Dear friends,

I hope you all had a wonderful holiday weekend this weekend with time to breathe, relax, laugh, and be with friends and family. I hope you also had a moment to pause and give thanks for the freedoms we have in this country, particularly the freedom to worship in the way we feel called to worship. So many around the world are required to keep their faith secret, so as not to be persecuted. So many of our sisters and brothers are not free to worship and pray together openly as we do each Sunday.

This past Sunday we sang together the words printed here by Lloyd Stone to the tune by Jean Sibelius. This song captures well the love we have for our own country, for the vast, diverse and endless beauty we find in this nation, and for the hopes and dreams we pursue openly here. This song also captures the desire that we have for all to be able to live in peace in the countries they love. In a period of time so filled with violence around the world, from our own nation to Istanbul to Bangladesh to Baghdad, may we sing, pray, and act for peace in whatever ways we are able.

*This is my song, O God of all the nations,
a song of peace for lands afar and mine.*

*This is my home, the country where my heart is;
here are my hopes, my dreams, my holy shrine;*

but other hearts in other lands are beating with hopes and dreams as true and high as mine.

*My country's skies are bluer than the ocean,
and sunlight beams on cloverleaf and pine.*

*But other lands have sunlight too, and clover,
and skies are everywhere as blue as mine.*

*This is my song, O God of all the nations,
a song of peace for their land and for mine.*

May the peace of Christ be with you and with the world.

SUMMER SUNDAY SCHOOL

Faith and Community Class

What "pearls of wisdom" can we glean from Jesus' parable about the Pearl of Great Price? Is the Kingdom of Heaven like a pearl, or is it like a merchant seeking to find pearls? Jon Abels will lead us in a discussion about this parable on Sunday.

Come contribute to the collective wisdom of the Church, using Short Stories by Jesus, by Amy-Jill Levine. The class meets at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall. All are welcome.

Lectionary Class

How do you react to criticism? The prophet Amos had a harsh message of condemnation for the people of Israel.

Jesus, in his time, often used gentler parables to make a similar point about the need to change our lives. How did their hearers respond? How would you? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Women's Spiritual Formation Class

We meet in the church basement at 9:45.

Susan Dunlap leads the discussion. New faces welcome!

Scripture Readers Class

This class will meet this Sunday, July 10 and on July 24th at 9:45 in the Wilson Parlor. Please prepare by being ready to read Romans 8. Steve Rimmer leads this class.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

The children and youth will spend the Sunday School hour watching the first part of "How the Grinch Stole Christmas." The class meets at 9:45 a.m. in room 205 the education building. All are welcome!

As soon as meetings are scheduled, we'll let those of you who have volunteered know to see if a specific meeting day would fit your schedule. We may know of someone moving from a shelter to permanent housing who could use your items that are in good (usable) condition.
