Inquirers Class, which will begin with a get-acquainted luncheon after worship on Sunday, April 3 in the East Parlor of the Church house. Subsequent class sessions will be held on Sunday mornings, April 10th, 17th and 24th at 9:45 a.m. in the Wilson Parlor of the Church house. Sessions will include a look at Reformed Tradition, Presbyterian denominational history, FPC's history and the opportunity to meet fellow newcomers. We want to get to know you and for you to know us. Please contact Shirley Frederick at 919-682-5511 or s.frederick@firstpres-durham.org no later than Thursday, March 31st to indicate your interest or with questions.

Come celebrate with us!

The FIRST Hispanic church in the New Hope Presbytery invites you to Iglesia Emanuel Church

CHARTER SERVICE

Sunday, April 10 at 1:00 p.m.

2504 N. Roxboro Street
Reception to follow the worship

CGO

Sanctuary and Organ

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

"LOOKING BACK"

Sunday, April 17 at 11:00 a.m.

Wallace Alston, preaching

(FPC pastor from 1969 to 1974)

A fellowship lunch will be available in Watts-Hill Hall following the service. Former associate pastor, John Rogers, and his wife Ann will be our guests at the service and at the lunch following.

CROP WALK 2016

To date, FPC has collected $660 from walkers and their sponsors. As soon as possible, please get your donation(s) to Paul Cornsweet. If you forgot to pick up your t-shirt, contact Paul at 919-358-7874 or pec326@earthlink.net. CROP Walk donations can be left with the church office.

The THESE DAYS devotional booklets for April – June 2016 have arrived. Pick up a copy (regular or large print edition) from the foyer or narthex while supplies last!

CHILDREN'S SUNDAY SCHOOL (Grades 3-5)

In this season of unstable weather, as we transition from winter into spring, they will be talking about Jesus and the Storm from Mark 4: 35-41.

FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

During the 50 days of Easter leading to Pentecost, the church invites us to reflect upon the meaning of baptism for ourselves and those preparing for baptism, either as parents for their children or for adults. It is appropriate then that I met with Robin Morey, daughter of Miriam Morey, this past week to begin her preparation for baptism in the near future. She is grateful to her mother and to all of you. The "one constant" in her life has been church and her faith. The Scriptures and prayers of our worship service this Easter season are rich in images and themes which unfold the many meanings of life in Christian community for the church of the baptized. The fullness of life that is manifest in the Resurrection is the great sign for us that nothing—neither death, nor sin, nor any principality or power—is stronger than the love of God revealed in Christ Jesus (Romans 8). For all of us who have been baptized in Jesus' Paschal Mystery, that power of love and life is at work in us as saving grace. That, not just the physical sufferings of Jesus, is what truly saves us. In the Resurrection we see God's vindication of Jesus' perfect love and perfect obedience.

Happy Eastertime!

Sam

NOTES

- THANKS to all who flowered the cross and provided the majestic Easter lilies, presenting them as glorious symbols of Easter. We are grateful to members of the Flower Committee for beautifying the sanctuary: Jean Wilson, Phyllis Verhey, Alice Raney, and Dale Georgiade, and to the deacons for arranging for the delivery of lilies to our homebound members following worship.
- The Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary's Annual Memorial Service for professors, employees, and alums will remember former FPC associate minister Rev. Dr. David Hester this year on Tuesday, April 5 at 11:30 a.m. at a service in the campus chapel. In addition, during this service, a classroom in Schlegel Hall will be dedicated to David. We join with David's widow, Gale, and their family in celebrating the contributions David made to this seminary and the greater Presbyterian community, including FPC.
- Special thanks to Carol McKnight who arranged the Daytimers' Luncheon at Neo China on March 22nd. A good time was had by those who attended!

FLOWER DELIVERY

MINISTRY

The Pastoral Care Committee is starting a new ministry to care for members who can no longer make it to Sunday services. In the past, the Deacons have rotated flower delivery duty on Sundays. We would like to make this a more formal ministry that involves all members of the congregation. We will ask for a volunteer to deliver the flowers from Sunday service once a month. If you are interested in volunteering, please email Lucie House at luciehouse@gmail.com.
