

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF DURHAM

"Downtown by history and by choice"

Bi-Weekly Newsletter

August 21 - September 4, 2018

From the Pastor . . .

Dear friends,

I hope your week is going well and that you are finding ways to make space for devotion and reflection in your daily lives. Such space reminds us that God is present with us and an important part of our day-to-day lives of school, work, retirement, and other activities. Look for God and find the peace, love, joy, and hope that God intends for you.

This week, I want to use this space for FAQs (Frequently Asked Questions), as there are many of the same questions that I hear as I move amongst you all throughout the week and on Sunday. I will address other questions in future newsletters, so let me know what questions you have! We want the congregation to be as informed as possible so that we might discern together how we might seek to serve God in the city of Durham.

FAQs:

Questions related to the apartment upstairs in the office area:

1) I didn't know there was an apartment? How long has it been there and how has it been used in the past?

A) As far as we know, the apartment has been in place since FPC built the "Church House" building in 1923. At that time, the five-room apartment was occupied by the Religious Education Director Aline "Kenzie" McKenzie and the Church Hostess Emma Jones (see Peter Fish's Downtown by History and by Choice, p. 102). Since that time, it has been used by staff, Duke Divinity School students and interns, and most recently by FPC member George Kirshmann, who served as security at night and monthly on Sundays. George moved out at the end of July.

2) How will the apartment be used now?

A) The FPC Session (our governing body made up of elected members from the congregation – see photos and descriptions on the foyer bulletin board) will be considering possible ways that the space might be used. The Property Committee invites you to share your ideas regarding how this space might be used by way of proposals (see information in this newsletter) that will be reviewed by the committee and reported back to Session for consideration.

3) How can I see this space?

A) The space can be seen during office hours. Additional work will need to be done on the apartment before it is ready for use again.

4) How big is the space?

A) We don't have exact measurements at this time, but it is somewhere around 630 square feet. It includes a kitchen, dining room, living room space, bedroom and bathroom.

5) I heard something about needing to install a sprinkler system if we have someone living there? Is this the case?

A) Some years ago, we had received information from an inspector that this was the case. However, Chris Brown, our Property Committee chair, contacted the Interim Chief Fire Marshall and learned that because the apartment space has been designated as an apartment from when the Church House was built in 1923, current code would not be applicable to it. Therefore, the apartment may be used for human habitation without requiring a sprinkler system to be installed.

6) Does this make the space unsafe?

A) This is a question the Property Committee and Session will have to address if they consider proposals that will have a person or people living there. There is no external fire escape, though there is a metal window ladder. Currently, the space includes two smoke detectors.

7) Who do I talk to if I have more questions about this space and how it might be used in the future?

A) Please contact the chair of the Property Committee, Chris Brown, with questions. He may be reached at jamesbro@gmail.com.

Next up: Questions related to the hiring of our new Temporary Associate Pastor for Youth and Their Families, the work of the Strategic Planning Team, and our Walk-in Ministry and Blessing Bag Ministry.

I hope this has been helpful!

Holding you all in prayer,
Mindy Douglas

CALL for PROPOSALS:

Do you have an idea for how the space might be used to promote God's work in the city through the work of FPC? Mission? Staffing? Students? Christian Education? Other? If so, please submit a proposal detailing how the space might be used and how such use connects with the Core Values of FPC. Deadline for proposals is October 1, 2018.

Questions related to the proposals? Contact Chris Brown, Property Committee Chair, jamesbro@gmail.com or Mindy Douglas, Pastor, m.douglas@firstpres-durham.org.

To the FPC family,

We would like to express our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to the people of First Presbyterian Church for our mother's August 3 memorial service.

Through meaningful words and beautiful music, the service truly captured and celebrated the essence of Florence Shackelford.

What a blessing it was to our family as your deacons provided a lovely reception so that we could visit with family and friends. Our parents were long-time, active members of FPC. In their later years, the church body ministered to them so well through pastoral visits, prayers, flowers and cards. When she became wheelchair bound, Mom received regular visits from several church members. They took her on "rides" in her wheelchair around Croasdaile, communicated with her (mostly through writing on a dry-erase board), advocated for her, and even let her "blow off steam" if that's what she needed. Their ministry brought joy to her and peace to us, her children, when we couldn't always be there. So we thank you again for being the "hands and feet of Christ" in meeting her at her point of need. Like the

Apostle Paul said to the church at Philippi, we thank God for every remembrance of you. -Gene, Frances, and Daniel Shackelford

To the First Presbyterian Congregation,
Thank you so much for the prayers, cards, and emails during Dan's illness and after his death. I have received many, many kind notes with the cards. They meant more than words can express. - Mary Banner

We wish to thank Mal King for once again coordinating the school supplies drive at FPC. We collected about six bins worth of supplies this year along with some financial contributions to the Teacher's Warehouse!

Crayons2Calculators would like to express to each of you our sincere appreciation for your participation in the "Fill That Bus!" school supply drive for teachers and classrooms within Durham Public Schools. This has been a great year for us with the increase in donations and donors. Donors such as your church play a major part in the lives of teachers and students with the amount of donations you provided to Crayons2Calculators! Our teachers will be thrilled as they "shop" at no cost for much needed supplies for their classrooms. Please know that we are grateful and look forward to your participation next year!

Youth Groups will begin meeting on Sunday evenings on September 9th.

Proposed new schedule for Middle Schoolers will be 4:30 - 6:30 p.m., and high schoolers will meet from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. Youth groups will meet together for supper from 6:00 - 6:30 p.m.

NOTES

Many thanks to Cris Rivera, Beth Stringfield and the Fellowship Committee for a wonderful congregational lunch on Sunday. As people drift back in after summer vacation, it is great to have an opportunity to sit and chat with everyone.

Ben Maxwell gave a wonderful cello concert on Sunday evening in the sanctuary. Even without his piano accompanist (who had a family emergency), Ben was effortlessly able to perform pieces by Debussy and Bach. And as his mother said, "Ben rocked the Bach"!

Kudos to all of the Sunday School teachers, youth advisors, "gold fish ladies (superintendents), and to the Christian Education Committee who turned out on Sunday morning for Teacher Training. Part of that training is always a review of FPC's Child and Youth Protection Policy, which is very timely and important in light of all of the stories and incidents of child abuse by the church which are coming to light. FPC requires that a background check of all who work with children and youth be conducted every three years, and that an annual review of our child safety policies and procedures be made. Marilyn Hedgpeth is grateful to the Christian Education Committee for providing leadership in this area.

From the Associate Pastor . . .

Dear friends,

Promotion Sunday is this Sunday, and I am thrilled with the wealth of Christian Nurture Opportunities and the wonderful cadre of teachers, leaders, and advisors at First Presbyterian Church this year. Our theme for this year is “Winds of Change,” since we have a new Associate Pastor for Youth and their Families, and things already are beginning to look a little different. But other changes are “in the air” as well. Let me list a few that we will explain more fully this Sunday at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall:

1) We have six offerings for adult learning on Sunday mornings, which is pretty amazing!

- Adult Lectionary – unpacking the texts for each Sunday’s worship service
- Faith and Community – looking at Love Letters of Faith from the likes of MLK, Dorothy Day, the Apostle Paul, and Reinhold Niebuhr
- Journeys & Scratch – combining their inter-generational forces to examine Prophetic Voices from MLK to Flannery O’Connor and the Belhar Confession.
- Women’s Spiritual Formation – a great support system of sharing and prayer for women
- Becoming an Anti-Racist Church – an eight-week course on themes of racism, diversity, white privilege and barriers to inclusivity led by FPC’s Racial Equity group.
- The Pleasures of Parenting – a time of discussion and support for parents who find raising children in today’s world to be an exciting and daunting task.

2) FPC’s 3rd – 6th grades will be trying out a new rotation model of Sunday School, which will allow them to experience the foundational stories of the Old Testament in many different ways through drama, art, games, legos, music, cooking, gardening, etc. Should be great fun for the students and for the teaching teams!

3) Confirmation - includes our 7th, 8th and 9th graders this year (plus several youth from Covenant Presbyterian who will be joining us). Each student will pick an adult mentor to make the journey with them. We will visit other communities of faith in the fall and learn how to be good guests. Then in the winter, we will spend some time in the classroom talking about what it means to be a Christian in the Reformed Tradition.

Young and old are invited to join us this Sunday, August 26, for some “windy” activities, some refreshments, lots of fellowship, and time to meet new teachers and classmates. Teacher/Advisor Dedication and a Blessing of Backpacks will take place during the 11:00 a.m. worship service this Sunday.

New classes begin in earnest on Sunday, September 2. The Christian Education Committee has been working hard to harness the winds of the Spirit and make great opportunities available for the whole people of God.

Grace and peace,
Marilyn Hedgpeth
