ANTHEM

The Road Home
Lesley Curtis, soloist

Stephen Paulus

*Tell me where is the road I can call my own,
That I left, that I lost, so long ago?
All these years I have wandered,
Oh when will I know there's a way,
there's a road that will lead me home?
After wind, after rain, when the dark is done,
As I wake from a dream in the gold of day,
through the air there's a calling
From far away,
there's a voice I can hear that will lead me home.
Rise up, follow me, come away is the call,
With love in your heart as the only song;
there is no such beauty as where you belong,
Rise up, follow me, I will lead you home.*

We believe that God wishes to bring about justice and true peace among people;

 that God, in a world full of injustice and enmity,
 is in a special way the God of the destitute, the poor and the wronged;
 that God calls the church to follow in this;
 for God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry;
 that God frees the prisoner and restores sight to the blind;
 that God supports the downtrodden, protects the stranger,
 helps orphans and widows and blocks the path of the ungodly;
 that God wishes to teach the church to do what is good and to seek the right;
 that the church must therefore stand by people in any form of suffering and need,
 which implies, among other things,
 that the church must witness against and strive against any form of injustice,
 so that justice may roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream;
 that the church as the possession of God must stand where the Lord stands,
 namely against injustice and with the wronged;
 that in following Christ the church must witness against all the powerful and privileged who selfishly seek their own interests and thus control and harm others.

Jesus is Lord. To the one and only God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be the honor and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The McPherson Lectureship continues . . .

4:00-4:30 p.m. (FPC courtyard) Social with light refreshments

4:30-6:00 p.m. (FPC sanctuary) Community Conversation:

"Working Towards a Racially Repaired World"

Macky will be joined by Vanessa Hawkins (New Hope Presbytery Transitional Executive Presbyter) and Alonzo Johnson (Coordinator of the Self-Development of People for the Presbyterian Church USA) and engage First Presbyterian and the congregation of Covenant Presbyterian (Durham) in considering what it means to work towards a racially repaired world.

Welcome! Let us know you have joined us for worship by scanning this QR code.

First Presbyterian Church welcomes all who worship with us. We honor and celebrate the human diversity and unity that God gives us in Christ. We welcome individuals of every age, race, nationality, gender identity, ability, sexual orientation, and economic circumstance to participate fully in the life of the church. On March 20, 123 joined us for in-person worship and 30 households watched the live-streamed broadcast.

We welcome to the pulpit today, Wallace McPherson Alston III, our 2022 McPherson Lecturer. Known to all as Macky, he was a small boy when his father, Wallace Alston, served First Presbyterian Church as pastor from 1969 through 1974. Macky graduated from Columbia College in 1987 and has become well-known as a documentary filmmaker.

Throughout Lent, members of our Confirmation Class are serving as liturgists. This week, we welcome Lorenzo Mbugua to the lectern. This new feature of the confirmation experience gives our confirmands a chance to be a leader in this way and gives our congregation the chance to see who they are.

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Dr. and Mrs. S. D. McPherson, Sr. and Dr. and Mrs. Samuel D. McPherson, Jr. by the family.

We thank Kent Foss and Lesley Curtis for sharing their musical gifts with us this morning.

Hearing Assistance Receivers are available for use during worship from the audio console located at the rear of the sanctuary. Before you leave the sanctuary, please turn off the receiver and place it in the specially marked receptacle or return to an usher.

The Pulpit Paraments: In 2012 First Presbyterian Church commissioned Laurie Wohl to design and create paraments to be hung from the pulpit and lectern during Lent and Advent. Wohl is an internationally known fiber artist who exhibited her work at the church in spring of 2012. Her liturgical projects emphasize the "threads that bind" and the unity of the Old and New Testaments. We are grateful that the bequest of Anne 'St. Clair' Williams made it possible to enhance our sanctuary with these beautiful works of art.

The Lenten Banner was completed in 1990 and dedicated in 1991. It depicts traditional Lenten symbols. The banner was made possible by funds donated in memory of Bess Bryant and by the stitching of many devoted members of this congregation.

Portions of today's worship texts were reprinted from Book of Common Worship (1993) and Iona Abbey Worship: The Iona Community. Music is reprinted under OneLicense.net: A.713926.

Many thanks to John Fricks, Jody Maxwell, and Keith Rokoske for their technical assistance with our live broadcasts of worship on Sunday mornings.

Restrooms are in the narthex (to the left and right as you exit the rear of the sanctuary), on the second floor of the education building, and on the first and second floors of the church house.

Childcare: A staffed nursery and children's playroom are available on the second floor of the education building during worship.

Large print worship bulletins are available from the table as you enter the sanctuary.

Worship activity bags are available in the foyer for children to use during worship.

Chancel Choir: If you are interested in becoming part of the choir, please speak to Kathy Parkins after worship or email her at k.parkins@firstpres-durham.org.

These Days devotional books for the spring quarter (April-June 2022) have arrived. Copies in regular print are available from the table in the church foyer while supplies last.

Coordinator and Office Volunteers Needed

As mask mandates are lifted, we would like to allow support groups (Al-ANON, Overeaters Anonymous and AA) to return meeting at the church during the week. We need morning office volunteers to be present at the church to allow these folks into the building and to answer the telephone. We are also in need of someone to coordinate this pool of volunteers. Please contact Valerie in the church office (919-682-5511) if you would like to serve a morning shift, Monday – Friday, 9:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. or the Friday afternoon shift, 1:00-4:30 p.m. Orientation to duties is available. Serving as an office volunteer is not the same as serving in the Walk-in Ministry.

New Members Sunday

On Sundays, April 3rd and 10th, as part of our service of worship, we'll be welcoming new members into the life and ministry of FPC. If you've been thinking about membership but wanted the comfort of 'making it official' at the same time as others, we invite you to contact pastor Mindy Douglas or associate pastor Mitzi Lesher-Thomas to learn more about membership and how to join FPC.

Attention: New Member, ANY Member!

Come Learn About FPC Mission and Ministries

No matter how long you've been hanging around FPC if you're curious about the numerous mission efforts, ministry areas, faith formation opportunities and how to connect to one or all join us on Sunday, April 3rd 9:45 - 10:45 in Room 205 (upstairs in the education building, end of the hallway) for an opportunity to meet key organizers and discern where you might be called to connect!

Flower Donation Opportunities Available

There are open dates for worship flower donors during the next few months. To sign up, click here, or on the flowers link in the bi-weekly newsletter, or on the link on the homepage of the FPC web site.

About the McPherson Lectureship

The McPherson Lectureship is dedicated to enriching the faith and life of First Presbyterian Church and the Durham community. Inaugurated in the year 1999, the Lectureship is made possible through an endowment given by the McPherson family in memory of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel D. McPherson, Sr. and Dr. and Mrs. Samuel D. McPherson, Jr.

Former lecturers have been:

- John Kuykendall (1999)
- J. Barrie Shepherd (2001)

- Joanna Adams (2004)
- Charles Kimball (2005)
- Nicholas Wolterstorff (2006)
- Joseph L. Roberts, Jr. (2007)
- Richard A. Lischer (2008)
- Stephen A. Hayner (2009)
- Barbara Brown Taylor (2010)
- Leighton Ford (2011)

- Macky Alston (2021, 2022).

The invited lecturers for 2020 were husband-wife team Catherine Barsotti and Robert K. Johnston. THE HUNGER FOR CHANGE OFFERING Hunger has become more prevalent, particularly since the recession. First Presbyterian Church of Durham has a long history of involvement in hunger-related mission, most notably Pennies for Hunger (now Hunger for Change) and the Durham CROP Walk. In addition, we coordinate volunteers for the Community Kitchen at Urban Ministries of Durham, collect food for the members at Iglesia Emanuel Presbyterian Fellowship, and the Food Bank of Central and Eastern NC. Our youth sponsor the annual Souper Bowl of Caring to raise money for hunger-related missions. We also encourage giving to the One Great Hour of Sharing Hunger Offering on Easter Sunday which funds mission activities related to disaster assistance and hunger programs locally and around the world.

The funds received from our Hunger for Change Offering go to the New Hope Presbytery for the Presbyterian Hunger Relief Program and are divided as follows:

- 50% - International Hunger Relief Programs
- 40% - Local Hunger Programs
- 10% - Administration.

These funds are dispersed through local grants to hunger relief programs based on a grant application process. Urban Ministries of Durham, Presbyterian Urban Ministries and Iglesia Emanuel have been frequent recipients.

If your family committed to saving a penny/day each month, you'd be donating about $0.30 per month or $3.65 for the entire year. That's not much in the face of the rising need. Save a nickel/day, and you can contribute $1.50 per month. A dime/day will generate $3.00 and a quarter/a day will generate $7.50 per month.

The fourth Sunday of each month is designated to receive the Hunger for Change Offering. Please consider supporting this hunger relief effort with a generous offering each month.

Thank you for your offering today!
