FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

First Sunday of Advent

December 3, 2017

A SERVICE FOR THE WORSHIP OF GOD
WITH THE SACRAMENTS OF BAPTISM AND HOLY COMMUNION

(As we prepare to worship, please silence all mobile devices.)

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS, JOYS AND CONCERNS
Ritual of Friendship

Prelude

Hark! A Thrilling Voice Is Sounding

INTROIT

Hark! A Thrilling Voice Is Sounding

Merton

Hark! A thrilling voice is sounding; “Christ is nigh,” it seems to say;
“Cast away the works of darkness, O ye children of the day.”
So, when next he comes with glory and the world is wrapped in fear,
May he with his mercy shield us, and with words of love draw near.

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH CANDLE AND CALL TO WORSHIP

Kathy Colville, Gretchen and Karl Sims

Leader: We light this candle for all God’s people, struggling to be bearers of hope in a troubled world.

People: God, as we wait for your promise, give light, give hope.

(Lighting of the candle)

Leader: A candle burns, the sign of our hope.
All: God of hope, come to us again this Advent.
May your hope live within us, burning as a light in our lives.

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN NO. 82
Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus

Hyfrydol

*CONFESSION OF SIN (remain standing)

Call to Prayer

Sam Migliarese

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Merciful God, always with us, always coming:
We confess that we do not know how to prepare for your Advent.
We have forgotten how to hope in miracles; we have ignored the promise of your kingdom.
We get distracted by all the busyness of this season.
Forgive us, God. Grant us the simple wonder of the shepherds, the intelligent courage of the Magi, and the patient faith of Mary and Joseph, that we may journey with them to Bethlehem and find the good news of a child born for us. Now, in the quiet of our hearts, we ask you to make us ready for his coming.

Silent Confession

Declaration of Pardon

* Those who are able, please stand.
COLLECT FOR THE DAY
Leader: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Leader: Let us pray.
All: Eternal God, you taught us that the night is far spent and the day is at hand. Keep us awake and alert, watching for your kingdom, and make us strong in faith, so that when Christ comes in glory to judge the earth, we may joyfully give him praise; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

GOSPEL LESSON
Leader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God!

HEBREW SCRIPTURE LESSON
Leader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God!

SERMON
“Come Down, Lord!” Mindy Douglas

HYMN NO. 348
Lo, He Comes with Clouds Descending Helmsley

*THE PEACE
Gathered from places near and far, let us share a sign of Christ’s peace with one another.
Leader: The peace of Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

DEDICATION OF OFFERINGS
Offertory Anthem Remember Christians All Thomas Ravenscroft (16th cent.)

Remember Christians all, your time is spent:
Remember Christians all, how you came to me then,
And I did what I can, therefore repent.

Remember God’s goodness and promise made:
Remember God’s goodness, how his own Son he sent,
Our sins for to redress: be not afraid.

In Bethlem was he born for people here.
In Bethlem was he born for us that were forlorn,
And therefore suffered scorn, our sins to bear.

Give thanks to God alway, Christians all, with hearts right glad:
Welcome the King of Might upon that blessed night,
And sing with great delight: Thanks be to God!

*Doxology (Hymn No. 108, verse 6)
Christ, to thee with God the Father, and, O Holy Ghost, to thee
Hymn and chant and high thanksgiving, and unwearied praises be
Honor, glory, and dominion, and eternal victory,
Evermore and evermore!

(Children through 1st grade enter worship during the Doxology.)

A TIME WITH THE CHILDREN Mindy Douglas
Sacrament of Baptism for Ezekiel Boone Castle

Words of Scripture
Elder: On behalf of the Session, I present Ezekiel Boone Castle to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.
Pastor: (to the parents)
Brian and Jeanette, do you desire that your child be baptized? Do you reaffirm your faith in Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior? Do you renounce evil and affirm your reliance on God’s grace? Relying on God’s grace, do you promise to live the Christian faith and to teach that faith to your child?
Parents: We do.
Pastor: (to the gathered children who will respond with “Yes”)
Do you promise to be a friend to Ezekiel? If he gets lost, will you help him find the way? If he falls down, will you help pick him up? Will you share with him the stories of Jesus?
Elder: (to the congregation)
Do you, as members of the church of Jesus Christ, promise to guide Ezekiel by word and deed, with love and prayer, encouraging him to know and follow Christ and to be a faithful member of Christ’s church?
People: We do.

(The congregation will please stand.)

*Affirmation of Faith (in unison) The Apostles’ Creed
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

*Thanksgiving over the Water
Leader: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Leader: Let us pray. We give you thanks, Eternal God, for you nourish and sustain all living things by the gift of water. In the beginning of time, your Spirit moved over the watery chaos, calling forth order and life. We thank you, O God, for the water of baptism: in it we are buried with Christ in his death; from it we are raised to share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the power of the Holy Spirit. Send your Spirit to move over this water that it may be a fountain of rebirth. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon Ezekiel that he may have power to do your will, and continue forever in the risen life of Christ. To you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, be all praise, honor, and glory, now and forever.

All: Amen.

(The congregation may be seated.)

Baptism
Anointing
Welcome
A Christian in Community

(During the hymn, the children may return to the nursery, go to the choir room for Children’s Choir rehearsal, or join their parents in the pews.)

1. A Christian in community begins a life in church baptism tized enveloped by its blessed love and way of body, blood, and mystery communion done on

2. The church then leads the baptized on the sacramental, holy earth, the church will celebrate with me while

3. And when my baptism is fulfilled and last communion done on by the grace of God above. Praise the Lord throughout life with Thee.

INVITATION TO THE LORD’S TABLE

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Leader: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Leader: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Leader: Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor tongue told of a glory like yours, Lord God. In Jesus you glorify your chosen people and inaugurate your church to be his body in the world. And so we gladly thank you, joining with the company of angels and archangels and all the host of heaven, in their unending hymn:
All: (sing) (sung to “Watchman, Tell Us of the Night”) Aberystwyth (Hymn No. 97)

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and God of might:
heav’n and earth are full, this day, of your glory come our way.
Blessed is the one who comes in your name to lead us home to the place where we may sing glad hosannas to our king!

Leader: Ever-present God, your prophets longed that you would tear the heavens and come down; and in your son Jesus Christ you have come down and filled the earth with the splendor of your dwelling among us. In him, you were present to friend and stranger, the intrigued and the suspicious, the betrayer and the bereft. Come down now in the power of your Holy Spirit upon this bread and cup and make them be for us the body and blood of your Son
Jesus Christ. Great is the mystery of faith.

People: Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.
Leader: As you feed us with this living bread, strengthen those who wonder if they can survive this day; restore any who are downtrodden and heavy-laden; visit all who are forsaken and alone.

(Prayers of intercession and thanksgiving)
Open the window of your heaven that your church may glimpse the hope of your glory and your world may be transfigured by the light of your truth, until that day when heaven finally comes to earth, and your Spirit infuses your creation with resurrecting grace, and you are all in all, one God, now and forever. Amen.

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

THE SHARING OF THE BREAD AND CUP
Gluten- and peanut-free bread is available by the lectern. As you come forward to receive the elements, please bring your blessing bags/supplies and place them in the baskets.

Hymn for Communion No. 384 (all sing) Soon and Very Soon Soon and Very Soon

*PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION
Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to offer thanks and praise.
All: Faithful God, we thank you that Christ is being revealed in every time and place until he comes again in the fullness of glory. Strengthen our testimony and spiritual gifts;
increase generosity in us, we pray, as we wait for the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Amen.

*HYMN NO. 105 People, Look East Besançon

*BENEDICTION Mindy Douglas

*POSTLUDE Trumpet Tune on “Wake! Awake! For Night Is Flying!” Martha Sobaje

Everyone is invited to Watts-Hill Hall following worship to enjoy some refreshments, make crafts and support community organizations at our annual Advent Festival and Alternative Gift Fair. See the enclosed pamphlet for information about the organizations participating in today’s fair.

Christmas pageant participants are asked to remain in the sanctuary following worship for a quick rehearsal.
First Presbyterian Church welcomes all who worship here. We honor and celebrate the human diversity and unity that God gives us in Christ. We welcome individuals of every age, race, nationality, gender, ability, sexual orientation, and economic circumstance to participate fully in the life of the church.
So that we may better know each other, please sign the Ritual of Friendship pad, pass it along the center pew across to the shorter side pew, and then return it to the starting point, noting the names of those sitting near you. We welcomed 21 visitors to our worship service on Sunday, November 26.

The baptism service this morning is for Ezekiel Boone Castle, son of Jeanette and Brian Castle. The name, Ezekiel, means God strengthens, and Boone, means good, a blessing. Christyn Klinck is the ruling elder standing as witness to Ezekiel’s baptism.

The sanctuary table upon which the Advent Wreath sits was made by George Danser and is given to the church by him and his wife, Jean Cary. George has drawn design features from our communion table and used oak removed from the sanctuary during our renovation and from a tree in their backyard that Jean saw get hit by lightning some years ago.

Advent paraments: First Presbyterian Church commissioned Laurie Wohl to design and create two paraments to be hung from the pulpit and lectern during Lent and Advent. Wohl is an internationally known fiber-artist who exhibited her work at the church in spring of 2012. The text on the Advent parament hanging from the pulpit, in Hebrew and English, is from Isaiah 12:3: “With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.” The text on the lectern parament is from Luke 1:78-79: “The dawn from on high will break upon us to give light to guide our feet into the way of peace.” We are grateful that the bequest of Anne ‘St. Clair’ Williams made it possible to enhance our sanctuary with these beautiful works of art.

Today’s worship texts are taken from Book of Common Worship, Candles and Conifers, Eucharistic Prayers, and Feasting on the Word.

Singers of New and Ancient Music (SONAM) is a chorus committed to creating high-quality sacred and secular music and giving back to the community. SONAM was founded in 2012 with two primary missions: to make excellent choral music, focusing primarily on the Renaissance and modern eras, and to support local non-profits through benefit concerts. SONAM consists of about 20 talented singers from central North Carolina and is led by conductor Allan Friedman and accompanist Jane Lynch. SONAM is a volunteer organization sustained by donations of time and resources.
