From the Pastor . . .

First Presbyterian Church – A beacon of light and hope in the city of Durham

*Jesus said, "I am the light of the world.
Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness,
but will have the light of life."*

Dear friends,

This Sunday at our annual congregational meeting, I shared my thoughts about the "state of the church." Here is a condensed version for those who could not be with us:

FPC is a healthy and visionary community of faith equipped with the necessary tools to move us into the next fifty years of witnessing to the gospel message of God's love for the world in Christ and the way the Holy Spirit moves among us to shape and reform us. We have much to celebrate!

- 1) We have a strong identity: We know ourselves to be people called to a life of love toward God, one another, and our neighbors in need. We are a people of welcome and hospitality. We are known to be a safe place for all to worship, to marry, and to be active in the community. We rejoice that we are diverse in our membership, even as we strive for greater diversity. We foster strong interfaith relationships and ecumenical relationships with our friends of faith in Durham.
- 2) We worship God in spirit and in truth, with word and song, with passion, energy, imagination, joy, faithfulness, and hope for our future.
- 3) We grow together in study and service, recognizing that we are on a journey together, that we are stronger together and that we have much to learn about what it means to love God and love neighbor. We honor and celebrate the gifts of children and youth in our midst.
- 4) We work for social justice in the city and in the world. We respond to the urgent needs of God's people while also working for systemic change that will benefit those on the margins, the "least of these."
- 5) We have a gifted and committed staff team and dedicated and faithful lay leaders. Our staff and lay leaders have provided solid, wise, and consistent leadership as we moved through a three-year transition following the retirement of a beloved, long-term pastor and continue to provide leadership as we envision our future together.
- 6) We are financially stable, but need to be realistic about our finances. This year, because of many converging factors, our pledges fell short of budgeted needs. The Session responded to the shortfall by approving a realistic 2017 budget which included significant cuts to Property, Personnel, and Service and Mission Committee budgets, in addition to a draw from the reserve fund. Though these cuts were painful in many ways, the Session believes this budget will enable FPC to move more realistically into the future. We celebrate the generous gifts of FPC members that continue to show faithfulness, gratitude, and excitement about the future.

I am happy to discuss any of the above with you at any time. I am excited to be a part of this community of faith which brings the light and hope of Christ to the world.

Grace and peace to you all,
Mindy

Briefs from the Annual Meeting of the Church: At the congregational meeting on Sunday, March 19, Karen Romines presented a report from the Ad Hoc Budget Committee in which she described the process and results of modifying the 2017 operating budget. The details of this effort are contained in a letter from Karen to the congregation last week. Al Arrowood followed with a report on the total budget, which includes both the unrestricted operating funds and restricted endowment income. The budget numbers can be found in the enclosed summary file, and an outline of Karen and Al's presentations is also enclosed. Karen and Al are both happy to answer any questions about the 2017 budget and Session's ongoing efforts to reach a sustainable budget in 2018.

Faith & Community Class (Adults) - We will wrap up our series on Mental Health and Our Faithful Response with sharing and discussion about how religion and society can be helpful or harmful for those dealing with or caring for someone with a mental health issues. Homer Ashby, Jane Williams and Sue Fricks have agreed to lead a discussion to broaden our understanding of those dealing with mental health dilemmas, and how the church might provide support, encouragement, and connection for those who feel isolated during times of mental imbalance. The class meets at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall and all are welcome.

Lectionary Class (Adults) - Jesus provoked controversy by restoring sight to a man who was born blind. CONFIRMATION CLASS to Visit Sikh Gurudwara

Our visits to other faith communities will continue this Sunday, as we head up Roxboro Street to the Sikh Gurudwara of North Carolina. Their service begins later than ours, so confirmands and mentors will meet in the FPC foyer at 11:00 (as our worship begins) to carpool to the Gurudwara. Once there, they will greet and orient us before we join their worship service at 11:30, followed by a time for questions and lunch. We will return to the church by 2:30, and parents should pick up youth at FPC at that time. Female youth and mentors should bring a head scarf to wear during worship, and dress appropriately for sitting on the floor. Male youth and mentors should not wear caps. Please let Marilyn know if you will not be going.

This Sunday, the youth will engage in the "Sole Hope" service project of making shoes.

30th Anniversary of Brombaugh Organ
New Hope Presbyterian Church, Chapel Hill
featuring Kathy Parkins in Concert
Sunday, March 26 at 4:00 p.m.

To celebrate the 30th anniversary of the installation of their Brombaugh organ, New Hope Presbyterian Church in Chapel Hill is hosting a series of organ concerts. The first concert, on March 26, will feature Kathy Parkins. Kathy was the director of music at New Hope in 1987 and helped that church procure the organ. Kathy currently serves as the Minister of Music at FPC.

I recently read a wonderful book by Jon Gordon titled "Life Word - Discover Your One Word to Leave a Legacy." Though the book is small, it's message is powerful: "within the heart of every person is a passion and desire to live a life that truly matters; to make a positive contribution and make a difference; to live in such a way that the world is better because we are here. Ultimately, we want to leave a positive legacy that lives on long after we're gone." We are blessed to have the FPC Legacy Society to ensure that FPC will be here long after we are gone. I invite you to join me in this Legacy of faith. Perhaps Jesus's "life word" was his legacy of Love. - Lisa M. Gabriel

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SERVICE AND MISSION

WOODWIND PLAYER(S) NEEDED: The First Presbyterian Wind Ensemble has been playing together and providing music for occasional worship services for almost five years. During that time, our numbers have varied (sometimes a quintet, sometimes more) and so has our instrumentation. Now as Aurelia Klinck is about to go off to college, we're looking for a new member or two or three. If you play (or played) a woodwind instrument, such as flute, oboe, clarinet, sax, bassoon, or French horn, please contact David Smith by email: (davidjudysmith@frontier.com) or any of the other members of the group for more information.

HABITAT RESTORE: Do you care about affordable housing issues, but hammering nails and climbing on roofs are not a good fit for you? Not to worry — there are other excellent ways that you can make a tangible difference. The Habitat for Humanity ReStore is looking for volunteers, ages 16 and up, to help in a variety of ways. All proceeds from the ReStore go to help build houses in Durham and Orange Counties. For more information and to sign up, please contact <http://www.restoredurhamorange.org/volunteer/>. If you have more questions, contact Margaret Rubiera at margaretmr29@gmail.com, or 919-425-1413.

FEEDING OUR NEIGHBORS: Please continue to bring non-perishable food items for Iglesia Emanuel's food pantry and supplies for blessing and toiletry bags.

FLOC needs drivers: The Farm Labor Organizing Committee's (FLOC's) farmworker members in three regions of NC (Eastern, Piedmont and Western) need rides to their regional meetings in July and August. If you have interest in driving farmworkers to the July 2 Regional membership meeting in Dudley NC, please contact Dave Austin at daustin@mindspring.com.

STEPUP MINISTRY: Beginning April 4, StepUp Durham will begin Step2 of its Employment Program. Step2 is a weekly program that will wrap nine months of life-skills, stability, and support around those who have become newly-employed and working at least 30 hours per week. Phase one of Step2 will focus on personal development; phase two will focus on financial coaching; and phase three, on career growth. “StepUp Durham’s vision for Step2 is that it will be a place where people grow and thrive, create and accomplish goals and build a deeper sense of community, stronger self-awareness, greater financial stability, and clarity for how to obtain the type of joy they could call a career.”

Volunteers are needed every Tuesday night from 5:45-8:30 at CityWell Church, 2317 Chapel Hill Road, in the following areas:

- Co-Partner/Mentor - Be trained to walk alongside and support a StepUp participant weekly as they set and accomplish their personal, professional, and financial goals. (Training will be Tuesday, March 21 from 6-8 at CityWell Church)
- Childcare and Homework Buddies – Provide supervision and homework help for children (ages 0-16) of StepUp adults.
- Meal Donation – Help StepUp provide a nutritious dinner to the 10 families participating in Step2 pilot program (Marie Sappenfield and Marilyn Hedgpeth are providing a meal the first Tuesday of every month. They would love to have others on their meal team; or establish another meal time to cover other Tuesdays.)
- Instruction – Offer to teach or coach participants on a skill in which you have expertise (i.e. setting S.M.A.R.T. goals, leaning into personality strengths, credit repair, career development, budgeting, etc.)

StepUp Durham partners with adults seeking to transform their lives through employment and life skills training. Classes are designed specifically for individuals facing barriers to finding employment, such as a criminal background or gaps in employment history. FPC is proud to be a sponsor of StepUp Durham. If you are interested in joining the StepUp Durham team, please contact Marilyn Hedgpeth or Bob Yoder.
