"Downtown by history and by choice"

FPC Bi-Weekly Newsletter

January 22 - February 4, 2019

From the Pastor/Head of Staff

Dear friends,

Grace and peace to you all this week. I can hardly believe we are this far into January! We have had a wonderful series of worship services to start this New Year, beginning with our Epiphany service that included the children's pageant, bells, and the Lord's Supper. The next week we celebrated Baptism of the Lord Sunday, affirming our confirmands with the gifts of red scarves knitted by our members and reminding them of God's grace for them through their baptisms. This past Sunday, we rejoiced in the abundance of God's love, as the abundance of good wine at the wedding of Cana. On Monday, we assembled soup mix (for Souper Bowl Sunday) and hosted the MLK Unity Rally with the Durham Children's Choir. What a month it already has been! Thanks to all our musicians, liturgists, volunteers, and staff members who have given so much to make these services powerful, meaningful, and transformational.

This coming Sunday in worship we welcome new members Diane Goff, Dustin Bass and Elizabeth Pritchett Bass and will baptize the Bass' daughter, Bennett Virginia. What joy! We also turn our hearts and minds to the beginning of Jesus' ministry in Galilee (Luke 4:14-21) when he quotes the prophet Isaiah, saying:

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." (Isaiah 61:1, 58:6, 61:2)

What else can we do, friends, but follow Jesus through loving our neighbors and working for peace, reconciliation, and justice in all the world? When the world hands us things we can't do anything about, remember this – this we can do. Thanks be to God.

See you Sunday.

With love,

Mindy

SPECIAL THANKS to all who continue to support the Walk-in Ministry with your donations of supplies and financial contributions. Our next call for supplies will be on Communion Sunday, February 3, 2019, but you may bring supplies anytime you come to the church. Make sure you label your donations "For Blessing Bags."

I want to thank you for the generous financial support you have provided. I would also like to thank you for any prayers that you have sent my way. I am deeply grateful for the people of FPC Durham. This gift will help me achieve my goal of becoming an ordained pastor in the Presbyterian Church USA. I miss worshipping with you all on a regular basis and hope to see each of you soon.

Grace and peace,

John Curran

Members of FPC,

Thank you for all the ways you supported our work in 2018. We received the generous gift of $4,000. Marilyn Hedgpeth serves on our board so I hope you know that we will be a good stewards of these funds.

Syretta Hill
StepUp Durham

To all the children of FPC,
I got the Christmas card you sent to me. It was very nice. I really love it! I am wishing you a happy new year. Be nice, good, and sweet; be safe and stay in school. Learn to be all you can be . . . . Study hard but stay in Bible study and school, and stay in church. Respect your elders, pray at night before you go to bed and in the morning for God waking you up. . . .

Paul McCombs

Congratulations . . .

- to Cheryl Barton Henry and Beth Brockman who have been awarded the Certificate in Spiritual Formation from Columbia Theological Seminary;
- to Margaret Eme, who has received a much-awaited green card.

Many thanks to all who came to our first MLK service project on Monday, to make packets of dried bean soup to distribute on Souper Bowl Sunday to solicit donations for the Food Bank of Central NC. We had a fabulous group of about 40 members and friends, adults, youth and children, who worked a pretty efficient assembly line of soup-making. Those who participated included: Noah, Rory, and Amy Dillon; Dot, Ruby, Katie and Walt Barron; Nora, Izzy, and Adrienne Allison-Pleasants and Bob Pleasants; George and Jo Bernhardt and granddaughter, Hannah; David, Vanessa and Laura Armstrong; Ayla, Abby, and Barbara Fish; Harold Dunlap; Graham and Brent Curtis; Eloise and Lucy House; Lucy and John Weicher; Jennie Belle; Cordie, Mattie, and Jeremy Ramont; Vern Neece; and friends to our members, Josh and Amanda Walters and their three daughters; Sandra; and Jeff and his two children (neighbors of the Barrons). We made 40 packets of soup in about 20 minutes. Wish I had bought more supplies, as we could have easily made 40 more. Next year! Thank you all!

Additional thanks to all who came to usher for the service on MLK Day, and to those who served lunch at Urban Ministries of Durham that day! It was great to see our congregation giving back to the community in the spirit of Dr. King.

Writers Needed!

FPC is journeying through Lent with a new guide this year – a Lenten devotional written entirely by FPC members and friends. Folks of all ages are encouraged to sign up to write one, based on one of a few assigned texts they'll be given. Read here for more information and a few examples. Be in touch with John Weicher if you are interested, j.weicher@firstpres-durham.org.

SUNDAY SCHOOL and other study opportunities

(Click here to see full list of class offerings)

Children's Sunday School (grades 3-6)

We have been trying out a new rotation model of Sunday School, which allows our 3rd – 6th graders opportunities to experience the foundational stories of the Old Testament in many different ways through drama, art, games, LEGOS, music, cooking, gardening, etc. It has been great fun for the students and for the teaching teams! January's story has been: The Exodus! The class meets in room 201 of the education building at 9:45. (Bring friends and join us!)

Adult "Faith & Community" -

As a continuation of our discussion of risks that Presbyterians must take for peace, on Sunday, January 27, members Bob and Sheila Breitweiser, and Mary Ann Compton will share their experience of making a pilgrimage to Montgomery, AL, with Dr. Tim Tyson to visit the new Lynching Memorial there in the heart of civil rights country. On February 3, we welcome our artist-in-residence, Hendrika Vande Kemp, who will explain how she creates the beautiful paper folded art that graces Watts-Hill Hall. She'll show us how to make a "valentine", since that comes up quickly on the calendar. The Faith and Community class meets at 9:45 in Watts-Hill Hall and all are welcome.

Adult Lectionary Class -

- For January 27: What makes the words of the Bible different from those of any other book? Is there some great power in the reading and hearing -- and understanding -- of God's word? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.
- For February 3: Some of the greatest figures in the Bible were called prophets. Does the prophetic call guarantee prestige and honor? Do prophetic powers bring security and success?

Adult Journeys & Scratch - We are reading and discussing the second part of Isaiah and will continue our exploration of the prophets during January. Eric Wiebe has introduced to the group a new translation of the Hebrew Bible by Biblical Scholar Robert Alter which attempts to keep the cadence and rhythm of the original language. All are welcome to join this class which meets at 9:45 in room 205 of the education building.

Women's Spiritual Formation - Susan Dunlap leads this class for women in the basement parlor at 9:45. This class is a great support system of sharing and prayer for women.

The Pleasures of Parenting – a time of discussion and support for parents who find raising children in today's world to be an exciting and daunting task. We are discussing "Angels" from The Thoughtful Christian. The class meets in the apartment classroom, upstairs in the church house at 9:45. Parents of any age are welcome.

Confirmation Class

the youth room. This Sunday, January 27, we will hear from our confirmands who traveled to Washington, DC last weekend to participate in the Women's March. And we'll talk about Bling! (Shunning Ostentation).

On February 3, we'll talk about Not the Boss of Me (Sovereignty of God). We'll watch our cartoon videos featuring Jerrod, and break up into small groups to talk, using our faith words. See you Sunday, friends!
