CONFESSION OF SIN
Call to Confession
Prayer of Confession (in unison)
Almighty God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, we have been united with you in resurrection hope through the waters of baptism.
Sadly, though, we have not lived as Easter people.
We are unsure of your promise and afraid in the face of danger.
Call us by name, risen Lord, that we may know you with confidence.
Whenever we are tempted to fear death,
give us courage to confess your Easter victory.
When life brings challenges we feel we cannot face, give us strength to stand before them.
When we are overwhelmed by powerful forces of destruction in our midst, reveal to us again your cosmic victory and surround us with hope.
We need you.
Forgive us.
Bring us close.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (in unison)  (from A Declaration of Faith)  Susan Dunlap
  We declare that Jesus is Lord.
  His resurrection is a decisive victory over the powers that deform and destroy human life.
  His lordship is hidden.
  The world appears to be dominated by people and systems that do not acknowledge his rule.
  But his lordship is real.
  It demands our loyalty and sets us free from the fear of all lesser lords who threaten us.
  We maintain that ultimate sovereignty now belongs to Jesus Christ in every sphere of life.
  Jesus is Lord!
  He has been Lord from the beginning.
  He will be Lord at the end.
  Even now he is Lord.

A TIME WITH THE CHILDREN  Mitzi Lesher-Thomas

INVITATION TO THE LORD’S TABLE  Mindy Douglas

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING  Mindy Douglas, Mitzi Lesher-Thomas
  Leader:  The Lord be with you.
  All:  And also with you.
Leader: Lift up your hearts.
All: We lift them to the Lord.
Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Leader: In every time and every age, O God,
it is good and faithful that we give you thanks, for your mercy is sure and your steadfast love endures forever.
In your compassion you gave us Christ Jesus, who sets us free from death and leads us to life eternal.
And so,
with all creation,
with all the needy and hungry ones, with all those who have enough and plenty,
with creatures large and small, with sun and moon and stars, and with the saints of every age, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

All (sung): Sanctus Hymn No. 572

Leader: Blessed are you, O God, creator of all things.
By your power and love you continue to deliver your people from bondage, thwart the designs of evil, show the way through the wilderness, turn hardship into righteousness, and reveal your hand upholding the just.
Blessed are you, O Christ, servant of the universe.
You came among us to feed and heal and teach,
to confound the haughty,
to confuse the deceivers, to challenge the wrong-hearted, and, in all these things, to give hope to those who long for peace. Remembering our Lord’s self-giving love, we proclaim the mystery of the faith:

All (sung): Hymn No. 573

Leader: Blessed are you, O Spirit, giver of life. You give us words when we have none; you fill us with vision when we have the most need; you give us voice to proclaim our faith in every hour. Be our guide and teacher, today and always.

Come now, O Prince of Peace, Spirit of Love, Breath of Life. Bring to all this hurting world the joy that Mary knew, and teach us to proclaim with her, “I have seen the Lord!” In the unity of the Holy Trinity, in gratitude for this great day of resurrection, we praise you, God of all that is, now and forever. Amen.

Hymn No. 238 Thine Is the Glory

Judas Maccabeus

Thine is the glory, risen, conquering Son; endless is the victory thou o’er death hast won.

Angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away, kept the folded grave-clothes where thy body lay.

Refrain: Thine is the glory, risen, conquering Son; endless is the victory thou o’er death hast won.
Lo! Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb;
lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom.
Let the church with gladness hymns of triumph sing, for the Lord now liveth; death hath lost its sting. (Refrain)

No more we doubt thee, glorious Prince of life!
Life is naught without thee; aid us in our strife.
Make us more than conquerors through thy deathless love;
bring us safe through Jordan to thy home above. (Refrain)

CLOSING PRAYER  Mindy Douglas
Leader:  The Lord be with you.
All:  And also with you.
Leader:  Let us pray.
All:  Everlasting God, in whom we live and move and have our being:
You have made us for yourself, so that our hearts are restless until they rest in you. Give us purity of heart and strength of purpose, that no selfish passion may hinder us from knowing your will, no weakness keep us from doing it; that in your light we may see light clearly and in your service find perfect freedom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with

BENEDICTION  Mindy Douglas

POSTLUDE  Prelude in a minor  J.S. Bach

First Presbyterian Church welcomes all who worship with us. We honor and celebrate the human diversity and unity that God gives us in Christ. We welcome individuals of every age, race, nationality, gender, ability, sexual orientation, and economic circumstance to participate fully in the life of the church. On March 28, 95 households tuned in to the 11:00 a.m. streamed broadcast of worship.

THANKS to all who provided the majestic Easter lilies, presenting them as a glorious symbol of the Easter message, in memory or in honor of special ones. We are grateful to Jean Wilson, Phyllis Verhey, and Alice Raney for arranging for their delivery and placement in the sanctuary. Lilies not claimed by a donor will be delivered to our homebound by members of the Diaconate.

Our Paschal Candle and stained Red Oak Stand, crafted by Marklin Candle Design of Contoocook, New Hampshire and given in memory of Elder Ed Kwon, was originally dedicated on April 30, 2017. This candle stands as a visible sign of God’s enduring presence in our beautiful century-old sanctuary. Rooted in Passover (Pesach) and adopted by early Christians, the lit Candle represents the Risen Christ’s triumph over darkness and death, his resurrection, to become the Light of the World. The beeswax candle is inscribed with a Cross, an alpha and omega, symbols attesting to Christ’s presence among us now and always. Traditionally, the Candle, reminding us that we are preeminently an Easter People, is lit during worship services throughout the fifty days of Eastertide from Easter to Pentecost, as well as at Baptisms where it signifies that we are crucified and resurrected with Christ, and at funerals and memorial services where it visually proclaims Paul’s message in Romans 6: 3-4 that “all of us who have been baptized into Jesus Christ ... have been buried with him ... into death, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead ..., so we too might walk in newness of life.”

Portions of today’s worship texts were taken from Book of Common Worship (2018). Music printed under OneLicense.net: A.713926.

Music Notes:

- We are grateful to Kent Foss (trumpet) and Gordon Campbell (organ) for sharing their musical gifts with us this Easter morn.
- A Frenchman, Alexandre Guilmant (1837 - 1911), was a highly regarded composer and one of the most famous organists of his time. His grand “March” is based on the melody from Handel’s setting of the text from Psalm 24:7, “Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in” as part of his Messiah.
- The reference to the gates has a triple interpretation for Christians. The psalmist is envisioning the Temple as having been rebuilt with the grand doors thrown open for the Lord to enter. The gates are also representations of the gates of Heaven, opening to receive Christ as he ascends to sit with the Father. For Christians, the gates additionally make reference to our opening of ourselves, through the Grace of the Holy Spirit, to receive Christ into our lives, as we are the Church and welcoming our Lord into God’s new creation thereby to give us new life.
- Marc-Antoine Charpentier composed his “Te Deum” in D Major, for soloists, chorus and orchestra, at the end of the seventeenth century. It is best known for the glorious “Prelude,” which has been transcribed for trumpet and organ. The “Te Deum” is a hymn of praise and affirmation of faith from the fourth century or earlier that is used by many as part of their daily prayers. The text, as found in the “Book of Common Prayer,” is worthy of frequent repetition by each of us:

  We praise thee, O God; we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
  All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting.
  To thee all Angels cry aloud; the Heavens, and all the Powers therein;
  to thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth; heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of thy glory.
  The glorious company of the Apostles praise thee.
  The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise thee.
  The noble army of Martyrs praise thee.
  The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee;
  the Father of an infinite Majesty;
  thine adorable, true and only Son;
  also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.
  Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ.
  Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
  When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man,
  thou didst humble thyself to be born of a Virgin.
  When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
  thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
  Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants, whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy Saints, in glory everlasting.
O LORD, save thy people, and bless thine heritage.
Govern them and lift them up for ever.
Day by day we magnify thee;
and we worship thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let thy mercy be upon us, as our trust is in thee.
O Lord, in thee have I trusted; let me never be confounded.

Multiplying the Blessings

At the Iglesia Emanuel Food Pantry, we see miracles every week. We prepare for 550 families. 590 families show up, and there is enough food for all. Most people come by car. They line up well before the 2 o’clock start time on Wednesday afternoon, waiting patiently for blocks and blocks in the neighborhood behind the church. Many families have 3 or 4 children in the car, and their excited faces tell us how much they look forward to discovering what food awaits them. A few people come by foot. They either live close enough to walk, carrying the heavy bags of food back home with them, or they come by bus.

Come, be part of the miracle at 2504 N. Roxboro. Join other volunteers for a 2-hour shift, bag rice and beans from home, donate food, or give a financial donation. Together, we will continue to spread God’s love throughout our community in this most tangible way.
