AFFIRMATION OF FAITH	(from Confession of 1969, 9.31)	Susan Dunlap
To be reconciled to God is to be sent into the world as God's reconciling community. This community, the church universal, is entrusted with God's message of reconciliation and shares God's labor of healing the enmities which separate people from God and from each other. Christ has called the church to this mission and given it the gift of the Holy Spirit. The church maintains continuity with the apostles and with Israel by faithful obedience to his call.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

The 2021 Annual McPherson Lectureship

Sunday, February 28 during the Faith & Community Class

9:30 – 10:45 a.m. - Join the class via this Zoom link

All adult Sunday School classes are invited to join this Zoom presentation and discussion.

About the Lecturer

Wallace McPherson Alston III, known to all as Macky, was a small boy when his father, Wallace Alston, served First Presbyterian Church as pastor from 1969 through 1974. Macky graduated from Columbia College in 1987, and has become well-known as a documentary film maker.

Macky's 1997 Family Name explores the mystery of a name that applied to both black and white families. Alston's quest to solve this genealogical mystery took him from New York to Alabama and then back to North Carolina. He sought clues at family reunions, graveyards, church services, and, eventually, the original Alston plantations. The people he met varied markedly in race, age, class and perspective, but they all had two things in common: the family name and a compelling story to tell. This documentary was awarded the Sundance Film Festival Freedom of Expression Award, the IFP Gotham Open Palm Award, the Bermuda International Film Festival Grand Jury Prize, and the North Carolina Film Festival Best Feature Award.

In 2009, Macky won the Documentary Special Jury Prize for an Agent of Change at the Sundance Film Festival for Love Free or Die. This film chronicles the struggles of New Hampshire's Bishop Gene Robinson, the first openly gay bishop in the global Anglican Church, as he sought acceptance in the face of worldwide controversy and death threats.

Macky explored life in prison in Hard Road Home, and the psychology of youth violence in The Killer Within, and reactions to human suffering in Questioning Faith: Confessions of a Seminarian. His current project, Acts of Reparation, is a collaboration with Selina Lewis Davidson, with whom he worked on Family Name. The two filmmakers, one black and one white, explore different ways communities and families, their own included, are engaging in conversations and activism to heal the effects of slavery and racism. Family Name, Love Free or Die, and Questioning Faith: Confessions of a Seminarian are available on Apple TV. There are links to these and other films on Macky's website.

In his presentation on February 28, Macky will guide us in a conversation about repairing historic harm in regard to slavery and the Native American genocide and their legacies that live in our political, social, and individual systems today. Macky is committed to acting in ways that establish equity and justice in this nation in the light of what many call its "original sins." In our shared conversation, Macky will tell stories of his own quest and the models for repair he has observed. He will then invite us as individuals and as a community to imagine our region and country healed and how we might act toward that end. As a part of the Lectureship, we have invited Macky to return for a follow-up engagement when it is safe for him to travel and us to gather.

FROM THE CREATION CARE COMMITTEE

Join the Creation Care Committee in a discussion of biodiversity: what it is, why it's important, and what humans have sometimes done in ignorance to disturb the balance of ecosystems and even cause extinction of species. Join us at our monthly Creation Care meeting, Thursday, March 11 at 7:00 p.m. (Zoom). All are welcome. For more information about the Creation Care Committee, check out our page from the church's website.

Growing thru Grief offers year-round support for those who are grieving the loss of a loved one. We meet each Tuesday from 4:00-6:00 p.m., on Zoom. Those who attend need to have both audio and video available. Each meeting begins with a short presentation about a part of the grief journey, and then we break into small groups for sharing and conversation. The topic and speaker for February 23 is "What Is the Condition of Our Hearts: How Do We Heal?" led by Mike McCleod. To register for this Zoom session, please contact admin@growingthrugrief.org by 8:00 a.m. on the Monday before the meeting.

SHARING God's LOVE THROUGH HELPING THOSE IN NEED!

Support the Day School using Amazon Wish List

Like so many other organizations in our community, the First Presbyterian Day School has been seriously impacted by the pandemic, and was forced to close in mid-March 2020. After reopening at the end of June to meet the needs of children of essential workers, the Day School has seen its enrollment remain at around 25, or half of normal capacity. Through heroic efforts by the faculty and staff, the school has not experienced any cases of COVID-19, has maintained its 5-Star status, and has kept all faculty and staff on board. At her presentation to the Service and Mission Committee earlier this month, Executive Director Michele Miller-Cox noted that the school is doing well and providing a vital service to the community, but it has a need for supplies that are beyond its current capacity to purchase.

Rather than asking for donations of supplies, the Day School has set up an Amazon site that lists the supplies needed. Those wishing to contribute can go to the site, purchase items of your choosing, and the supplies will be sent directly to the school. Request a Monday or Friday delivery. The link is https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/2QNXF2NAUV1TB?ref=wl\_share. Thank you for your support.
