"Downtown by history and by choice"

Newsletter

September 12, 2017

Newsletter going bi-weekly!

Dear friends,

Due to staff reductions over the past year, we are unable to continue to provide the newsletter on a weekly basis. We will be able to provide a comprehensive newsletter bi-weekly, as we have done over the summer. We will also still have a weekly Friday email reminder. We ask your understanding as we make this change.

Please have any information that might need to be included in the newsletter to our Church Administrator Valerie McMillian (v.mcmillian@firstpres-durham.org) as soon as possible so that she has time to put the complete newsletter together for publication. Beginning with this edition, the bi-weekly schedule will begin. Thank you for your understanding.

Grace and peace,
Mindy

From the Pastor . . .

Dear friends,

As we head into this week, we are filled with care and concern for many in our nation and around the world. We recognize the devastation caused by natural disasters all around us. We have been in prayer for our friends and neighbors and family members who live in these affected areas. Many have sent money to support Presbyterian Disaster Assistance and other agencies helping to rebuild these areas. We have sent a team to help clean up after Hurricane Matthew and no doubt will send other teams. Though we ourselves have not been directly hit by these storms, we recognize the pain and stress of our extended community. We also remember the devastated areas and peoples in Asia, Mexico, Myanmar, and Sierra Leone.

As we lift our prayers up for all those affected, we lean upon God's words of comfort and assurance through the Psalmist:

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change,

though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea;

though its waters roar and foam,

though the mountains tremble with its tumult.

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy habitation of the Most High.

God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be moved;

God will help it when the morning dawns.

The nations are in an uproar, the kingdoms totter;

he utters his voice, the earth melts.
The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.
he utters his voice, the earth melts.
The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.
Come, behold the works of the Lord;
see what desolations he has brought on the earth.
He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear;
he burns the shields with fire.
“Be still, and know that I am God!
I am exalted among the nations,
I am exalted in the earth.”
The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge (Psalm 46, NRSV).

Friends, our trust is in the Lord, who made heaven and earth. Let us lean on God who created us, who sustains us through all of life's storms, and who saves us from the darkness and brings us into the everlasting light. May the love of Christ that shines on us be your guide through it all.

With love,
Mindy

How have you grown in your understanding of Peacemaking?

Have you read our PC(USA) Stated Clerk's letter to President Trump? On Sept. 5, Rev. J. Herbert Nelson condemned the president's decision to end the DACA program. Rev. Nelson was speaking words of Christ's Peace to the power of our president. Read Nelson's letter at the PC(USA) News website: www.pcusa.org/news. Look for the September 5 news item.

When have you spoken Christ's Peace to power? How was the experience? To be better informed about the issues of peace and justice subscribe to PC(USA) E-mail news, either daily or weekly, by registering at www.presbyterianmission.org/newsletter-subscription. ## NOTES

We welcome Cherrie Henry back from her 3-month sabbatical. Cherrie will be sharing the details of her sabbatical and pilgrimage to Spain on September 27 at 6:00 p.m. in Watts-Hill Hall.

First Friends and Families had a lovely beach weekend ahead of Hurricane Irma. Many thanks to Kathy Conner and Deborah Momsen-Hudson for organizing again this year.

It was great this weekend to welcome Cecil and Mary Macaully's daughter, Cynthia Bangura, back to the USA, and to see their beautiful granddaughter, Zuri, who is almost 2. Among our visitors on Sunday were former members Mark, Pam and Caroline Stewart, who were evacuated from Savannah and thus visiting their former home church.

Kudos to Debbie Hamlin-Aggrey and the Membership Committee for hosting the Membership Inquiry Luncheon on Sunday following worship. Classes for those considering membership continue this Sunday at 9:45 in the Wilson Parlor, led by Sam Miglarese, who will speak about Baptism and Eucharist. All who are interested in exploring membership are invited to attend.

Many thanks also to Kristin Meade for hosting the Scratch fellowship group for young adults on Saturday night at her home. Cherrie Henry was welcomed back into the fold.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

All classes begin at 9:45, and parents are asked to walk your children to their classrooms, and to come back and get them for worship. Thank you!

3rd, 4th and 5th graders, ready to get your hands a little dirty? This Sunday, September 17, Alec Bethune and Delia Kwon will lead the class in some cartography (map making) of the Sea of Galilee, where Jesus called his first disciples. I wonder what it looked like? I wonder if you could see across it? I wonder if you could sail across it in one day? On September 24, Li-Chen Chin will start us off with music, and then Marilyn Hedgpeth will take us to the new Spirituality Center, where we can take off shoes, relax, color, build, create, and just rest in the Lord. This month we are reading Mark 1: 16-20, if you want to be prepared for our next two classes. All are welcome!

Classes for children (through 5th grade) are held on the second floor of the Christian Education building at 9:45.

Middle and high school youth meet in their designated classrooms in the basement (below the sanctuary) at 9:45.

Faith and Community Class: Have you ever wondered how economists think about poverty? How does understanding the economics of poverty help us respond to the issues surrounding poverty in more effective ways? Join us this Sunday as Tim O'Brien leads us in a discussion of "The Economics of Poverty." Tim is a health economist at Research Triangle Institute and married to Pastor Mindy Douglas. The class meets at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall. All are welcome.

On Sunday, September 24, you are invited to hear Olive Joyner, Executive Director of Housing for New Hope, who will speak about affordable housing options and plans for Durham County.

Lectionary Class: The story of the escape of the Israelites from Egypt through the Red Sea is one of the most memorable and exciting in the Bible. What is its relevance for us today? Does God intervene miraculously in battles in our time? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

For September 24: What do we deserve? Are we "entitled" to the daily bread that we pray for? Do we deserve a greater reward than others because we have been faithful and obedient for many years?

*****

Journeys and Scratch/Young Adults Class: This fall, Journeys and Scratch are combining classes in Room 205 to study the book, The Road to Character, by David Brooks. Brooks divides culture according to two paradigms: Adam I, whose members seek after economic success; and Adam II, whose members are more committed to character and the inner life. Then he follows with biographies of some who have aligned their lives more according to the Adam II paradigm: Dwight D. Eisenhower, George Marshall, St. Augustine, Samuel Johnson, Dorothy Day, and George Eliot, to name a few. The class will be team taught by members of both classes. All are welcome.

*****

Spiritual Formation This year-round class for women is led by Susan Dunlap and explores the topic of spiritual formation. Join us at 9:45 in basement classroom B-16.

New Bible/Book Study: Cultivating Christian Character

It's not too late to join the Friday morning Bible/Book Study group. We will be studying the content of our character as Christians. Have we been created to compete successfully on the economic playing field, or have we been created to practice a life of self-restraint, self-erasure, and self-suspicion, as author David Brooks suggests in his book, The Road to Character? Or are we called to embrace the gifts of the Holy Spirit, as enumerated in Galatians 5: 22-23: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control? We'll start with these Christians virtues, and then during Lent, we'll veer over into the classic Christian vices (virtues gone wild!) to see where we stand. Part book study, part Bible study, the class will meet on Friday mornings from 10:30 – noon in Room 205 of the Education Building. On September 15, we'll look at Galatians 5 as an introduction to the study; and on Friday, September 22, we'll tackle the topic of love. All are welcome and invited to participate.

MEMBERSHIP INQUIRY CLASSES

Do you have questions about membership at FPC? Do you want to meet others who are new to the FPC community? Have you already joined, but want to catch up on the ins and outs of FPC life? We continue the series of Membership Inquiry Classes this Sunday at 9:45 in the Wilson Parlor. The schedule for the remaining classes in the series (which are FYI, but not mandatory) is as follows:

9/17 – Baptism and Eucharist Sam Miglarese
9/24 – The Liturgical Year Dewey Lawson/David Smith
10/1 – History and Theology Mindy Douglas
10/8 – Polity and Theology Phyllis Supple
10/15 – Meet with the Session/The Christian Life Mindy Douglas

At this class on October 15, those who wish to join will meet with the Session at 9:45, and will be introduced during worship that day. However, you may join at any point in the process by letting one of the clergy know so that the Session can be notified about your desire to join. All are welcome to jump in at any point. If you have any questions, contact Marilyn Hedgpeth.

Youth groups will meet at regular times this week! Middle school (grades 6-8) from 5-6:30, high school (grades 9-12) from 6-8 with dinner together from 6-6:30. This Sunday, we'll be doing "getting to know you" activities. Parents, we will meet this coming Sunday after worship! Just grab lunch from Watts-Hill Hall and head to the Wilson Parlor!
