

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF DURHAM

"Downtown by history and by choice"

FPC Bi-Weekly Newsletter

June 11 - 24, 2019

From the Parish Associate:

A clergy friend recently told a group of us that every baptized Christian is called to sit in three chairs: the armchair, the circled chair, and the pew. By the armchair, she meant that solitary daily place where we contemplate and pray in the presence of God. By the circled chair she meant those weekly and monthly places where we sit in small circles face-to-face with other disciples of Christ to study, serve, and share our lives. By pew, she meant weekly worship where we gather on long benches to all face in the same direction in worship to God.

As Trinity Sunday nears when we contemplate the three-in-one, one-in-three mystery of our God, we see often will see portrayals of the Trinity as three Celtic knot interlocking circles. When I think of my friend's three chairs they seem to me to be like those overlapping Celtic Trinity circles. Each place we sit informs the other places. Taken together they dance a "holy chair dance" that sweeps us up into their orbit and makes us more complete. Each chair is important. No chair can be forgotten, just as no person of the Trinity can be forgotten. Every chair is interdependent and makes the others more satisfying places to sit.

This summer, I pray we will all hear the call of these three chairs. May the Spirit sound in our souls the call of those beautiful chairs to us. A call to be knitted together, inside and out, individually and as a community, into the saving wholeness God wants for us all.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your generous gift of $774.00.

Supporting the Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina is such a caring and compassionate way to bring comfort and relief to our neighbors in need. Every day throughout central and eastern North Carolina, we hear stories of mothers and father in struggling households who skip meals so their kids can eat. They hope their kids won't notice but kids notice everything. Parents go hungry and their children take on the burden of adult worry. But thanks to you, their burden is lighter today. Because of your generosity more families can sit down to a family dinner tonight where everyone has food on their plate. They can relax and stop worrying about their parents going hungry. They can go to sleep tonight with full stomachs and lighter hearts. . . . Thank you again for being a friend to the Food Bank - and to our neighbors in need.

Sincerely,
Peter Werbicki
President/CEO

NOTES

- Click here to read about those who are journeying with us this summer in worship leadership and pastoral care while Mindy is on sabbatical.
- The Great Big Church Family Festival (GBCFF), hosted by FPC on Sunday night was a huge success, thanks to the help of so many people. We had 96 people attend the event: 68 adults, 28 children, including our 15 Muslim guests from INCA Relief in Raleigh. Coming on Pentecost Sunday, there was a powerful spirit of openness that pervaded the activities, as friends from FPC joined with Trinity Avenue Presbyterian, Mt. Bethel Presbyterian and the Muslim community to spend an evening in fellowship together. It was a beautiful exhibition of “God so-loving the world” as we came together to share a meal, enjoy a fabulous story and skit about “who’s the greatest” from Mark 9:33-37, and to engage in service projects that benefit three missions to our community. The group made 250 lunches for Urban Ministries of Durham, and decorated lunch bags with messages of hope and encouragement; decorated baffles to hold insulation for Habitat for Humanity; and packed 10 buckets with cleaning supplies for hurricane relief to benefit Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. Beth Stringfield and Cris Rivera provided another beautiful and filling meal to keep everyone happy and healthy as they worked. Many thanks to the support team which helped welcome and host our guests for the evening: Michael Honeycutt, Jo and George Bernhardt, Celia Dickerson, Kerry Holbrook, Katharine Whitmore, Brent Curtis, Lenore Champion, Kim and Jon Abels, Eric Wiebe, Griffin and Tyler Momsen-Hudson, Delia Kwon, Marie Sappenfield, and Amy Dillon. And thanks to all the families and individuals who attended and shared neighbor-love with our guests! The next GBCFF will be on Sunday, July 7 at Mt. Bethel Presbyterian Church, from 5:30 – 7:30, where we will do mission projects that benefit our veterans. And the final one will be on Sunday, August 4 at Trinity Avenue Presbyterian Church.

- It was great to see FPC members at a community vigil to support Medicaid Expansion on Wednesday, June 5 in downtown Durham. Those who participated included Carl and Lisa Rist, Jane Wettach and Marilyn Hedgpeth. Covenant Presbyterian member Mary White, a very passionate advocate for Medicaid Expansion, spoke at the vigil.
- Housing for New Hope held its 2019 Annual Breakfast on Tuesday at the Cotton Room in Durham, and it was great to have FPC represented at that event. Terry Allebaugh was honored with a new Legacy Fund established in his name to prevent and combat homelessness in Durham. The breakfast was followed by a ribbon-cutting at the new Holloway Place (formerly Dove House), which has been refurbished to house seven female tenants. FPC is one of the sponsors for decorating one of the interior rooms in that house. Congratulations to Housing for New Hope for providing affordable housing in Durham.

FPC is accepting applications for the Associate Pastor for Youth and Their Families position

FPC's Associate Pastor Nominating Committee (APNC) has published a Ministry Information form (MIF) on the official Presbyterian job site and is now accepting applications. To recommend candidates for this position, please direct them to our MIF or share your thoughts with Kim Abels, APNC chair, by email.

The Annual Report Summary deadline has come and gone! Committee Chairs and program staff are asked to submit their annual report summary (by email) to Valerie in the church office as soon as possible. If you need help or more time to complete your summary, please let Valerie know. Thank you.

Sunday, June 30 – Myrtlefest

Join us at 11:00 a.m.

for an old-fashioned hymn sing

We need hymn suggestions! You are invited to submit the name of one or two of your favorite hymns, which we will include as part of a hymn sing in worship on June 30th. Favorite Hymns cards are available from the tables in the narthex and foyer through Sunday, June 16. On June 30, special music will be provided by world-renown, award-winning mandolin player, Tony Williamson. Following worship on June 30, we will fellowship over a picnic potluck lunch and enjoy more music by the mandolin player. A main meat and beverages will be provided by the church. Plan to bring a side dish or dessert to share. Come and enjoy this time of fellowship under our beautiful crepe myrtles!

SUMMER

Sunday School

Summer Sunday School is off and running for children, youth and adults. Children will meet upstairs in room 208 for Storypath, an exploration of some of the best new books in children's literature with theological implications for young and old alike. Shhhh....this week's book is Quiet. Crafts, snacks, reading and discussion will be led by Joe and Carlisle Harvard and Linda Dobson. In contrast, June 23rd's book, Horrible Bear! will be introduced by Josh and Amanda Waters. Children and youth are invited to follow the Storypath for the summer.

Summer Sunday School for Adults

The Faith and Community Class continues its discussion of Bryan Stevenson's book, Just Mercy, an honest and moving look at mass incarceration in America. Diane Standaert will return this Sunday, June 16, to address the spike in incarceration in North Carolina, and in Durham, particularly, and what might be done to address it. Beginning June 23, Jane Williams will lead a discussion of the introduction of the book, On Higher Ground. So keep reading ahead to better engage in the fascinating discussions. The class meets in Watts-Hill Hall at 9:45, and members and guests are all welcome. Click here for the class study schedule.

Adult Journeys/Scratch and The Thoughtful Christian classes are taking a break this summer.

Adult Lectionary Class -

The Lectionary Class continues to meet during the summer, to study the texts being used in worship each Sunday. This summer they are taking the challenge of stepping into Year D, and exploring some of the difficult texts in scripture omitted from the Revised Common Lectionary. If you're up to a challenge for the summer, please join them in the East Parlor at 9:45. David Smith, Tyler Momsen-Hudson, Robert Brawley and others lead that class.

For June 16: Jesus told his disciples that the world hated them, just as it hated him. Do we belong to the world, or to the church, the modern-day disciples of Jesus? Is it possible to belong to both? Join us for discussion at 9:45 in the East Parlor.

For June 23: Isaiah and the other prophets of ancient Israel saw God's hand in the affairs of the world: God punished the people through famine or military defeat; God restored the people through bountiful harvests or success in battle. Do we still see God acting in the modern world?

Women's Spiritual Formation Class -

at 9:45. This class is a great support system of sharing and prayer for women.

CHECK THIS OUT!

Religion and science are not in opposition on the issue of climate change. Science has a great deal to teach us about both the urgency to act and the solutions that are at hand. Our faith informs the actions that we take to care for Earth and all of its inhabitants. So how do people of faith and conscience seize the moral opportunity to lead on the most important issue of our time?

 TONIGHT  June 11 at 7:00 p.m.
Pullen Baptist Church located at 1801 Hillsborough Street
Raleigh, NC,

Rev. Susan Hendershot, president of Interfaith Power & Light, and Ken Kimmell, president of the Union of Concerned Scientists, will speak on the intersection of faith, science, and climate solutions. They will be joined by leaders from Interfaith Power & Light state affiliate, providing local context and opportunities for action.

1963. In quiet Lake Charles, Louisiana, the destruction of a Confederate statue might just signal that change is in the air... But, whatever the progress of the civil rights movement, in the Gellman household things seem just the same – for now at least. Eight year old Noah, heartbroken by the death of his mother and his father's remarriage, sneaks down to the basement to spend time with the maid he idolizes, Caroline Thibodeaux: Caroline who runs everything. The basement is a fantastical place - even the appliances sing! Features a virtuosic score by Jeanine Tesori (Shrek The Musical, Thoroughly Modern Millie, Fun Home).
