"This is the gateway of the Lord, the just may now come in."*

The stone the builders cast aside is now the cornerstone.*

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

(From A Declaration of Faith)

John Weicher

We declare that Jesus is Lord. His resurrection is a decisive victory over the powers that deform and destroy human life. His lordship is hidden. The world appears to be dominated by people and systems that do not acknowledge his rule. But his lordship is real. It demands our loyalty and sets us free from the fear of all lesser lords who threaten us. We maintain that ultimate sovereignty now belongs to Jesus Christ in every sphere of life. Jesus is Lord! He has been Lord from the beginning. He will be Lord at the end. Even now he is Lord.

Offertory Anthem

The Day of Resurrection

Ellacombe

arr. Evelyn Larter

*The day of resurrection! Earth, tell it out abroad;
The Passover of gladness, the Passover of God.
From death to life eternal, from earth unto the sky,
Our Christ has brought us over, with hymns of victory.*

*Our hearts be pure from evil, that we may see aright
the Lord in rays eternal of resurrection light;
And listening to his accents, may hear so calm and plain,
His own "All hail!" and, hearing, may raise the victor strain.*

*Now let the heavens be joyful! Let earth the song begin!
Let the round world keep triumph, and all that is therein!
Let all things seen and unseen their notes in gladness blend, for Christ the Lord has risen, our joy that has no end. Amen.*

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Mindy Douglas and Mitzi Leshner-Thomas

Leader: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Leader: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Leader: Thanks and praise fill our hearts, Almighty God, for you are the Lord of creation and new covenant. You brought your people out of slavery to freedom, and you brought your Son from the depth of death to the glory of resurrection life. And so, we gladly thank you, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven, singing the hymn of unending praise:

All (sung):

Sanctus

Hymn No. 572

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Leader: Joy and gladness are our song, redeeming God, for in your conquest of death we see the destiny of every hope in you. Come among us in the power of your Holy Spirit, that your children may be blessed with power and grace, and that this bread and cup may become for us the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ; who, at supper with his disciples, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup. Again, he gave you thanks, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." Great is the mystery of faith.

All (sung):

Hymn No. 573

Christ has died; Christ is ris - en; Christ will come a - gain.

Leader: Hope and glory are our breath, merciful God, for you have rolled away the stones of despair, oppression, lament, grief, death, sin, and fear. Come and stand among us and breathe on us your peace, that all who labor, all who stumble, all who hunger and thirst shall meet you in the breaking of the bread. Shape your church to be your risen body.

All (sung):

Hymn No. 574

A - men, a - men, a - men.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (in unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

THE SHARING OF THE BREAD AND CUP

(All the bread is gluten free. The elements were prepared in a gluten-free area.

You will be directed to come forward to receive the bread, then the cup.

Please return to your seat after receiving the elements.

Empty cups may be placed in the holders in the pews.)

Hymn No. 240 (Choir and congregation) Alleluia, Alleluia! Give Thanks

Alleluia No. 1

*PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Mitzi Leshner-Thomas

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All: Eternal God, we praise you that your glory has dawned on us and brought us into this Day of Resurrection. We rejoice that the grave could not hold your Son and that he has conquered death and has risen to rule over all powers of this earth. We praise you that he summons us into new life, to follow him with joy and gladness. By your Spirit, lift us from doubt and despair, and set our feet in Christ's holy way, that our lives may be signs of his life, and all we have may show forth his love. Praise, glory, and thanksgiving to you, our God, forever and ever. Amen.

First Presbyterian Church welcomes all who worship here. We honor and celebrate the human diversity and unity that God gives us in Christ. We welcome individuals of every age, race, nationality, gender, ability, sexual orientation, and economic circumstance to participate fully in the life of the church. So that we may better know each other, please sign the Ritual of Friendship pad, pass it along the center pew across to the shorter side pew, and then return it to the starting point, noting the names of those sitting near you. On April 10, 149 joined us for in-person worship and 27 households watched the live-streamed broadcast.

THANKS to all who provided the majestic Easter lilies, presenting them as a glorious symbol of the Easter message, in memory or in honor of special ones. We are grateful to Jean Wilson, Phyllis Verhey, and Alice Raney for arranging for their delivery and placement in the sanctuary. If you contributed to the cost of the lilies, you may take a lily with you following worship today. If you desire for your lily to be taken to a homebound church member, please leave it in the sanctuary so it can be delivered by members of the Diaconate. We also thank those of you who brought flowers and greenery to flower the cross.

Special thanks to Nathaniel Maxwell (trumpet) for providing music for today's worship.

Nursery care for infants through 6 years of age is provided during worship on the second floor of the Christian Education Building. There is a changing table in the narthex, located to the left as you exit the rear of the sanctuary.

Worship bags are available in the foyer for children. Books are on the pews in the narthex which young children can read and enjoy if they need to take a break from the worship service.

Hearing Assistance Receivers are available from the ushers. Before you leave the sanctuary, please turn off the receiver and place it in the specially marked receptacle or return to an usher.

Our Paschal Candle and stained Red Oak Stand, crafted by Marklin Candle Design of Contoocook, New Hampshire and given in memory of Elder Ed Kwon, was originally dedicated on April 30, 2017. This candle stands as a visible sign of God's enduring presence in our beautiful century-old sanctuary. Rooted in Passover (Pesach) and adopted by early Christians, the lit Candle represents the Risen Christ's triumph over darkness and death, his resurrection, to become the Light of the World. The beeswax candle is inscribed with a Cross, an alpha and omega, symbols attesting to Christ's presence among us now and always. Traditionally, the Candle, reminding us that we are preeminently an Easter People, is lit during worship services throughout the fifty days of Eastertide from Easter to Pentecost, as well as at Baptisms where it signifies that we are crucified and resurrected with Christ, and at funerals and memorial services where it visually proclaims Paul's message in Romans 6: 3-4 that "all of us who have been baptized into Jesus Christ ... have been buried with him ... into death, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead ..., so we too might walk in newness of life."

Portions of today's worship texts were reprinted from Book of Common Worship (1993, 2018), Eucharistic Prayers, Feasting on the Word, and Glory to God (hymnal).

Many thanks to John Fricks, Jody Maxwell, and Keith Rokoske for their technical assistance with our live broadcasts of worship on Sunday mornings.

Restrooms are in the narthex (to the left and right as you exit the rear of the sanctuary), on the second floor of the education building, and on the first and second floors of the church house.

Childcare: A staffed nursery and children's playroom are available on the second floor of the education building during worship.

Large print worship bulletins are available from the table as you enter the sanctuary from the foyer. Worship activity bags are available in the foyer for children to use during worship.

The bulletin cover is Joel Schoon-Tanis's Easter scene (from Facebook).

If you have not already made a reservation for your household, please complete and drop the enclosed luncheon reservation slip in the offering basket before leaving church TODAY. Sunday, May 1 will be our final day to celebrate FPC's sesquicentennial anniversary. Indoor and outdoor activities are planned. Cris Rivera and Beth Stringfield are preparing the meal for us. There is no cost for the meal.
