Good Christian friends, rejoice with heart and soul and voice;
give ye heed to what we say: Jesus Christ is born today;
ox and ass before him bow, and he is in the manger now.
Christ is born today! Christ is born today!

Good Christian friends, rejoice with heart and soul and voice;
now ye hear of endless bliss: Jesus Christ was born for this!
He has opened heaven’s door, and we are blest forevermore.
Christ was born for this! Christ was born for this!

CONFESSION OF SIN  Susan Dunlap
Call to Confession
Prayer of Confession (in unison)
Merciful God,
we confess that we have not lived as your faithful children.
We have kept silent in the midst of prejudice and hatred.
We have been idle in the face of violence and injustice.
We have not been a light to the nations
and our lives have not revealed your glory.
Forgive us, Merciful God.
Repair the ugliness of our sin and restore in us your beautiful grace;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH
(from A Declaration of Faith)
John Weicher

God sent the promised Deliverer to his people. Jesus, the long expected Savior, came into the world as a child, descended from David, conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of Mary, a virgin. He lived as a Jew among Jews. He announced to his people the coming of God’s kingdom of justice and peace on earth. We affirm that Jesus was born of woman as is every child, yet born of God’s power as was no other child. In the person and work of Jesus, God himself and a human life are united but not confused, distinguished but not separated. The coming of Jesus was itself the coming of God’s promised rule. Through his birth, life, death, and resurrection, he brings about the relationship between God and humanity that God always intended.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD’S PRAYER
Susan Dunlap

The Lord’s Prayer (in unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom
and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

HYMN No. 136
Go, Tell It On the Mountain Go Tell It

Refrain: Go, tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
Go, tell it on the mountain that Jesus Christ is born!

While shepherds kept their watching o’er silent flocks by night, behold, throughout the heavens there shone a holy light. (Refrain)

The shepherds feared and trembled when lo! above the earth rang out the angel chorus that hailed our Savior’s birth. (Refrain)

Down in a lowly manger the humble Christ was born, and God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn. (Refrain)

POSTLUDE
Interlude from “A Ceremony of Carols”

Jacquelyn Bartlett, harp

First Presbyterian Church welcomes all who worship with us. We honor and celebrate the human diversity and unity that God gives us in Christ. We welcome individuals of every age, race, nationality, gender, ability, sexual orientation, and economic circumstance to participate fully in the life of the church. On December 20, 125 households tuned in to the 11:00 a.m. live-streamed broadcast of worship.

The poinsettias in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and are a gift to the congregation from Arthur Clark.

Special thanks to Jacquelyn Bartlett (harpist), Caleb Conner (vocalist) and Gordon Campbell (bells) for their leadership with music for today’s worship.

Many thanks to Jody Maxwell, Pat Dillon, Keith Rokoske, and Jay Klinck for their “behind the scenes” technical assistance with our live broadcasts of worship each Sunday morning. Thanks to John Fricks who helped locate and edit sound files for the hymns. We are also grateful to Jennie Alwood for the powerful images accompanying our online worship services.

Portions of today’s worship text are taken from Feasting on the Word. Hymn texts and music are reprinted from Glory to God under Onelicense.net: A.713926.
