

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF DURHAM

"Downtown by history and by choice"

Bi-Weekly Newsletter

September 18 - October 1, 2018

From the Associate Pastor . . .

Dear Storm-Tossed Friends,

First, I want to thank all of you who sought shelter in worship at FPC on Sunday morning. It was great to hear the hubbub, and to see how delighted everyone was to be together, unharmed, in the house of the Lord. In addition, to be able to pray for our neighbors still smarting from the storm's sting, to sing Eternal Father Strong to Save in the midst of a hurricane, gave me chills. So thank you! And stay open to discern the ways in which we will be called to participate in the on-going hurricane recovery, day by day. (See Tyler Momsen-Hudson's letter in today's newsletter.)

This Sunday, September 23, we welcome two important guests to our church. First, we are delighted to have Homer Ashby back at FPC to lead the Faith and Community Class at 9:45 in a discussion of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Letter from a Birmingham Jail. Although it was written 45 years ago (April 16, 1963), many of its prophetic themes still ring true for us as Christians.

And secondly, we will be using excerpts of Dr. King's letter in Sunday's worship liturgy as we welcome members of Step-Up, Durham and their families who will be participating in the worship service. Step-Up, Durham is a non-profit organization supported by FPC which offers free work-force readiness training, connections to real jobs, and support to those who have been underemployed or unemployed for some time. For approximately 60% of the 312 graduates who have successfully completed the Step-Up Employment Readiness Workshop over the past three years, the major barrier to employment in their past has been a criminal background. Thus the impact of Dr. King's letter from jail still resounds with their experience, and with their desire to be restored to a rightful place in the community. Because one of Jesus' primary actions in all four Gospels was to restore people to community, I am a huge advocate for Step-Up, Durham. I look forward to introducing to you Syretta Hill, Director of Step-Up, Durham, along with her staff, and the program graduates this Sunday.

Please join me in offering hospitality to all refugees made temporarily homeless by the hurricane, as well as our guest presenters this Sunday. FPC is always good at being a place of hospitality and welcome.

Out of chaos, hope,
Marilyn

September 2 - October 7

Now may the Lord of peace . . . give you peace at all times in all ways.
— 2 Thessalonians 3:16

The Rev. Jimmie Hawkins, director of the PC(USA) Washington Office and former minister at Covenant Presbyterian Church here in Durham, confronts national issues of Peace and Justice daily.

On September 14 at a Prayer Vigil and Rally sponsored by Church World Service outside the White House, Jimmie spoke to the Administration's proposed plan to admit 25,000 or fewer refugees in 2019. Jimmie said: "As people of faith we understand that when the state won't speak, when the nation won't speak, that we will raise our voices to speak louder to say we stand with refugees from wherever they come." He continued: "There is a place in this country and our churches and in our homes for all people who have a need."

Thank you, Jimmie, for speaking so eloquently for us!

SUNDAY SCHOOL

(Click here to see full list of class offerings)

Children's Sunday School, Grades 3 - 6

We will be trying out a new rotation model of Sunday School, which will allow our 3rd – 6th graders opportunities to experience the foundational stories of the Old Testament in many different ways through drama, art, games, LEGOS, music, cooking, gardening, etc. Should be great fun for the students and for the teaching teams! We're up to our elbows in the Creation Story from Genesis this month. The class meets in room 201 of the CE Building at 9:45. And guess what story we get to explore in October? The Flood! Sunday School could not be more timely, could it? Bring friends and join us - 9:45 a.m. on the second floor of the education building!

*****

Adult Sunday School resumes this Sunday following the hiatus during Hurricane Florence. All 8 adult options for learning on Sunday morning will be offered this Sunday (Lord willing, and the creek don't rise!).

Adult Studies

Faith and Community Class: We're excited about the new series this September focusing on Love Letter of Faith by some of our favorite leaders. Sam Miglarese kicked-off the class, discussing the Apostle Paul's letter to the Romans, and Mac McCorkle followed on September 9 with some of Reinhold Niebuhr's letters expressing his faith. This Sunday, September 23, we are pleased to host Homer Ashby, who will lead a discussion of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Letter From a Birmingham Jail (link). Excerpts from Dr. King's letter will be used in the worship service on Sunday as well.

The art of letter-writing is not dead. Coming in October, Joe Harvard will lead a class on the paper, Reclaiming Jesus. Please join us in Watts-Hill Hall on Sunday at 9:45 a.m. All are welcome!

*****

Lectionary Class: Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

September 23: Is there a difference between wisdom and knowledge, or between wisdom and scholarship? How does a wise person act?

September 30: If God is in charge, what role do we have? Are there any situations in which, by our witness or our prayer or even a brave action like Esther's, we can have an important part to play? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

Journeys and Scratch Class: This hybrid class of seasoned and younger members is exploring Prophetic Voices this year. Join us in room 205 of the education building at 9:45. We will join the Faith and Community Class this Sunday, September 23, to hear Homer Ashby lead a discussion on Martin Luther King's Letter from a Birmingham Jail.

On September 30, will meet to discuss the Belhar Confession (a recent addition to the Presbyterian Church's confessions that is based on the South Africa experience), and on October 7, we will begin Brueggemann's "The Prophetic Imagination." Also in October, Joe Harvard is coming to Faith and Community to talk about the Reclaiming Jesus document and the Barmen Declaration and we will meet again with the Faith and Community Class.

*****

Spiritual Formation This year-round class for women is led by Susan Dunlap and explores the topic of spiritual formation. Join us at 9:45 in basement classroom B-16.

*****

Becoming an Anti-Racist Church – an eight-week course (was set to begin September 16) on themes of racism, diversity, white privilege and barriers to inclusivity led by FPC's Racial Equity Task Force. Class meets in the basement conference room below the sanctuary.

*****

The Pleasures of Parenting – a time of discussion and support for parents who find raising children in today's world to be an exciting and daunting task. The class will meet in the apartment classroom, upstairs in the church house at 9:45.

SCRATCH (Young Adults) "AfterChurch"

The Scratch/Young Adult group will meet on Sundays, September 23, October 7, 14, 28 following worship for AFTER CHURCH in the parlor room down under our sanctuary for a cheap ($3!) lunch, time to catch up with one another, and a bit of time to practice the old spiritual discipline of slow reading sacred texts (lectio divina). We do not stay more than 45 minutes once everyone is gathered. Please talk with our leaders Mary Berry, Alex Stayer-Brewington, and Rev. Cherrie Henry, if you have questions. Childcare available upon request. Anyone interested is welcome to join us.

Perhaps you have been visiting First Presbyterian Church for a while and want to know more about the theology, the mission, the polity and the shape of active membership at FPC. The opportunity to dig a little deeper and ask those pertinent questions is available during the month of September as we host a Membership Inquiry Class from 9:45 – 10:45 in the Wilson Parlor for those who are interested. On Sundays, September 23 and September 30 we will continue the Membership Inquiry Class from 9:45 – 10:45 in the Wilson Parlor for those who are interested. Leaders of these initial classes will be Sam Miglarese and David Smith. If you have babies or children in tow, you are welcome to bring them to Sunday School or the nursery, or you can keep them with you during the class. We hope you will meet some like-minded people, make new friends, and explore membership at FPC as part of the journey of your own (and your family's) Christian nurture and faith development. Hope to see you there!

for 7th, 8th, 9th graders and up

(plus youth from Covenant PC who will be joining us)

Well, unfortunately we missed our visit to Immaculate Conception this past Sunday, so we will have to reschedule it. This

Sunday, September 23, we have been invited to be the guest of Ar Razzaq Islamic Center, 1009 W. Chapel Hill Street, where Imam Greg Rashad will welcome us. Come to the FPC at 9:30 and we will carpool to the masjid together. We should return to FPC by 11:15. Mentors are always invited to join us. We should be back at FPC by 11:00, for those needing to be here for worship. Then on Friday, September 28, we are invited to attend Shabbat worship at Judea Reform. Stay tuned for details of that visit. Learning to be good guests is part of our agenda for the semester as we will visit 9 different faith communities in the Triangle. Then in the winter, we will spend some time in the classroom articulating what it means to be a Christian in the Reformed Tradition. Contact Marilyn Hedgpeth if you have any questions.

Youth Sunday School

Grades 9-12

Join us in the youth classroom, below the sanctuary at 9:45 on Sunday mornings.

Class leader: John Weicher, along with Emily Hansel, Sharron Johnson, Sarah Beaverson, Leah Graves (sub) and Leslie

New Bible Study: Isaiah

New Time: Fridays, Noon - 1:00 p.m.

What can we learn from the visions of the prophet Isaiah? Perhaps the people who walk in darkness will see a great light again! I attended a funeral not too long ago, and the person being memorialized was noted as saying that he insisted upon a little bit of Isaiah and a little bit of jazz every day. Thus my interest was piqued into delving into the longest of all the books in the Hebrew Bible: Isaiah. This year's study begins this Friday, September 21 at a new time: noon – 1 p.m. in room 205 of the Education Building, and is open to everyone. You are welcome to bring a bag lunch and eat while we are reading, discussing, and praying. We will be using the Kerygma Curriculum of Isaiah, and the Bible for our study. Contact Marilyn Hedgpeth (m.hedgpeth@firstpres-durham.org) if you have any questions.

Our First Parents Night Out – September 23

School has started, youth groups have begun, Sunday School is in full swing, and now its time for parents to get together for a little relaxation and conversation. The Christian Education Committee is sponsoring its first Parents' Night out this Sunday from 4:45 – 6:15 (yes, you get 15 extra minutes this year). Bring your children to the foyer at 4:45, and the children will spend time on the playground, enjoy a light meal together, and play some board games after supper. PLEASE BRING A BOARD GAME TO SHARE that is age-appropriate. And please let us know if your child has any food allergies. We are glad to offer this opportunity to our "holding families", many of whom have young children and youth here at the same time. And we hope this gives your group some time together to plan for future gatherings. Kim Abels will go with you to Bull City Burger to see what kinds of plans you might have. Please let Marilyn know if you have questions or concerns.

DayTimers' Luncheon

Tuesday, September 25 at 11:30 a.m.

Happenings around FPC

Responding to Hurricane Florence

Even as storm waters continue to rise, we can respond to Hurricane Florence.

First, pray for the victims, churches, and emergency workers affected by the disaster. Also pray for the rest of us as we find ways to respond. I am working with others in New Hope Presbytery to support churches and congregations in the recovery, which will span years. As Presbyterians, we will approach this effort with deliberation and care, but we also wish to respond quickly. Donations to Presbyterian Disaster Assistance will be most helpful and may be made online at <https://pma.pcusa.org/donate/make-a-gift/gift-info/DR000169/>.

FPC is also assembling Cleanup Buckets to assist homeowners trying to repair flooded homes. Please bring supplies from the list to church this Sunday, September 23, and volunteers will assemble the buckets on Sunday afternoon. Monetary donations will also help greatly, and checks to FPC, Memo: "Buckets," will allow us to fully stock the buckets.

The Day of Service(see details below) scheduled for October 6 will still occur, and it is possible that a FPC hurricane response can be organized by that time. If not, future volunteer work will be available.

Thank you for your response to this catastrophe in our own backyard.

Tyler Momsen-Hudson

Day of Service Saturday, October 6

FPC supports a number of ministries through its budget and through the work of individual members. The Service and Mission Committee is offering volunteer opportunities at several ministries on Saturday, October 6. Possible sites include the Foodbank of NC, Habitat for Humanity, Gleaning, Families Moving Forward and others. Volunteers of all ages will have opportunities to serve. Signup information, waiver forms, and other information will be available later this month. To suggest additional organizations or to help lead a worksite, please contact Tyler Momsen-Hudson at tylermmh@embarqmail.com.

Habitat Building Trip to Honduras

Here we go again! Miguel and Margaret Rubiera will be leading another 10-day building trip to Honduras with Habitat for Humanity from Feb 1 - 10, 2019. If you have been searching for a meaningful, challenging way to love and serve your (international) neighbor, learn about the culture and realities of life in Central America, then consider joining us. While there, we will provide tangible, hands-on help for our Honduran brothers and sisters, and develop wonderful relationships that transcend language and cultural barriers. All-inclusive cost of trip: $2,000. Contact Margaret at margaretmr29@gmail.com for more information.
