CALL TO WORSHIP
Leader: God calls us to worship today.
Come with all the places you’ve traveled,
People: and we will use these to serve God.
Leader: Come with all your relationships,
People: and we will use these to serve God.
Leader: Come with all your experiences,
People: and we will use these to serve God.
Leader: Come with all your interests and passions,
People: and we will use these to serve God.
Leader: Come with all your curiosity, questions, and doubts,
People: and we will use these to serve God.
Leader: God calls us to worship today.
People: Come and let us worship God.

HYMN NO. 394 (verses 1-2)
Christ Is Made the Sure Foundation
Sung to Regent Square
Griffin Momsen-Hudson, cantor

Christ is made the sure foundation,
Christ the head and cornerstone,
chosen of the Lord and precious,
binding all the church in one;
holy Zion’s help forever,
and our confidence alone.

To this temple, where we call you,
come, O Lord of hosts, and stay;
come, with all your loving-kindness;
hear your people as we pray,
and your fullest benediction
shed within these walls today.
CONFESSION OF SIN

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Dear God, we have strayed from our faith.
We want to keep our comfortable lives
and that causes us to clutch onto the wrong dream.
We lose sight of the right path
and instead, we choose the easy one.
We do this because we want to avoid the challenges and hurdles of life.
Sometimes, we care too much about material money and material possessions, and we don’t care enough about your world and your people.
We get lost in small problems and overlook you.
Forgive us.

Silent Confession

Declaration of Forgiveness

Response (Hymn No. 394, verses 3-4) Sung to Regent Square

Here bestow on all your servants
what they seek from you to gain;
what they gain from you, forever
with the blessed to retain;
and hereafter in your glory
evermore with you to reign.

Laud and honor to the Father,
laud and honor to the Son,
laud and honor to the Spirit,
ever three and ever one:
one in might and one in glory
while unending ages run!

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Leader: The Lord be with you.
All: And also with you.
Leader: Let us pray.
All: O Marvelous and Holy God,
Please illuminate these words.
As you make this new day,
please help us understand what you are building up.
Take us and guide us,
turning these passages into building blocks for our understanding.
Help us see your light in these scriptures,
so that we will rejoice and be glad,
giving thanks to you. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom
and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

HYMN NO. 729 (verses 1, 4) Lord, I Want to Be a Christian

African-American Spiritual

Lord, I want to be a Christian in my heart, in my heart;
Lord, I want to be a Christian in my heart.
In my heart, in my heart,
Lord, I want to be a Christian in my heart.

Lord, I want to be like Jesus in my heart, in my heart;
Lord, I want to be like Jesus in my heart.
In my heart, in my heart,
Lord, I want to be like Jesus in my heart.

POSTLUDE My Faith Has Found a Resting Place

Marty Parks

Aiden James, piano

First Presbyterian Church welcomes all who worship with us. We honor and celebrate the human diversity and unity that God gives us in Christ. We welcome individuals of every age, race, nationality, gender, ability, sexual orientation, and economic circumstance to participate fully in the life of the church. On February 21, 100 households tuned in to the 11:00 a.m. live-streamed broadcast of worship.

Today’s worship flowers are given to the glory of God and in memory of David Rimmer by Martha & Steve Rimmer (David’s parents) and Lyn & John Williams (David’s sister and brother-in-law).

Many thanks to John Fricks, Jody Maxwell, Pat Dillon, Keith Rokoske, and Jay Klinck, for their “behind the scenes” technical assistance with our live broadcasts of worship on Sunday mornings. We are also grateful to Eleanor Cole for the images accompanying today’s online services.

The Hunger for Change Offering is received on the fourth Sunday of each month. These funds are sent to the Presbytery of New Hope to combat hunger locally. The Presbytery disperses the funds to hunger relief programs based on a grant application process. Urban Ministries of Durham, Presbyterian Urban Ministries, and Iglesia Emanuel are frequent recipients. In 2019 FPC’s Walk-in Ministry received a grant from the Presbytery which was used to purchase blessing bag supplies. Thank you for your offering which combats hunger in our community.
All of today’s worship texts are written by the youth of our church. Hymn texts and music are reprinted from Glory to God under Onelicense.net: A.713926.

Interested in becoming a Liturgist?

Steve Rimmer and Cris Rivera are leading two introductory interest meetings for those interested in participating in worship as liturgists. We’d love to see new faces in online worship (and, one day, at the lectern) so newcomers are always welcome! It’s not just about being a good reader. It’s about helping your fellow congregants engage with prayer and lectionary texts in a way that is integral to worship. Join us on Zoom either Tuesday, March 2 at 7:00 p.m. or Sunday, March 7 at 2:00 p.m. Please RSVP to Cris (mcrisrivera@gmail.com). Use this Zoom Link to access the meeting: https://us02web.zoom.us/j/86016357525.

HAPPY 150th BIRTHDAY, FPC!

Well, not quite yet, but soon! December 31, 2021 to be exact!

This is a BIG DEAL and we want to celebrate appropriately!

We are looking for a FEW GOOD PEOPLE to help us celebrate this milestone in our lives. If you are a good event planner, if you love history, and if you are looking forward to gathering in person together, we invite you to join our CELEBRATION TEAM. Be a part of something that happens only once every 150 years! We need you! Contact Mindy Douglas to join the team.

Flowers for Worship

Flower donors are needed for Sundays this spring and summer. If you would like to donate flowers for worship, you can sign up by going to the church's website and clicking "Flowers for Worship" from the home page. No internet access? Contact the church office (919-682-5511) for instructions on how to donate flowers.

~ Our Concerns ~

Condolences: The love and concern of the congregation are extended to Will McDow and family on the death of his uncle, Dan Rambo, who died this week from COVID-19.

Concerns:

- Dewey Lawson is recovering at Hillcrest Convalescent Center following a brief hospital stay.
- Pat Turner, grandmother of Matthew Eggleston, and Jill Turner, Matthew’s aunt, are both battling COVID-19. Matthew’s parents, Drake and Emily Eggleston, have almost recovered from COVID-19. They are no longer contagious but still haven’t regained their full strength.

FROM THE CREATION CARE COMMITTEE

Join the Creation Care Committee in a discussion of biodiversity: what it is, why it’s important, and what humans have sometimes done in ignorance to disturb the balance of ecosystems and even cause extinction of species. Join us at our monthly Creation Care meeting, Thursday, March 11 at 7:00 p.m. (Zoom). All are welcome. For more information about the Creation Care Committee, check out our page from the church’s website.

Support the Day School using Amazon Wish List

Like so many other organizations in our community, the First Presbyterian Day School has been seriously impacted by the pandemic, and was forced to close in mid-March 2020. After reopening at the end of June to meet the needs of children of essential workers, the Day School has seen its enrollment remain at around 25, or half of normal capacity. Through heroic efforts by the faculty and staff, the school has not experienced any cases of COVID-19, has maintained its 5-Star status, and has kept all faculty and staff on board. The school is doing well and providing a vital service to the community, but it has a need for supplies that are beyond its current capacity to purchase. Rather than asking for donations of supplies, the Day School has set up an Amazon site that lists the supplies needed. Those wishing to contribute can go to the site, purchase items of your choosing, and the supplies will be sent directly to the school. Request a Monday or Friday delivery. The link is https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/2QNXF2NAUV1TB?ref_=wl_share.

Thank you for your support.
Iglesia Emanuel still needs our support . . .

1. Bag rice or beans from home. For instructions and to sign up, contact Margaret Rubiera. Put on music, sing, and have fun while you fill those bags!

2. To help in person at Iglesia Emanuel, grab your trusty mask, and come join others in a safe environment to help organize donated food, fill bags and boxes in preparation for the Wednesday food pantry. You will work hard but leave after your 2-hour shift knowing you have made a big difference in the lives of many families. For more information, and to sign up, click here: Iglesia Emanuel COVID-19 Food Bank Signup Genius

3. Your financial support is always welcome, and will help us purchase more food. Online: emanueldurham.org, or mail your check to Iglesia Presbiteriana Emanuel, 2504 N Roxboro Street, Durham NC 27704.

Thank you so much for the 150 boxes of cereal donated to Iglesia Emanuel collected at the Lenten Drive-Thru on February 21. What a tremendous blessing! - Margaret and Miguel Rubiera
